SEPARATE PEACE REJECTED

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Germany has made overtures to both Japan and Russia for a separate peace, but they were rejected. Premier Okuma told this to interviewers, according to a Tokio correspondent.

CHAPLIN DAY AT THE ANTIERS TOMORROW

The coming of the wonderful Charlie Chaplin in the ludicrous two reel Ecstasy-Chaplin Comedy, entitled "Shanghaied," at the Antlers theatre on Saturday (tomorrow) is an event that will long be remembered by those who on occasion like to throw care and worry to the winds for a little while and have a real good laugh and an enjoyable hour or so.

In this comedy, Charlie is at his very best and his antics and capers will make you laugh in spite of your grief. The entire program on Saturday will be exceptionally good. Wednesday, January 12, is another Red Letter day at the Antlers. On that date "Tom Powell's Minstrels," 25—all white—will give one of the very best minstrel shows ever seen here.

Billy Clark (the man from Onionville) is the chief smile-provoker, and he certainly is funny.

The second part, or so-called "Ollo" includes many fine specialties.

Britten, Golden and Britton are Mirambphone manipulators extraordinary. Then there is the singing five or "Harmony Kings" and the Nettle Carroll troupe offering a dashing display of daring feats on the wire. There will be a matinee in the afternoon and the regular evening performance at 8:30.
