SOCIETY AND POLITICS.

The first social meeting of the Woodrow Wilson League promises to be quite an enjoyable affair, and quite a departure in the matter of politics. A very excellent program has been arranged for the evening, and this is to be followed by refreshments, a social hour, music, etc.

The program will consist of several brief addresses by prominent citizens, interspersed by recitations and music by the best musical talent in the city. The Roseburg Juvenile band will also be in attendance and take part in the program.

The meeting is open to the public, regardless of party affiliation; the one object of the league is the re-election of Woodrow Wilson. All who favor the re-election of the president are invited to become members of the league, and everybody is invited to the meeting at the Armory tomorrow night, Tuesday, May 16. Attendance is not limited to members of the league, but everyone, whether favorable to Wilson or not will be welcomed to enjoy the excellent program that has been prepared and to participate in the pleasant social hour that is to follow.

The meeting will be held at the new Armory and the program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The following program will be rendered:

- Music by Roseburg Juvenile Band.
- Hon. O. P. Conhow, address.
- Vocal duet, Misses Wright.
- Lee Wimberly, address.
- Solo, Miss Jessie Pickens.
- Hon. Dexter Rice, address.
- Recitation, Miss Margaret A. Page.
- R. G. Hall, address.
- Duett, Misses Allie Black and Lucy Bridges.
- Rev. C. H. Cleaves, address.
- Punch. Social hour.
- Everybody welcome, regardless of party.

CHANGE IN VOTING PRECINCT.

The voting place for Caro precinct has been changed from the Belieu rooming house to the Christian church, corner of Pine and Woodward streets. Voters in this precinct will take notice of this change. m15

CHANGE OF DATE

WE SELL MORE ICE FOR THE SAME MONEY

In these Days of Dollars and Cents it is constantly a question of where can I buy my supplies the cheapest, because if I can not buy as cheap as my neighbor he gets ahead of me; that holds good for the manufacturer also.

The Day of Slab-Wood Firing is Gone
Handling slab wood into the boilers day and night is an expensive way. It costs a large amount of labor and money. It takes two hours to fire up a 75-horse boiler, it takes 20 seconds to start a 75-horsepower motor. My good reader can you see why our Ice Plant is ahead of old style ones.

SUMMER DRILLS OF ATLANTIC FLEET START TODAY

War Drill to be One Feature of the Maneuvers.

PARTICIPATE IN LOCAL CELEBRATION

Torpedo Boats Will Try Their Skill, and Mine Layers Will Show The Important Part They Play.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Atlantic fleet of Uncle Sam's navy started out today to cut circles around itself to show the American people what it really can do in the way of scrapping. The exhibition, in one form or another, will continue until November 1.

The official program provides for fleet and divisional exercises off the North Atlantic coast in the vicinity of Newport, together with a war game in conjunction with the army from July 24 to 29.

Target practice will be held on the southern drilling grounds from September 1 to 30, after which the fleet will be scattered to the home ports for docking and minor repairs.

Beginning today the battleships of the fleet will operate singly for steaming trials and similar individual operations.

After divisional exercises lasting for five days the divisions will return to these bases, except that the flagship and First division will go to Hampton Roads instead of Tompkinsville.

Beginning on June 3 divisional exercises will again be held, the battleships again returning to these bases on June 10, on which date the flagship and the First division will return to Tompkinsville.

After five days spent in divisional exercises, from June 12 to June 17, the entire fleet will reassemble at Newport from June 19 to July 1.

The week from July 1 to 8 will be spent in the usual Fourth of July calls at Atlantic coast ports for local celebrations.

On July 8 the battleships will again mobilize at Narragansett bay and on July 10 will spend a five-day period in fleet exercises.

Returning to Narragansett bay on July 15, the next four weeks will be spent at anchor for machinery overhaul, ship drills and inspections, with the exception of five days from July 24 to 29, when the divisions will operate in a war game in an assigned area. Torpedo exercises will also be held, and the mining division and destroyers will engage in joint exercises.

One division of destroyers will cooperate with the army in joint operations in testing the defenses of eastern New York.

Tactical exercises of the fleet will begin again on August 7 and will continue until August 13, when the battleships will return to Narragansett bay for machinery overhauling, ship drills, coaling and provisions and conferences at the Naval War College preparatory to strategical manoeuvres from August 29 to September 1, when the entire fleet will proceed to the southern drilling grounds for target practice until September 30, when the fleet will disperse to the home ports.

The mining division of the fleet will assemble in North river on May 15 and will cruise and engage in exercises on May 22 off New Haven, on June 1 off Provincetown and on June 5 off Plymouth, Mass.

After a brief call at Boston this mining division will continue its exercises off Salem, Cape Ann, Gloucester and Rockport until July 1. The Vestal and Solace will base on Newport and will move according to the needs of the fleet.

The vessel of the active destroyer flotilla upon the completion of repairs will make a reconnaissance of the New England coast, after which they will assemble at Gardiner's Bay and prepare to participate in the fleet operations in Narragansett bay.

The active flotilla will hold target practice in Narragansett bay from September 1 to November 1. The reserve destroyer flotilla will continue on neutrality, aviation and naval militia duty.

From July 1 to August 30 summer submarine exercises will be held from the base at New London, during which torpedo practice, quarterly engineering runs and oscillator tests will be held.

The cruiser squadron of the Atlantic fleet will continue police and patrol duty, and will join in the fleet operations and hold target practice as opportunity presents.

No schedule of docking and overhauling is prescribed by the navy department because of the uncertainty of their periods of service.
