LOOKINGGLASS

Onward is ever our watchword.

The late snows have about all disappeared with a nice warm gentie rain, which is swelling the streams to their full capacity.

Our stockmen have been more than busy during the late looking after and feeding their stock which has greatly suffered during this winter all over the country.

Miss Nellfe Cloake, of West Roseburg, spent several days last week visiting at the homes of Mr. Mrs. Ernest Preble and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Schrenk.

W. R. Godfrey, one of Ten Mile's most energetic farmers, enroute from Roseburg to Ten Mile on last Friday, made a stop over visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schrenk.

Miss Grace Myers, daughter of George L. Myers, who has attended the O. A. C. for the last month taking a course in domestic science, returned home again last Saturday in company with her sister, Mildred, and brother, Frank.

J. T. Spaugh, one of our prominent fruit growers, made a business tri pto Roseburg last Saturday.

Miss Gertrude Schrenk and brother, Henton, who spent several days last week visiting with friends and relatives at Ten Mile have returned home again.

Preaching services which were announced for last Sunday afternoon had to be postponed on account of the high water which was raging in all the streams. There will be preaching again by Bro, Morris, of Ten Mile, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, February 20. All are invited to come.

NEW MEMBER OF THE

Mrs. Clifton N. McArthur.

The congressional set of Washington has a charming addition to its ranks with the arrival of Mrs. Clifton N. McArthur, wife of the newly elected congressman from Oregon. The usual official amenities over, the social season is settling down to its winter stride and Mrs. McArthur is a popular member of the social colony of the capital.

The Looking Glass literary and debating society, will meet next Wednesday evening at the Grange Hall, subject, "Are Mail Order Houses a Detriment to any Com-munity?" Everybody is invited to

E. M. Ollivant made a business trip to Roseburg Saturday, taking to market some fine dressed corn fed hogs. The hog market is somewhat better than it was last fall.
