SYD CHAPLIN BECOMES AN "ADMIRAL" AT LAST

A long and adventurous career on the high seas may help some in the case of Syd Chaplin, who is to appear in the Triangle-Keystone comedy "A Submarine Pirate," at the Antlers theatre Saturday. He was born March 17 (St. Patrick's day), 1885, Cape Town, South Africa. He first appeared on the stage in Miss Maggie Morton's company, playing in a drama called "Two Little Drummer Boys". He left the stage when sixteen to go to sea as bugler on the Union Castle line, running between South Africa and England. He made five voyages and then shipped as bugler on lines running to America, making six voyages. On his last voyage his ship was laid up for eight weeks for repairs at Philadelphia. Syd got a chance to see something of life ashore and, seeking of the sea, secured an engagement with Charles Frohman's production "Sherlock Holmes," playing two small parts. A little later he was given the part of Sid Prince, the cockney crackman, in the same play. This was his first comedy part. He then obtained a small part in a comedy sketch in

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

The enamel finish of the steel body can be restored to its original lustre until the car literally looks like new.

This is constantly being done by owners after months of use. The enamel is baked onto the steel at intense heat. Dust and mud and neglect may dull its appearance—but the glossy finish is still there, waiting to be brought back by a simple process of cleaning.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car. The gasoline consumption is unusually low.

The price of the Touring Car or Roadster complete is $785 (f. o. b. Detroit.)
