

SHAUGHNESSY'S FATHER WAS HUMBLE COP; BUT HE'S A LORD OF THE BRITISH REALM

Latest picture of Lord and Lady Shaughnessy.

On the first of this month Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railroad and one of Canada's most distinguished citizens, was created an English lord, with a vote in parliament. Lord Shaughnessy's father was a humble Irish policeman of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Lady Shaughnessy before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Nagle, also a native of Milwaukee.

Walter Winans, Eng. The most famous shot in Europe with hand and shoulder arms.

Two World's Records in One Day with the .22 Savage Hi-Power

At the Bisley Matches of the British National Rifle Association—the biggest rifle match in the world—the .22 Savage Hi-Power rifle and Savage ammunition in the hands of Mr. Walter Winans on July 25, 1914, made the highest possible score on the Running Deer target—six straight 5's. This is a World's record.

On the same day, with the same rifle and ammunition, Mr. Winans made the highest possible score on the Running Wild Deer target—six straight 5's. Another World's record.

This merely clinches what other shooters have proved—that the Imp's wonderful accuracy (25 consecutive shots in a 20-inch circle at 200 yards), tremendous velocity (2800 feet—more than half a mile—a second), long point blank range (2000 feet trajectory less than three inches), and trifling recoil (4.6 foot pounds) make it easier to hit moving game with than any other rifle.

And it has killed Alaskan Brown Bear, Grizzly, Buffalo, and man-eating tiger, besides the deer and black bear it was originally designed for.

Write us for particulars about "the biggest rifle gun in the world."

ENGLAND FEARS WAR MAY WIPE OUT PEERAGES

By Wilbur S. Forrest.
LONDON, Jan. 6.—(By mail.)—A proposal is being considered in the highest quarters to provide against the extinction of British peerages by the operations of the war. One peer without an heir, Lord Kesteven, already has been killed in action and several heirs to peerages, including those of Lord Lincolnshire and Lord Ribblesdale, have fallen, leaving no heirs to succeed them. It is considered possible that steps soon will be taken to create "special remainder" for succession to titles from the female side. Six titles have become extinct so far during the war. At the beginning of 1915, there were 581 hereditary peers in the United Kingdom.

WHITE MAHATMA AND TROUPE ARE UNIQUE

Clayton and his company open a weeks engagement at the Antlers theatre on Monday, January 31, with daily matinees (Monday excepted). During this entire week there will be a double program, beginning at 7:15 as usual, with a complete program of Paramount and Broadway Star motion pictures, at the conclusion of which Clayton and his company will complete the program. The picture programs will be as usual except that there will be a complete change every night except Friday. On this evening the beautiful five reel Paramount feature, "Helene of the North," featuring Marguerite Clark, will be repeated from Thursday night. It should be thoroughly understood that this is not a dramatic company. The entertainment is bright and sparkling throughout with many amusing as well as instructive features, and the management of the Antlers theatre guarantee their patrons that this will be without exception the biggest show value for the money ever given in the city of Roseburg.

HAS CHRISTIANITY FAILED?

Hear R. E. Jope tonight at the Christian church on this subject. Mrs. DeLapp and Mrs. Jope will sing "Whispering Hope". A question box will be used. Last night's subject was "Confessing Christ." Confessing Christ is more than believing him a man of history. It means belief in his divinity. Jesus demands it and truth demands it. How else will the world know what influences you for good? The salvation of the world depends upon it for man must carry the message to man. We confess Christ by the mouth, but more by the life we live. The voice and life must harmonize. To the early followers of Christ confessing him meant giving up all, yet they were satisfied. Today we are required to give up only things that tend downward. Yet it takes a manly man, one with courage and determination to follow Christ. But the reward is great. Our confession takes place on earth, Christ's in Heaven; for he says "He that confesses me before men, him will I confess before my Father". No one, save Christ is worthy to introduce us to God. He is greater than all men. Come to tonight's service. If you have a religious question you want answered, drop it in the box and it will be considered.

A POLITICIAN'S RECIPE FOR REMEMBERING ACQUAINTANCES

In the February American Magazine a writer says: "My acquaintance was large, and I was not only embarrassed but annoyed and hurt by my failure of remembering much more prominent men." "One day in a hotel lobby, a member of congress from my state who had been in congress ten years spoke to me heartily, and as I shook hands with him I committed the unpardonable error of asking him who he was. He happened to be a man of good sound common sense as well as a good politician, and here is what he said to me after he led me away into a secluded corner: "Remembering new acquaintances is a habit easily formed. There are fourteen thousand voters in my district, and I can speak to four-fifths of them by their first names. Ordinarily when you are introduced to a man or when you see him at a distance, you hear his name but your mind is on something else. When his name is pronounced to me, I have a firm grip on his hand and am looking at the color of his eyes with my whole power of mind focussed on that one combination of name and face. If the thing is done faithfully, there is not one chance in a hundred that anything can blot out the memory in ten years."

QUEER JAPANESE METHOD OF TEACHING MORALS

In the February American Magazine Ray Stannard Baker gives the following account of a curious feature of Japanese school instruction: "Visiting the Japanese schools in Hawaii several years ago I was impressed with one feature unknown to American schools. This was an interesting series of colored pictures with texts in the Japanese language, illustrating the model conduct expected of Japanese children upon a great variety of occasions. These were distributed about on the walls of the school rooms and frequently changed. When I expressed my appreciation of this work one of the teachers said: 'How shall a child know how to act unless he is taught?' which seemed to be a soundly sensible remark. And yet in America (until recently), while religious teaching has been barred from the public schools, no substitute involving thorough instruction in conduct or morals has been developed. The upbuilding of moral ideals, upon which character rests, has been left to such incidental and indirect instruction as might come out of the school work. The result is that large numbers of American children—not only those whose home life is poor or whose church connections are weak, but thousands of others—leave school with only the haziest ideas of what is right and what is wrong."
