The Old Folks at Home

(Often called "Swanee River"; found on page 120 of "Heart Songs")

The first popularity of "Swanee River" dates back to the time when Christine Nilsson, the fair-haired daughter of a Swedish farmer, surprised all who heard her with the sweetness and compass of her voice as she sang Foster's plaintive melody. She will be known and long remembered for her singing of "Swanee River" in the height of her success and operatic triumphs: She was the acknowledged incomparable artist of her time. This beautiful song, and many others sung by Nilsson, are to be found in "Heart Songs."

W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE
HELD AT WILBUR

The local W. C. T. U. institute was held at the M. E. church in Wilbur Wednesday, April 6, under the direction of Mrs. Minnie Tutbill acting county president.

The morning session was opened by a praise service led by Mrs. Sue Baird, followed by an address of welcome by the local president, Mrs. Lou La Raut. Following the appointment of committees, Mrs. Evelyn Harford, one of our national organizers gave a very interesting address on "National Prohibition in State and Nation." Mr. and Mrs. Fred Able then sang a very pleasing duet.

Mrs. Minnie Tutbill spoke on "Purity of Literature and Art" followed by Mrs. C. D. McKay on "Our Periodicals".
Mrs. Cynthia Russell led in the noonday prayer.

The local union served a delicious luncheon at the parsonage.
In the afternoon the subject "Anti Narcotics" was ably handled by Prof. T. E. Gray. An excellent paper by Dr. Lucetta Smith on "Better Babies" was read by Mrs. F. S. Green. District Attorney George Neuner, Jr. spoke for an hour on "Law Enforcement". School was dismissed early as our teachers and pupils had an opportunity of hearing this instructive talk.

Mrs. Inez Miller spoke briefly, in her forceful and pleasing manner on "The Importance of the L. T. L." Later Mrs. Harford gave an interesting talk to the children along the same line. They showed much interest and many signified their intention of becoming members of the L. T. L., a branch of which will be organized on Mrs. Harford's return. During the day several choice musical numbers were rendered. The evening session was held at the school house where a large audience was gathered to hear the address of the evening by Mrs. Harford. She urged the women to realize their responsibility as voters and to carefully inquire into the past and present record of all candidates aspiring for office, especially seeking legislative nominations. We were favored during the evening with a delightful solo by Mrs. Daisy Corvalho. In closing the male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Able, Grubbe, Baird and Floy Chapman, rendered "Nearer My God to Thee" in an impressive manner.

Only a few more of the popular song services. Don't miss the one this Sunday night at 7:30, led by the orchestra. Also a short sermon on "It". What if it? Can you guess it? Come, you will enjoy this service, at the Presbyterian church.

Finding "The One Person"
in a Whole Cityfull!

ONE person will buy your property; One person will rent your house or apartment; ONE person will give you employment.

How long would it require to find that "one person" without help? Could it be accomplished at all?

The classified advertisements help you to find the ONE PERSON you seek—because that one person, in most instances, expects to get in touch with you through the classified advertising columns. Self-interest makes your classified advertisement IMPORTANT to this one person

Your "ad" will be read by wrong people, of course—by many of them. But, with a little presence on your part, it will come to the notice, unfailingly, of one person to whom and for whom it was written.

That's the SERVICE our classified columns offer to you.
