WILLARD AND MORAN READY FOR BATTLE

NEW YORK, March 21.—With Jess Willard and Frank Moran rapidly approaching the highest degree of fitness for their 10-round bout at Madison Square garden Saturday night, Promoter Tex Rickard announced that the seat sale had already realized $119,000. A capacity house will probably witness the battle. Betting, however, is very light.

The champion has about finished his hard training work. He now contents himself with a three or four mile walk every day, and takes plenty of rest.

Moran, on the other hand, is still toiling. He is running four miles daily, slogging the bag 10 minutes, skipping rope and boxing five or six rounds with hard hitting sparring partners.
