

WEST SIDE SCHOOL SITE IS SURVEYED

Engineer L. G. Hicks, has prepared a map of the proposed West Roseburg high school site, which will be presented to the school board for consideration. The work was done under the direction of some of the West Roseburg residents who are desirous of having the board select this site for the new high school building.

As surveyed the land which it is proposed to use for school purposes, lies on a ridge, the contour being rounding, making drainage easy. It is directly in line with a continuation of Harvard avenue and is composed of four acres which Mr. Bellows promises to donate and two acres to be donated by Mr. Nachter. The latter two acres include a part of the fine laurel grove which is one of the most beautiful in this vicinity.

There is a great deal of discussion in regard to the selection of a site for the building, many being in favor of erecting the school house on the west side, while others desire its construction on the Lane school property. Either site is an excellent one for a school building and each have features for and against them. The matter will probably be put up to a vote of the citizens at some date in the near future.

17 YEARS IN THE GAME.

We have been in business in Roseburg for over seventeen years and have always noticed that the fellow that "holters" Trust is the fellow that is "slippin'", he is being undersold by the other fellow. The other fellow offering better quality, better service and handled in a clean sanitary way. Our business is built on quality first, price being a second consideration. We believe this is so with the buying public. Price is a poor trade builder without quality. We will depend on quality for our future success. MRS. A. C. KIDD & SON. We Trust that the public Trusts us. This is the only Trust that exists. 369-m24

BRYAN DECLARED A DEMOCRAT

Objection to His Name Being Placed on Ballot in Nebraska Overruled.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 19.—Filing of candidates for the primary election of one month from yesterday closed last night with few important vacancies on the six political party tickets. Opposition to the four names for delegates at large to the democratic national convention headed by Bryan appeared when filings were made by Douglas Cones, W. B. Price and W. D. Oldham as delegates. Opposition to the nomination of Mr. Bryan on the ground that he is not a democrat made by R. W. Whited, of Omaha, was overruled by the secretary of state and his name will remain on the ballot.

WILLIAM TELL OVERTURE. Part 1. At Dawn Prince's Orchestra. WILLIAM TELL OVERTURE. Part 2. The Storm. Prince's Orchestra. WILLIAM TELL OVERTURE. Part 3. The Calm. Prince's Orchestra. WILLIAM TELL OVERTURE. Part 4. Finale. Prince's Orchestra. This famous Overture, since its first production in 1829, has stood as one of the most popular as well as perfect instrumental preludes in all music. The "pastoral" "At Dawn" played with such beautiful simplicity by the woodwinds; the "Storm" and "Calm" contrasting almost the full range of orchestral effects; and the allegro vivace "Finale" one of the most dazzling themes in orchestral composition—all unite in keeping "Tell" at the zenith of popular favoritism.
