

CAMERA CATCHES ALLEGED PLOTTERS, CHARGED BY U. S. WITH AIDING TEUTONS

Alleged plotters snapped on way to court. Philip R. Thayer (left); Joseph L. Bley, and Charles C. Crowley, insert.

These men have been indicted by the federal government in San Francisco, charged with having violated the neutrality laws of the United States in an attempt to help Germany. Thayer is president and Bley an employe of the Northern and Southern Pacific Steamship company.

PEG O' MY HEART

There are two dogs coming to our town. One is just an ordinary, everyday sort of a dog. The other is one that you do not get the chance to pat, for he is the kind that you see riding through the streets reclining in the lap of some fine lady.

The names of these two dogs are "Michael" and "Pet," so you will readily guess which one belongs to the ordinary mortal, and which to the idle rich person.

Michael is a rough-haired, homely Irish terrier, affectionate and faithful to those who show him kindness, while Pet is a white, curl-haired spaniel, potted and pampered.

These dogs are brought together through the fact that Michael's mistress has been sent to the home of an aristocratic English family, for the purpose of finishing her education. Both Michael and his mistress, a little Irish lass, are received in a very cold manner.

But as all stories should end, our dog hero and his sweet mistress come into their own, with Michael having all the bones his heart could desire, and his mistress, all the love her affectionate nature craved.

If you care to see the characters depicted above you can do so at the Antlers theatre Tuesday, Feb. 29, where they are respectively, the dog hero, dog-villain, and sweet Peg of the famous success, "Peg O' My Heart".

ENGLAND IS HAVEN FOR WAR ORPHANS

By Wilbur S. Forrest.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WOKINGHAM, Eng., Feb. 26.—This little English market town is the nation's haven for motherless and fatherless war children. Hundreds of juvenile innocents whose fathers lie buried in France have found new homes here. Almost every housewife in Wokingham has a new baby. She probably has adopted it, thanks to the war.

The nuns at the Wokingham convent are busy too, for every child who is old enough is a pupil at the convent school. In some cases the father is dead but the mother still lives.

Little Tommy Hadley, aged six, is a notable example. His father was a private in the South Lancashire regiment and he was killed early in the war. Since that time Tommy's mother has been ill, so the Children's Aid Society sent Tommy to Wokingham. He has a foster mother who clothes him and gets him ready to go to school every morning. One of the older girl orphans calls for Tommy and other boy and girl orphans. By the time she arrives at the convent she has a happy string of charges ready for the day's lessons.

Many of Wokingham's orphans whose fathers and mothers are both gone are permanently installed in Wokingham homes. They have changed their names and will grow up with "regular" fathers and mothers. Some of the children are only motherless. The father is still fighting somewhere in the war. If he comes back, which perhaps he will not, the child may leave Wokingham. But in the other event there will be a new adoption in some Wokingham homes.

JEFF: McLEMORE IS QUEER NAME OF
THIS CONGRESSMAN

Jeff McMormore.

Jeff McMormore—not Jefferson or even Jeff, but Jeff—is the congressman-at-large from Texas. He always uses the colon. He explains that it is a boyhood fancy that he has clung to. In his autobiography in the Congressional Directory he says he was born "on a farm in Tennessee, on Friday, March 13, in a storm." He says further that he never received much schooling "because of his aversion to teachers." He has been a cowboy, prospector, and newspaper man in Mexico, Colorado and Texas. He is a Democrat and lives in Houston.

at 7:30; prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Come and see and you will come again.

Tomorrow evening ex-Rabbi Joseph Goldman of Russia will speak on Prophecy Concerning the Jews.

M. E. Church South.

C. H. Cleaves, pastor. Services Sunday as follows: Sunday school at 9:45; morning worship at 11; Epworth League 6:30; evening services at 7:30. Spend your evenings here. Services will be bright, brief and helpful. Music in charge of Prof. H. J. Stone.

Tomorrow will be known as Laymen's Day, and preparations are being made for great services. C. W. Kirk, who went as delegate to the Laymen's convention at Portland, will speak at the morning service. At night Messrs. B. W. Strong and R. L. Gile, of the Baptist church will speak. These addresses will be well worth your hearing. The laymen's work is a great work, and these men will be able to give much inspiration. Echoes of the convention will be helpful and uplifting. E. R. McClain is the lay leader of the church, and services will be in charge of him.

BRAZILIANS USE PERFUME DURING CARNIVAL TIME

RIO DE JANEIRO, Feb. 26.—All Brazil is preparing for the annual three day Mardi Gras carnival, early in March. The annual carnival celebrated in Rio de Janeiro, as a gorgeous spectacle claims to far overshadow that of Venice or of New Orleans. It is estimated that $1,000,000 was spent on siphons of perfume alone last year. The perfume siphons are used by the crowds on the streets. They are called "lances of perfume" and the battle of perfume lances rages for three entire days and nights. Pageants, masques, balls and every other conceivable form of amusement contribute to the riot of fun. "Momo, the king of fun," as they call the carnival god, is already summoning his votaries.

Two Band Stands Exactly Alike Yet Entirely Different

The band stands erected at Willow Grove Park, right outside of Philadelphia, and at another large pleasure park in Philadelphia, are exactly alike in construction. The former is a complete success, the latter an absolute failure. WHY? Because of the difference in surroundings which affect the acoustic properties. As in band stands, so in talking machines The Columbia system of changeable needles and the modifying shutters enables you to adapt every record to the particular acoustic surroundings of any room. Come in and hear the Grafonola and be convinced.
