

In Club and Society Circles

With the season of Lent approaching so closely, hostesses are hastening to fill up the few remaining weeks with social gaieties, perhaps the more to appreciate the period of suspended activities. While some of the functions have been more assuming, many have been of a very informal nature, including many gatherings of intimates for a social afternoon or evening at cards or music. Several of the lodges have entertained high officials, among these being the Order of Elks, which was honored by a visit from Mr. W. R. Logus, Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for the Oregon district south, on Thursday.

Delightful Luncheon.

Violets and daffodils were used in profusion to carry out the color scheme of violet and gold yesterday, when Mrs. Chas. Wharton and Mrs. J. F. Barker entertained at luncheon at the home of the latter. Covers for fourteen were laid at the table, yellow frilled nut cups and a beautiful centerpiece of daffodils adorning the board, while another bowl of the same spring blossoms graced the buffet. The hostesses occupied places at the ends of the table and dainty verse cards marked the places of the guests who were Mrs. W. T. Wright, Mrs. Geo. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. Geo. Ritter, Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. Robert Gille, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. M. M. Miller, Mrs. J. C. Fullerton, Mrs. James Templin, Mrs. Lolla Seldon, Mrs. J. C. Aiken, Miss Velle Barker and Miss Mabel Van Buren served the delicious luncheon to the guests, after which needle work was indulged in for some time before adieux were made.

Musical at Bell Home.

The musical held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Bell last evening for the benefit of the '95 Mental Culture club house fund was attended by a large number of persons who are interested in the movement. A splendid program of music and dramatic readings was presented to an appreciative audience, Mrs. Shepard and Mrs. Sether opening with a spirited piano duet, Miss Willett gave a humorous recital of a small sister's soliloquy and responded to an encore with the selection, "You Will Never be Missed". Mrs. Ora Porter also recited in her pleasing manner, "The Taming of the Shrew," and had a pretty poem for an encore. Other musical numbers were the Melting Angers, led by Gordon Fory, a duet by the Misses Bridges and Black in their always delightful style, a vocal solo by Miss Lilburn from the Italian, and a song by Mr. Harold Stewart, after which the program closed with the singing of America by the audience. Punch and small cakes were served and an offering taken which will be added to the fund for the proposed club house.

Mrs. B. L. Eddy Wednesday afternoon entertained a number of friends and was assisted in affording pleasure to her guests by Miss Frances Parslow, who rendered several piano selections during the afternoon. Mrs. Townsend also favored the party with a delightful song and little Ione Aderton sang "Little Boy Blue" very sweetly. Mrs. Eddy, whose daughter, Ruth, was just recently married to Mr. Tebault of Salem, had prepared a bridal cake, which was served by Misses Genevieve Bemis, Daphne Bright, and Frances Parslow. Miss Bright appearing in the blue chiffon gown worn by Mrs. Tebault at her wedding, which was attended only by the immediate family.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Eddy's hospitality were Mesdames A. J. Bellows, A. A. Bellows, Lux, Hunter, Bodie, Shuey, Ritter, J. C. Fullerton, Grinstead, Bemis, Hunt, Kohlhaugen, Kitchin, Parslow, Guest, Pitts, Strange, Holmes, Insley, Hadley, Smick, Townsend, Jackson, Richardson, Gleason, Wright, Runyan, Shoemaker and the Misses Josephine Parrott, Clapp, Bristol, and Violet Graham.

Mrs. Geo. Brown Hostess in Salem.

Mrs. Geo. Brown, of Roseburg, wife of Attorney General Brown, together with Mrs. Harris, wife of Judge Harris, of the supreme court, this afternoon entertained with a musicale at the Hotel Marlon in Salem. Some of the musical talent was drawn from Roseburg, Mrs. Gordon Fory and Mrs. Robert Kidd having gone to Salem on Thursday to be present and render several vocal selections. Eugene talent was also represented, a baritone and tenor having gone from there to add to the program. Tea was served and a delightful afternoon spent enjoying the musical treat.

Thimble Party.

Honoring Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, Mrs. Edwin E. Thornton and Miss Myth Hanan, this afternoon entertained a number of ladies at the home of Mrs. Thornton on Douglas street. Potter plants and hanging baskets added to the attractiveness of the charming home and violets and carnations were gracefully arranged in baskets and vases throughout the different rooms. Mrs. Thornton had made very artistic little pen-and-ink sketches for place cards, and added original verses which indicated the places intended for the guests. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: Mrs. Harry Hildeburn, Mrs. B. B. Bullwinkle, Mrs. Roy Bellows, Miss Margaret McClallen, Mrs. K. L. Miller, Mrs. S. S. Josephson, Miss Velle Barker, Mrs. Ethel McKinsey, Mrs. Louis Neuner, Mrs. W. J. Weaver, Mrs. Ed. Hart, Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Robert McLendon, Mrs. E. R. Hanan and Mrs. Fred Haynes.

Luncheon at Hotel Umpqua.

Mrs. W. J. Weaver entertained Tuesday at a luncheon held in the dining room of the Hotel Umpqua. Washington's birthday decorations were used on the table, a rustic tree stump, pierced by the historical hatchet, occupying the center, with bunches of brilliant cherries arranged about it in a border. The place cards also carried out the tree and hatchet idea and bore the names of the guests who were Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. C. L. Seelman, Mrs. A. F. Sether, Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. Harry Stapleton, and Mrs. F. W. Haynes.

Graham-Black Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Arrie Black to Mr. W. H. Graham, was solemnized with a church ceremony at noon today in Andrews, Texas, where the bride has spent the past year with her sister. Mrs. Graham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black, of Roseburg, and while she will be greatly missed in local society and musical circles where she has been very popular, her friends are unanimous in wishing her joy in her new home, which will be at Andrews where Mr. Graham is established as editor of one of the newspapers there.

Class Entertained.

Miss Natalie Barker yesterday entertained her Sunday school class at her home on Winchester street. The affair was informal, and the decoration were dainty bouquets of violets and almond blossoms. Those present were the teacher, Miss Ivo McLaughlin, Miss Leah Lahey, Agnes Carroll, Clara Starmer, Lois Geddes, Beatrice Whittitt, Leoto Barker, Ruby Davis, Josephine McElhinny, Jennie Barker, Vera Davis, Pearl Wayland, Garnet Wilcox and Natalie Barker.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Ingals, assisted by Miss Madge Carmony and Miss Bessie Barker.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of the Benson school last night took the form of a birthday program, commemorating the birth of five great Americans—Washington, Lincoln, Longfellow, Lowell and Edison. An elaborate program had been prepared in which different pupils from the school took part, and Miss Ruth Aikens, who has spent several years in the study of art in Berkeley, California, gave a most interesting talk on the value of the study of art in the public schools. Other features of the program were the opening chorus, "America For Me," by a chorus of pupils; a composition on Lowell by Miss Edna Stone, a recitation by Helen Perrine, "The Children's Hour"; a declamation by Seaborn Johns, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address"; recitation by Helen Atterbury; a dialogue by Miss Callwell's pupils, entitled "A Washington Party"; Washington's Address by Colin Campbell; the story of the Star Spangled Banner by Amy Freeman and chorus of girls; a recitation by Rosa Webb, "O Captain, My Captain"; Boyhood Stories of Lincoln, by Halbert Mathews; a composition on Edison by Royal Carter; recitation by Eloise Gray and one by Cecile Bennett.

Mrs. Robert Leadbetter today left Mercy hospital where she has been for some time, and with her small daughter, Florence Lessa, and son, Charles, will spend several months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn at Happy Valley. She expects to join her husband in Portland at the end of that time.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church served a delicious cafeteria dinner at noon today in the parlors of the church, and will also serve supper at 25 cents a plate this evening. These are always very social occasions and as usual, the one today was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins will have as their guest at dinner tonight, Circuit Judge Coke, of Marshfield, who is holding court here at present. Mr. Perkins and Judge Coke served in the legislature together, from which time their friendship dates.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boardman had Mrs. Carl D. Shoemaker and Miss Katherine Paul for dinner guests last night at the Hotel Umpqua.

SOPHOMORES WIN FROM SUTHERLIN AT BASKET BALL.

The basket ball game last night between the Sophomores of the Roseburg high school and the Sutherlin high school team resulted in a victory for the former, the score being 49 to 12. The Roseburg boys had a complete walk away from the start and Sutherlin guards were unable to stop the sensational basket throwing of the Roseburg forwards. The Sophs. have won the title to the interclass championship in the high school and have won against several out-of-town teams. There are a number of good players in the class who will prove a strength to next year's high school team as practically the entire Roseburg team graduates this year.

The preliminary between the west side and junior teams was won by the former 13 to 12.

McKINLEY GOLD DOLLARS

It is not generally known that congress passed a bill on the 7th day of February this year, authorizing the coinage of one hundred thousand gold dollars, to be known as the "McKinley Gold Dollar," and those were to be delivered to the trustees of the McKinley memorial, being erected at Niles, Ohio, who will sell them at an advanced price as souvenirs. The act stipulated that they be delivered to the trustees at par, and without any expense to the government, and that the die be destroyed. These are the first gold dollars to be coined by this government for many years, or to be exact, since the passage of an act on September 26, 1890, forbidding such coinage on account of their smallness. There is little doubt that the Memorial trustees will have no trouble in disposing of the entire coinage at an advance of twenty-five cents, at the least, thus netting a tidy sum for their purpose.

Walter Winans, Eng. The most famous shot in Europe with hand and shoulder arms.

Two World's Records in One Day with the .22 Savage Hi-Power

At the Bisley Matches of the British National Rifle Association—the biggest rifle match in the world—the .22 Savage Hi-Power rifle and Savage ammunition in the hands of Mr. Walter Winans on July 25, 1914, made the highest possible score on the Running Deer target—six straight 5's. This is a World's record.

On the same day, with the same rifle and ammunition, Mr. Winans made the highest possible score on the Running Wild Bear target—six straight 5's. Another World's record.

This merely clinches what other shooters have proved—that the Imp's wonderful accuracy (25 consecutive shots in a 10-inch circle at 400 yards), tremendous velocity (2800 feet—more than half a mile—a second), long point blank range (200-yard trajectory less than three inches), and tugging recoil (4.8 foot pounds) make it easier to hit moving game with than any other rifle.

And it has killed Alaskan Brown Bear, Grizzly, Buffalo, and man-eating tigers, besides the deer and black bear it was originally designed for.

Write us for particulars about "the biggest rifle gun in the world."
