FOURTH COMPANY LEAVES FOR FT. STEVENS SATURDAY NIGHT

The members of the fourth company, C. A. C., under the command of Capt. J. A. Buchanan, leave Saturday night for their regular annual camping trip at Ft. Stevens. Russell Dunham and John Kernan, are the present first and second lieutenants of the company.

The boys will be absent from the city for two weeks and during that time will receive instructions in the handling and firing of the ten- and twelve-inch guns which command the entrance to the mouth of the Columbia river.

Companies from Eugene, Salem, Oregon City, Ashland and Portland will be in camp at the same time. The members of the fourth company have made an enviable record during the past years for the way in which they handle the big rifles and have held the record for loading and firing as well as for hits made during practice which is conducted under actual war conditions.

JAPANESE THINK KAISER IS BEATEN

Underestimated Strength of French Nation.

LOOK FOR ANOTHER YEAR OF WAR

Proud Boasts of German Ruler Made at Beginning of The War Have Not Been Fulfilled.

By Wilbur S. Forrest.

LONDON, June 25.—(By mail.)—On seeing this war letter from a Japanese officer in a London paper today a British wag suggested that Germany's defeat is certain if it ever gets tangled up in it. The letter, undetected, and in fact—touched:

Kaiser have said on earliest beginning of great war, "I capture Paris in three weeks, then I wipe the feet of my glorious army on Chalais, I will steam roller on the contemptible John French army and then I shall make invasion of the English. In three weeks Crown Prince Willie and myself shall eat sauerkraut and pigs-sausage in the Paris best hotel". Most enjoyable prospectus. But Kaiser has done nothing of these things, the pigs-sausage is not eaten, Chalais is still in allies hands and the contemptible John French army grows by expansions every day. Kaiser has jumped on the conclusion. He tells to himself that France is weak, and England is most perfidious.

Kaiser has not looked to find if there is a hole in his ship. If Kaiser had looked enough he would have found very big hole indeed and that hole is called "Ally Hole" and "British Navy". French nation is not weak as Kaiser thought. English refuse to become perfidy for his benefits. Russians are not beaten. Now two whole years are nearly fled away, and German Kaiser has a gray head, but he is not conqueror of allies. Kaiser has victory in Poland and in Belgium for the present, but where is German colony? General Smuts and General Botha have stole away his African possession.

Germany have begun great war for very special reasons. Chief reason was to have more colony and to have big piece of China and Germans have not made the achievement of any colony at all. How long more will Kaiser sacrifice his soldier. Allies can find time to wait until Hun has no more insides for the fighting, but Hun must make his object or be beaten. What for is Kaiser to do? If he make attack he will be beaten most exceedingly bad. On the other foot if Kaiser is to sit down and become defensive then what gains Kaiser?

In Japan we know Kaiser is beaten. Sensible Japanese man say, "Great war last one whole year more, perhaps one and one half a year, but no longer can last. If Huns is not beaten by that time then Kaiser will make surrender himself." That is ration thinking.

One thing of England is most disgusting. The objector of conscience to fight. England is much to good country for them. Even Huns have a scorn on English to produce such man. Objector of conscience is most certainly traitor to England Kink and country. How much disgraceful these men are to honorable English.

GUARANTORS MEET WITH SURPLUS

For the first time in its history the Roseburg Chautauqua has met with a surplus instead of a deficit. The surplus is not large and will not exceed $15, but still it is a surplus, and this is what delights the guarantor. The thirty or forty enterprising people who signed their names to the contract guaranteeing the chautauqua system a certain amount were considerably disappointed on the opening day when they were still lacking a hundred or more tickets of making the amount needed to pay the expenses. But at the last moment the rally came and when they counted up the next morning they found that sufficient funds were on hand with which to meet the terms and with a small amount for next year.

Not only are they delighted with the response of the patrons of the chautauqua, but with the many who are attending, they are greatly pleased over the excellent programs which are being heard in the city daily. From the opening scene presented by the Comus Players, through the instructive morning talk, the wonderful message of Judge R. M. Wanamaker in the afternoon to the grand concert of the International Operatic Company last night, the chautauqua has been a great source of entertainment and education.

This afternoon Charles Zueblin spoke on community building. Mr. Zueblin speaks with the rapidity of Bubar Bros. Announcement!

To the people of Roseburg and Douglas County. The change in the firm name of Young & Bubar, Jewelers & Optometrists does not signify any material change in the business. D. B. Bubar, junior member of the old firm, remains with the business as before and P. T. Bubar, his brother who has for several years conducted a successful jewelry business in Maine, has sold out his interests there to locate in Roseburg and has purchased my interests in the firm of Young & Bubar. I personally know both of these young men and cheerfully recommend them to your confidence. They are both expert jewelers and optometrists and thoroughly honest. Their policy will be to carry only goods of proven merit and their constant aim will be to give the utmost in service to their patrons.

Special attention will be given to the repairing of watches and jewelry. Their optical parlor is one of the best equipped in the state. With the latest scientific instruments they are able to give your eyes their exact requirements in lenses. They merit your patronage and I cordially invite you to visit their store.

Respectfully yours,

G. W. YOUNG

STEWART-CONNELL

Mr. Logan Stewart and Miss Dorothy M. Connell were quietly married today at high noon at the home of J. H. Booth, Rev. Wm. Riley Jeffrey, of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. The ceremony was performed on the same day as the anniversary of the marriage of the bride's father and mother, who accompanied her from Portland this morning. Mr. Stewart is an employee of the Southern Pacific Company, being connected with the freight department and was only recently transferred from Portland to this city. His bride is also a resident of Portland and came to Roseburg this morning with her parents, who are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Booth.

Following the ceremony a delightful luncheon was served. After a short journey the happy couple will return to Roseburg where they will make their home. Miss Veva Butch and Miss Cora Ueland, both former schoolmates of the bride were the only guests at the ceremony.

The children are enjoying the rehearsal of the King Arthur pantomime and the games on the playground under Miss Alexander's direction. The robes of state were worn this morning by Lois Wright and Maurine Buchanan in the roles of Arthur and Guinevere, and much interest is shown by all participants. After the hour of rehearsal in which the children acted out the story as read by Miss Alexander, all the juniors repaired to the court yard and formed circles for games. Miss Frances Strange, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. A. C. Strange, superintendent of the chautauqua, assisted Miss Alexander by taking charge of the smaller children and playing with them. Little Miss Strange is most responsible person, and is accompanying her parents on their summer tour on the chautauqua circuit. Mr. Strange is city superintendent of the Baker, Ore., schools, and is known by a number of Douglas county residents, where he has spent some time.

mean representation on the campaign committee.

While only one member of the campaign committee could come from Portland, under the republican resolution, there was no such limitation in the progressive camp, so all five of the progressive members of the campaign committee are residents of Portland. One of the reasons for this is that all five progressives will be ready to attend meetings whenever called, whereas distance and expense will prevent many of the republican members from being present during the progress of the campaign.

This coalition campaign committee will hold its first meeting in Portland Saturday, July 22, when it will map out plans for the Hughes and Fairbanks campaign.
