TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness. Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell because it does so naturally, so evenly! You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

The swimming season was opened yesterday when Guy Cordon and Frank Andrews ventured into the waters of the South Umpqua at the Alexander swimming hole. They report that the water was not as cold as they had expected and they expect to try it again this week. "LET KATY DO IT" JUST A STORY OF FAMILY DRUDGE Variety and contrast play a large part in the new Fine Arts-Triangle play, "Let Katy Do It," coming to the Antlers theatre tomorrow and Wednesday. The first part of the heroine's life is spent on a farm up in Maine, where she puts in her time as a family drudge. Her parents die, her sister marries and she goes to live with her sister. Katy slaves for her sister and as each baby ar-ives, its care is handed over to the patient Cinderella. Then her brother-in-law and sister are killed by a train and Katy finds herself the foster mother of seven charming children of all sizes and of very lively disposition. Katy responds to her uncle's offer of a home. She takes her brood down to Mexico, where he has a rich mine that he and a former lover of Katy are developing. This is quite a change for Katy from the peaceful, monotonous life on the Maine farm. Her lover, however, wins her by saving her from a band of bad Mexicans. They have taken refuge in a deserted cabin, and there is a sharp exchange of shots. The white man holds the band off till a company of cowboys dash upon horseback and rescue the pair. Another thriller shows the children saving themselves, the little home at the mine, and the silver ingots that are stored under the floor. They fire guns by pulling a lever and finally discharge mines surrounding the house. It is almost like Katy for the seven tots, for they have the pleasure of doing something that they had been longing to do ever since their uncle had shown them the ingenious devices by which the mine guns in the house could be fired at once and by which the dynamite buried outside might be detonated.

STREET CLEANING NOTICE. To the citizens of Roseburg: Monday and Tuesday, May 1st and 2nd being annual clean up days for the city, I would ask you to closely follow these rules, as we have a very large territory to cover in a limited time, and it will save unnecessary work for citizens and street cleaning department. Wagons will cover all territory south of Douglas street on Monday, May 1st. Anything put out later than noon of that day will not be hauled away unless at the owner's expense. Territory north of Douglas street will be covered on Tuesday, May 2nd, and anything put out later than noon on that day will not be taken away. Will also ask that you put all trash and rubbish in sacks, barrels or boxes, so it can be easily handled by the men with the wagons, as we cannot take anything requiring to be handled loose or with shovels. By order of the street committee. A. M. OELAND, Street Supt. ml

BURCHFIELD WINS GUN CLUB MEDAL A new contestant appeared yesterday in the gun club shoot for the medal when H. E. Burchfield won the trophy with a score of 24. Although Mr. Burchfield has ranked among the high scorers ever since the contest began this is the first time that he has gained possession of the medal since it was first put up by John Eager. Eager, Bradley and Adams have each won it for two consecutive shoots, but none have yet won the three consecutive shoots as required by the rules. The scores yesterday were as follows: Burchfield 24, Cordon 23, Adams 22, Powell 22, Waincott 21, Hogan 21, Fisher 20, Pearce 20, Stevenson 19, Bradley 18, Eager 17, Milner 17, Black 16, Bennett 16.

Columbia Records have familiarized millions with the masterpieces of music A comparatively few years ago the soul-stirring arias and concerted numbers that have immortalized the names of the great composers were hidden mysteries with only an occasional opportunity, at rare intervals, to hear and become familiar with them. Today millions of people are familiar with them through the wonderful achievements of the Grafanola. The Columbia Records of these musical treasures have revealed their sublime beauty to music-lovers in every part of the world. They are presented in all their grandeur by the world's greatest artists whose exquisite renditions are the standard by which the artists' actual performances are judged.
