SEE CHAPLIN FOR A FROLIC AT THE ANTLER STONIGHT

Tonight there will be a veritable feast of fun and laughter, at the Antlers theatre, the occasion being the advent of Charlie Chaplin in the very best two-reel comedy he ever appeared in "Shanghaied". As a sailor Charlie is a scream. His antics "on deck" are too funny to describe in cold type and even the most vinegary old pessimist on earth would have to laugh at him.

The balance of the program is also excellent and the Antlers concert orchestra is playing some new popular rag time tunes that stick in the memory and that you unconsciously find yourself whistling the next day.

Another riot of fun is promised at the Antlers on next Wednesday, January 12, when Tom Powell's Minstrels will appear in one of the best minstrel programs ever offered anywhere as can be seen by the following:

Introductory Overture.....Company
Alabama Jubilee.....Tom Post
A Little Bit of Heaven.....Bob Roberts
Cake Walk Ball.....Billy Doss
Norway.....John Graham
Oddities.....Happy Golden
Billowy Sea.....Waldo Roberts
If War is what Sherman said it was.....Billy Clark
Song subject to change....."OLIO"
The Miramba Maniaes.....Britton,
Golden and Britton.

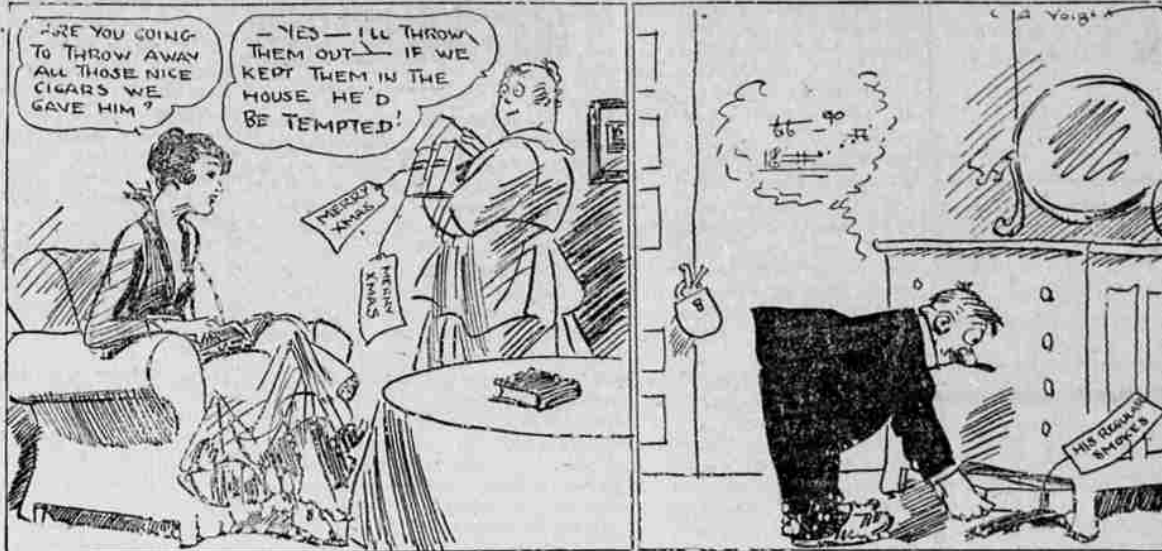

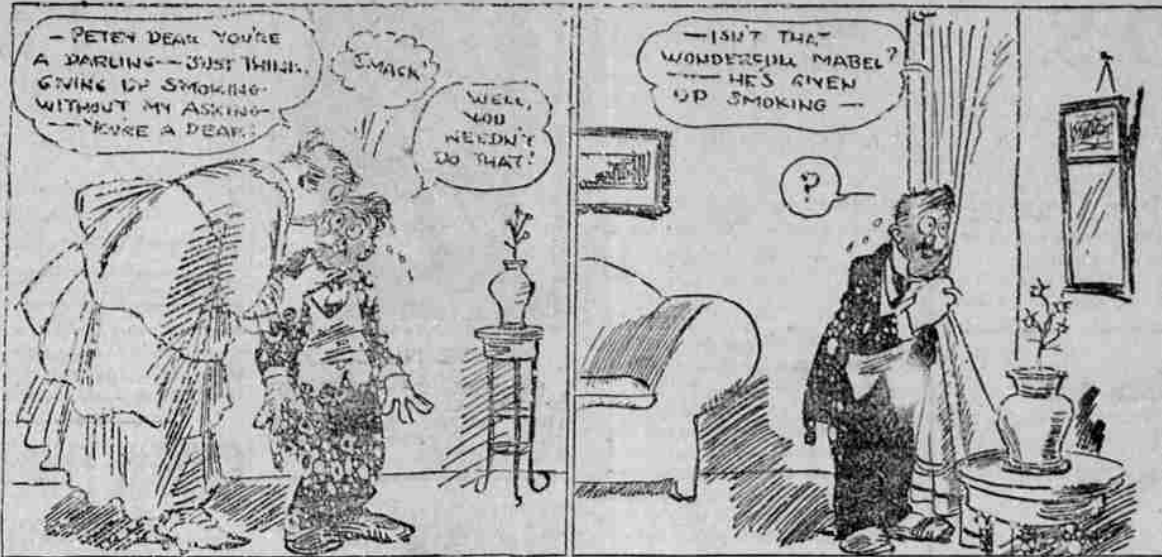

Positively the last word in Mirambophone Manipulation—The Singing Five, Harmony Kings, Lew Briggs, Billy Doss, Bob Roberts, Waldo Roberts and John Graham's Minstrel Billy Clark—The Man from Ontarioville, Indian Territory.

The Nettle Carroll Troupe, offering a dashing display of daring feats on the wire. There will be a matinee on Wednesday afternoon at popular prices and the usual evening performance at 8:30 p. m.

The management of the Antlers theatre wish it distinctly understood that this is not a colored troupe, every member of the Tom Powell Company being a white man. This is the same company now playing at Empress theatre in Portland.
