CAMAS VALLEY

Mrs. Chas. Kenyon preached a goodly congregation at the lower school house last Thursday evening. Mrs. Kenyon leaves for Idaho soon to join her husband. She has been superintendent of our Sunday school for the past three months.

Camas Valley and Ten Mile schools contested Saturday, with victory for Camas Valley.

The Camas Valley base ball team, basket ball team and debating team accompanied by teachers and many other Camas patriots journeyed to Ten Mile Saturday to contest with the corresponding Ten Mile teams. The first victory for Camas Valley was the debate which took place in the morning. Although the Ten Mile team didn't win they are to be congratulated on their excellent preparation and the able manner in which they handled their subject and above all the game way in which they took their defeat. The debate was followed by a bountiful luncheon served by pupils and patrons of the Ten Mile school.

The afternoon was taken up by two exciting contests between the corresponding baseball and basket ball team which were both victories for Camas Valley. Another feature of the program which greatly added to the enjoyment of the day was the reading from James Whitcomb Riley, given by Dr. Van Fossen. The Camas Valley people returned at a late hour, tired but happy and long in their praise of the pluck and hospitality of the Ten Mile school.
