WEIGH IT WELL.

It is understood that Mr. Kendall is coming to Roseburg with all speed to take up the final matters relating to the construction of the proposed railroad and the erection of the lumber mills which are to be a part of the activities on which the citizens of this section are counting for the development and expansion of our natural resources.

responsibility to substantiate them. Therefore, the city council can not be too careful in scrutinizing every phase of any contract which it may be called upon to sign, turning over the control and management of the railroad it is proposed to build.

HUGHES AND FAIRBANKS

As all the world knows by this time, the republican convention has made its choice of leaders for the great national campaign this summer and fall. The call for Justice Hughes was too insistent from every part of the nation, for the delegates to ignore it, and the nomination was made in a whirlwind finish on the third ballot.

As running mate, the convention nominated Fairbanks, one of the wheel horses of the republican party and a man whose qualifications are strong enough to have given him first place. Immediately upon the nomination of Hughes, the progressives proceeded to nominate Roosevelt by acclamation, but just as the paper is going to press a telegram from him states he refuses to accept the nomination "at this time".

The sigh of relief and gratification that went up as the crowds around The News' bulletin read the last dispatch, stating that Roosevelt refused the nomination of the progressives, could have been heard by an aviator a mile up.

The Oregon primary vice-presidential candidate received two votes on the ballot which was taken. Wonder who was the other?

Compared to the two big shows in Chicago, the one to be held in St. Louis next week can hardly be called a side show.

ANOTHER ARREST IN LIQUOR CASE

Charles Holland, deputy sheriff of Myrtle Creek, returned this morning from Gardiner, where he apprehended and arrested Jack Ellerby, who was indicted jointly with J. W. Imhoff on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the law.

In making the indictment the grand jury set $200 as the amount of bail to be furnished, but it is not thought that Ellerby will be able to furnish the amount and will be forced to remain in jail until Judge Hamilton, who is now in Marshfield, returns.

Sheriff Quine and Deputy Holland have been working on the case for some time and the latter spent several weeks in the coast country obtaining evidence before an arrest was made.

It is claimed that Ellerby was in partnership with Imhoff, who has pleaded guilty to the charge against him and that the two had received several shipments of the liquor which was sold in direct violation of the prohibition amendment.

A. Phillips, 109 Ross street. 683-316

There was a noticeable exhilaration and rejoicing among the crowds around The News' bulletin board, when the announcement was posted that the colonel had refused the progressive nomination for president. Faces that were a yard long before at the thought of three tickets again, suddenly shortened and began to smile, for everyone recognized the wonderful hold Roosevelt has on a great part of the voters and knew what his candidacy meant.
