RISE IN THE PRICE OF WHITE PAPER TO BE SUBJECT OF INQUIRY

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Investigation of the rise in the price of paper, by a committee of the house, is proposed in a resolution introduced by Representative Kreider, of Pennsylvania, who suspects that monopoly has something to do with it. The resolution follows:

Whereas, the prices of paper, white news paper and general jobbing paper supplies have been advanced by the manufacturers thereof from time to time until the prices are now so high as to seriously interfere and hamper legitimate publishing and printing interests and the public generally, and believing that the present high prices are due to other causes than that of supply and demand or actual cost of manufacture or production, or conditions brought about by the European war, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the committee on

NO BATTLE SHIPS FOR DEBT COLLECTIONS

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Senator La Follette addressed the senate demanding that the naval bill be amended providing that none of the new battle ships could be used for the collection of debts owed to American bondholders or concessionaries. He declared that he emphatically approved of Wilson's Mexican policy, and predicted the election of Wilson if the "new born policy guaranteeing American investments by the American flag" becomes an issue.

MAN INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

An accident, the seriousness of which has not yet been learned occurred at Rice Hill at a late hour this afternoon. It is understood that an old man was badly injured and may possibly die as the result of his injuries, but his name was not ascertained. The accident occurred about four miles north of Oakland when a Maxwell automobile driven by Mr. Munley, of Oakland, collided with a tourist car from California. Mr. Munley's companion who it is understood was a resident of Oakland was very badly injured when the machine was thrown from the road by the force of the impact and fell to the ravine 15 or 20 feet below.

Mr. Munley escaped with only a very few injuries, although the machine is badly wrecked. The tourist car which was from San Francisco, going towards Portland, was not badly injured and went on its way after rendering all assistance possible to the injured man.

The more seriously injured of the two men was brought to Oakland where his wounds were given attention, but it is not known as yet how badly he is hurt, as it is thought that he has sustained internal injuries.

AUTOS COLLIDE AT OAK CREEK

While traveling at a moderate rate of speed near the Oak Creek post office this afternoon, the autos belonging to Late Engles, of Peel, and Arthur Blakeley, of Glide, met in a head-on collision. Neither of the drivers were injured, and the damage to the cars is nominal. Mr. Blakeley, who was driving a Rambler auto, was coming into town, when he met Mr. Engles, who, driving a Ford, was coming around the blind turn, just before coming to the small bridge near the old postoffice. The two cars came together with a terrific impact but fortunately sustained little injury. The front wheels on Mr. Engles' car were bent and broken and the axle sprung. The Rambler was unharmed with the exception of broken side lights.

BAND PICNIC GREAT SUCCESS

The concert and dance held last night by the Roseburg Concert Band at the Fair Grounds pavilion was one of the greatest successes of the year. The floor was packed by the dancers and at times there was seventy-five or more couples dancing at once. The music for the occasion was furnished by a nine-piece orchestra. Before going to the fair grounds the band held a short concert on the streets after which they took autos to the scene of the festivities. A large part of the crowd preceded them earlier in the evening and had taken lunch at the beautiful grounds and were awaiting to begin dancing. For half an hour while others were gathering the band entertained with selections which were greeted with rounds of applause from the appreciative audience.

By nine o'clock at least two hundred people were present, although many of them did not take part in the dancing. The orchestra played the first number and within a very short time the large dancing floor of the pavilion was packed. The good times lasted until late in the night, when the crowds dispersed and went to their respective homes.

So successful was the dance of last evening that the band is already planning for several other such entertainments to be given within a short time.

James J. Corbett by Walt Mason

Once there were giants in the land, men who could scrap to beat the band. In modern times the cheapest skates are known as champeen heavyweights, but long ago, when Jim was young, men didn't fight with jaw or lung, but used their fists, and used them well—brave days of Jackson and John L. They slugged away, while they could stand, when there were giants in the land. And Corbett won his laurels then, among those mighty fighting men. He was the champion when that meant something more than getting fat, and standing, in a graceful pose, to figure in the movie shows. He's an authority on sport, and his decrees the wise ones court. He's an authority on smokes, and as his trusty pipe he stokes, he often says, "Tuxedo's best; it has the edge on all the rest."
