CLACKAMAS MOOSE DEAD

Six Democrats Are Overwhelmed by Registration of 49 Republicans.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 8.—The progressive party in Clackamas county has disappeared and the democrats are few and far between. Judging from the early totals of registration in the office of County Clerk Harrington.

Not one avowed progressive has registered. No progressive candidate for state or county jobs has appeared.

In the three days since the registration began, 55 voters have appeared. Forty nine of this number are republicans and only six are democrats. The overwhelmingly large proportion of republicans is a surprise even to the leaders of that party here.

COMMON SENSE ADVISED

Baker Grand Jury Takes Notice of Sunday Law Enforcement.

BAKER, Or., Jan. 8.—Common sense in enforcement of the Sunday closing law was recommended by the Baker county grand jury in its report last night. The recommendation advocated that the diligence of the officials should be along the lines that have been followed, which have been to allow certain businesses to continue unless there is strenuous complaint against them. Baker pool halls have already been kept closed on Sunday by city ordinance.

The grand jury found a true bill against James McComb, charged with the murder of Leonard Goul, a blacksmith, November 18, and freed Jas. Wharton, of Carson, who had been charged with having a part in setting the fire that destroyed the town of Copperfield last summer.
