YEAR WILL BREAK ALL RECORDS OF ALASKAN TOURISTS; PEOPLE FROM UNITED STATES WITH MONEY AND LEISURE WILL GO THERE

The "tourist season" is about to open in Alaska and it endures until October. Those interested in shipping and transportation predict this year will see the greatest influx of tourists that the country has ever known, for many Americans with money and leisure whom the war bars from Europe will explore Uncle Sam's most northern territory

The tourists from the states habitually speak of Alaska as a "northortunity speak of Alaska as a "north-ern country." Alaskans say it is a "western country." The Aleutian Islands, constituting the extreme western part of Alaska, extend so far toward Japan that a traveley from New York to Attu Island, of the Aleutians would not be as for the Alcutians, would not be half w to his destination on reaching Francisco. Indeed, Chicago to 1. miles nearer the Asiatic mana treme western point of Aim

Buy in quantities for cash. We See the People's Supply Co. 713-tf

Port of Umpqua commissioners, shows the result as follows: Repub- this morning, Democratic votes, Jewett 12, Wetherly 12, Wells 18, Browne 22.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hampton and give wholesale rates on big orders. T. O. Russell and wife, of Eugene, motored down vesterday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lill, of the The official convass of the vote for McClellan hotel, Mrs. Lill, accompanled them on the return to Eugene Portland where Mr. Enger has been

J. McLower left this morning for 118, Wells 108, Grubbe 5, Brown Grants Pass to spend a few days attending to business matters.

> Miss Fannle Haney, of Cottage Grove, came to Rosebury this morning for a visit with friends here.

Chief Dispatcher John Enger and wife returned this morning from spending his vacation

Mrs. Ray Tulley has returned to her home at Wallows, Ore., atter a brief visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Applegate.

Mirs Ruth Helliwell, of Portland, was here a few hours Thursday for a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Helliwell. Ruth will soon leave for Los Angeles, Cal.

Miss Thelma Crouch, of Springfield, is visiting here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Apple

A. W. Lamb and J. H. Brawn, returned Friday from Eugene, where they attended the G. A. R. conven-

Mrs. J. W. Wise has returned to her home at this place after spending a few days at Portland and other valley points.

Geo. Bunyan, one of Drain's merchants, attended graduation exercises here Thursday evening.

S. N. Woodward was at Eugene one day this week visiting his baby daughter, Lucy, who is convalescing from an operation, Mr. Woodward reports the little patient doing nice ly and that she will be able to return home within a short time.

Among the passengers of the III fated steamer Bear, were Mrs. Sarah Westingheiser, her son John and Miss Minerva Westingheiser, of this Word has been received by Mrs. Edgar Richards via wireless that all were landed safely. Richards is a daughter of Mrs. West-Ingheiser.

Miss Ogla Soderstrom, of Divide stopped off here Thursday enroute to Glendale, to attend graduation exer-Miss Soderstorm formerly graduated here and has many waru friends here who were glad to meet She will visit at the her once more. home of Dr. and Mrs. Knott, at Glendate before retruning to her home.

Mrs. Laura Applegate and daughter, Miss Emma Applegate, have re- ing class being in attendance, turned to their home here after a the schools at The Dalles where she will return again this fall.

W. A. Porter has returned from Class History an extended visit and business trip to Puyallup, Wash.

Ed. Haugeberg was at Eugene the first of the week, where he and Mrs. Haugeberg were called on account of Piano Solo the quite serious illness of Mrs. G. F. Prior, Mrs. Haugeberg's mother. H. C. Stearns and family have moved from the B. Helliwell property on street into the Melvin Howard

J. W. Jones, S. P. section foreman here for many years, has moved to Toledo, Oregon, where he will con tinue in the S. P. service, Mr. A. I Falgla, of Sutherlin will take Mr. place here. Mr. Jones has many friends here who regret his de

James and Chas. Pumphrey have returned to this place after a 00-mile auto trip through Coos and urry counties.

Joseph Francis an old and very highly reputed resident of Hayhurst assed away at his home Thursday norning. The remains were interred n a private cemetery on the Coffearm north of Yonealla.

Mrs. J. W. James, of Riddle, has loved to this place to reside, laughter, Miss Vera James, having peen re-employed in our schools fur

Jas, Clark and John Hardin have eturned from a fishing trip on the Dick Hanan, local fire warden, has taken up his regular duties, patroling the outbing timbered districts.

Prof. Wight, after a very success here of three departed to take up a summer course at the Oregon University. He has been selected as principal of the Clatskanie schools for the ensuing term. Mrs. Wight is at present visiting in the southern part of the county. Later also will return to this place for a briot visit, after which she will go to Tigard, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. blight are highly respected by all who know them and earry the very best wishes of the town and con mirrity with them to their new field of labor. Under Prof. Wight's painstaking and this management chools have been areatly benefitted Communication of the eighth synds genducting class were held here has Wednesday examing Those graduating were Frunk Daugherty, Anna Jensen, Edna Clard, Surner Brawn, Elste Chestnut and Lindtey Lutz. A great probation of choice flowers was showered upon the different numbers or the clars. P. L. Reard delivered the address of the evening and presented the diplomas to the class, school were held in the Presbyterian the fight for re-election.

10-acre rauch right close in, good land, part set to fruit, good house and line shade trees, well watered. Price if taken at once, $1,000, Terms $400 down, balance on terms.

Does This Interest You?

Located near County Fair Grounds, where Kendall Mills are to be built. About one mile from Roseburg pavement. Place is in shape of a square with streets on three sides. Would make desirable piece of property to sub-divide into city lots as the mill operatives will want places of residence near the mills. Land is practically level. All under cultivation. Nine acres in fruit; acres in pours just beginning to bear; two acres in prones, applea, plams and cherries, all in bearing. Balance of place in hay and Good set of buildings, 5-room house with closets, all finished, foot shed attached. Also other out-buildings. Excellent well of water. Good fences. Outside city limits; taxes are very light.

Price $7,000. Terms $3,000 down, balance on 6 years time 5 per cent. Apply to owner on premises Ira Hull, R. F. D., Rose

Free transportation to any one wishing to see the place.

G. W. YOUNG & SON

Beautiful Bust and Shoulders put the hust back where it belongs, prevent the full best from longs, prevent the full best for the shoulder giving a long from the full best from the full best for the shoulder giving a longstant from the full best from the full best from the full best from

BENJAMIN & JOHNES, 51 Warren Street, Newark, N. J.

church Friday evening, a very large crowd of interested relatives, friends and acquaintances of the graduat-

Prof. G. Robert McAusland, of the considerable absence. Miss Emma Oregon University delivered the having been employed in some of graduating address, after which followed the program prepared by the members of the class, viz:

> Theresa McCourt Class Will ... Addie Wilson Mrs. J. E. Clark Vocal Solo. Class Prophesy Sara Huntington Class Grumbler Roth Straw Valetletory their support and co-operation. In with the great number of

All members of the Fourth All memoers of the Fourist Company, C. A. C., are hereby ordered to be at the Armory, Thursday, June 22, at eight o'clock, and report for special orders,

 By order
 commander. By order of the company J. H. WOLFORD.

............. Miriam Bradley C. E. Wise rendered a very beautiful Carl Louis instrumental solo which is deserving W. Verl Williams delivered the ad- of special mention. The many choice dress of welcome. Prof. Wight, after and beautiful floral selections which a few well-chosen remarks delivered graced the members of the graduatthe diplomes to the class after which ing class were probably finest ever residence on A street. Mr. Howard he thanked the school hoard, teach-witnessed here each and every mem-has moved onto his farm south of ers and members of the district for ber being completely snowed under addition to the above program, Mrs. bouquets tendered them by admirers,

MORGENTHAU WILL TAKE BIG PART IN CAMPAIGN FOR WILSON'S RE-ELECTION

Henry Morgenthau (new photograph),

Henry Morganthau's real reason for not returning to Constantinople American ambassador has recently become apparent. President Wilson feels that he has need of the New Y ore financier during the campaign. Graduating exercises for the high Morgenthan will be one of the president's chief advisers and supports in

Special Presidential Campaign Offer

The months of July, August, September and October which are before us promise to be the most stirring the United States has experienced in over a generation. Two of the strongest men of the nation will be candidates for the highest office within the gift of the American people.

Questions of national and international interest will be of every day occurance. Every man, woman and child will want to keep in touch with these candidates and questions. This can be accomplished by reading

Evening

In order to add a large number of new subscribers to our list a special offer is made which will continue until the 15th day of July.

we will mail to any address in Douglas County the Daily Evening News during the months of July, August, September, October, November and December. [Call subscriptions will be taken at the same price.] This special offer will positively close on July 15th.

To our old subscribers, whose subscriptions expire during the summer months we offer the Daily News at $2.00 per year if paid in advance and providing that all back subscriptions are paid to date at the regular $3 rate. Renewals to be made during the months of June and July.

Keep in touch with events by reading The News