Make YOUR Summer Days Play Days-- Get Out Into The Open

SPRING and Summer are beckoning! Don't stay cooped up in the house—it isn't necessary. In over 70,000 homes the day's cleaning is done in an hour after breakfast. The happy hum of the motor; the whirling brush of the Frantz Premier have finished the day's cleaning in these homes. Every room is spick and span and the home is as bright, clean and healthful as the cool air of the woods.

The dirt-devouring nozzle of the Frantz Premier has gone into every nook and corner, over every rug and carpet, easily, smoothly and efficiently. Not an atom of dirt or grit, not a thread, scrap or bit of lint have escaped it.

These 70,000 good housekeepers have found that the Frantz Premier is their best friend in the hot, dusty days of summer, because it leaves them the best part of the day for enjoyment. Open doors and windows (even the screened) admit dust and dirt from the unswept streets. The way to clean easily and economically, the way that leaves you time to laugh and play, to swim and walk, to study and play is the Frantz Premier way.

The Frantz Premier is more than a mere suction or vacuum sweeper. It is an electrically operated cleaner weighing only nine pounds, and it's more effective than if it weighed ninety. Its light weight is made possible by aluminum castings throughout, a sturdy, compact motor, and the elimination of all unnecessary parts. The light and convenient special tools make it easy to aerate and clean portiers, curtains, wall coverings, upholstered furniture, clothing, bedding, etc. A complete set costs only $7.50.

We will gladly demonstrate it on your rug. See us today or call us on the phone. Let us show you a Frantz Premier in action—You will have more time to spend on the porch and out in the open.

WOULD HAVE U. S. OWN BEEF PLANTS

Governor Stuart.

Governor Stuart, of Virginia, who raises cattle when not engaged with executive duties, told a house subcommittee that stock raisers had lost money in the last year largely because of the lack of competition among beef packers. He suggested that the establishment of government owned slaughter houses and markets where the producer and consumer would meet, would go a long way toward solving the troubles of both.

FACTS ABOUT THE TALCUM CONTROVERSY

To the Public: In answer to an article in last night's Review relative to the sale of Lazell's Talcum Powder by the different druggists yesterday, I have the following to say:

Under the war revenue law, effective December, 1914, a manufacturer of talcums and toilet articles coming under schedule B of that act must place a revenue stamp of one-eighth cent value for each five cents retail value of such article of their manufacture. The Massatta Talcum as well as their Violet and Sweet Peas odor in accordance with this law carry a three-eighths revenue stamp, thereby stating that the retail value of these articles is 15c. At the time we placed this article in our window we were unaware that the same had always been sold in this city for 25 cents or ten cents above the regular retail price placed thereon by the manufacturers of the same. However, had we known this fact it would not have altered our course in the matter as the profit allowed by the manufacturers of these goods when sold at 15 cents is ample and a little better than most talcums sold at this price. But the fact that we did this and further told the people that it was only a 1c cent powder is what started the combine at the game of war.

Any place the writer has ever been before coming to Roseburg, the retail price has been 15 cents. In the cities, the so-called cut rate stores sell this talcum at 11 cents. If any of the druggists have been selling this powder for over 15 cents they have been extracting from the public 19 cents too much for the same and unless they have added an additional two-eighths revenue stamp to each can it is my opinion that they have been laying themselves liable to the penalty of the above mentioned war revenue measure.

With regard to a 25 cents talcum, will say that these manufacturers under the name of the Samural Perfume Co., place on the market a 25 cent talcum. One of these is a Jap Corylopsis in a 14 ounce can, another is their Wisteria in a ten ounce can. Either of these powders contain four or five times the amount of the above powders in question.

In passing, let me say that in the fall of 1914, Mr. Fullerton came into our store and wanted to know what we meant by giving a certain special sale, which we at that time advertised in the local papers and informed us that if we persisted in making prices in like manner, that he had $4,000.00 in the bank and would use the same to put us out of business. He further informed us that it would be useless for us to attempt to get any of the prescription business of the town as he and Mr. Chapman had that business cornered. At that time we informed him that if our tenure in business remained only at his option, the quicker he got us out of business the better it would be for us. Since that time it has looked to us that there might be a drug combine in Roseburg. Nevertheless we have tried to build up our business here on a basis of fair prices and fair treatment to all. So far we have managed to stay in the game and yesterday was the first time that the combination has come out openly and defied us and we wish to say that it was a pleasure for us to give the people a real bargain for once and we are only sorry that our ammunition ran out as soon as it did.

PROMISES JAPAN'S AID THE WAR'S END

M. Matsue.

M. Matsue was the Japanese representative at the recent allied conference in Paris. He promised that his government would not make peace with Germany until the European war's end, and stated that Japanese munition factories would continue to work lay and night turning out guns and munitions of war for the Russians. This picture of Matsue was taken in Paris during the conference.

In conclusion we wish to thank the people of Roseburg for their past support and to assure you that so long as we are in business in this city, we will never try to make you pay 25 cents for any 15 cent article. On these grounds we beg your support.

Yours truly,
LEE KARR,
Manager, Owl Drug Store.
