A REAL CRISIS IN MEXICO.

In Carranza's turning against our troops who went into Mexico to help him maintain order, the expected has happened. He is a creature of public sentiment, as any Mexican chieftain must be, particularly one with a weak hold on his sceptre.

It looks as if the United States were at war with the republic of Mexico just as much as we were in 1846. The boat has been pushed out into the stream; whether it will float? It is very doubtful if the United States troops can come out until order has been restored.

ALAS POOR YORICK.

The final reverberations from Nebraska in the primary elections, indicate that his home state has at length tired of the versatile Bryan, and has even refused to send him as a delegate to a convention where the democrats will name their standard bearer in another national campaign.

LOST, STOLEN OR STRAYED.

A one time brilliant, but meteoric
bances, by name Villa. Even the grave refuses to claim him or hide him.

With the manufacture of logan-berry juice on a large scale in sight or the near future, and the production of broccoli on the increase, with the raising of flax as one of the industries of the country only exceeded by the annual production of sugar beets, the luscious strawberry will have to look after its laurels in the Umpqua Valley, or one of those other reductions will wrest its claim away or the spreading the name and glory of the valley to every part of the land.

The bakers of Roseburg celebrating the advent of Good Friday by baking great quantities of delicious hot cross buns, but unfortunately they are living under circumstances which prevent the use of the Mother ouse ditty "hot cross buns, one a day, two a penny, hot cross buns," for they did not sell at that price.

The sale of the Ed. Handin ranch Mr. Gladwell, of Tillamook, yesterday, was consummated through the office of the W. A. Bogard Real estate Company.

GRAND MAY BALL.

Tuesday, May 2nd, at Armory. Music furnished by Ott's orchestra. Price of admission $1.00, ladies free, to be given by the members of the St.
Joseph's Parish. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Roseburg and surrounding country. 450-tf

THINK VILLA HIDING
IN CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—Major Goldbaum Padilla, confidential representative of Carranza, refused to deny or affirm the reports that he is searching for Villa, believing him to be hiding in this locality since the raid on Columbus. Padilla heads the Sonora state police. He admitted that his mission here was of the utmost importance to his government, but said he was pledged not to talk regarding the objects of his visit. It is known that two organizations here are trying to institute a new revolution.

It is noted that the movie theatres might not have all the monopoly on the war advertising, the Red Cross Pharmacy and the Owl Drug Store today engaged in a short war with talcum powder as the chief article of dissension. Talcum powder early this morning began dropping in price until it reached a selling price of two cans for five cents. The war was abruptly ended, however, shortly afternoon when the supply was exhausted.

The plans for the high school building arrived today after they have been changed slightly by the While turning the corner on Court and Jackson streets yesterday Pedro McGraw drove the general delivery truck into one of the dray wagons belonging to the Denn Transfer Co.

The fender on the auto was badly bent, but no damage was done beyond this.

Bertram Bates, the well known cartoonist and musician has composed a new ragtime selection which is meeting with a great deal of favor at the many dances at which it has been used. It is now being arranged in form for publication by Bandmaster "Togo" McLaughlin and will probably be out in sheet music form under the name of the "Bat Rag" within a few months.
