A SET-BACK FOR WILSON

The recent primaries in Texas furnish anything but cheerful reading for administration supporters. Five members of congress who were seeking renomination and trying to ride to victory on the president's coattails were defeated, and the most pronounced critic of the administration in Texas—ex-Governor Colquitt—had a long lead on his rivals for the nomination for the United States senate.

In December, 1914, while he was still governor and before the Mexican trouble had reached anything like its recent acute stage, Mr. Colquitt expressed his opinion of the Wilson administration, and in writing.

"The Wilson administration," he wrote, "has been the greatest failure in the history of the presidency. Its foreign policy has been imbecile. Its repeal of the Panama tolls exemption in violation of the party's national platform was another weak surrender to England. The Wilson-Bryan management of the Mexican affair has been an egregious failure. They landed an American army in Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag, and have brought it back without getting the salute. What did it accomplish? It set all Mexico aflame against the Americans, not only in Mexico but in Texas. It brought on a reign of terror all along the Texas border. Wilson and Bryan have stood by encouraging one gang of bandits after another, while people were being butchered all over Mexico."

Nor did the governor confine his comments to the Mexican problem. "The administration's anti-trust laws," he wrote, "are bare faced fakes so far as protecting the people from trust oppression is concerned. I am fully convinced the national election of 1916 will end the democratic regime."

Such language as this made Colquitt persona non grata to the administration, to put it mildly; and in the primary all that the president could do and all that his numerous cabinet officers and other prime favorites from Texas could do was done to beat the tinorous ex-governor. The administration's first favorite was Congressman Bob Henry; but when it became evident that he was lagging in the race, the White House changed its mind with usual facility and transferred its affections and its support to Senator Culberson. Nevertheless, Colquitt leads Culberson by more than 20,000 and Henry is a bad third.

The result is not without its effect on Capitol Hill. Up there many a congressman who was planning to go back home and ask for another term on the ground that he had "stood by the president" is now wondering if he would be better off if he could find another slogan.

SHOULD INDICT THE OFFICERS

The officers of Stekiyou county in California should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, if such a thing is in existence in that county, for openly and flagrantly violating their oaths of office. Otherwise the many auto parties from Oregon would not be able to make the run into the California town and load up with poor whiskey and beer on a Sunday morning and return to their homes and cause trouble, not only for themselves but to the persons who employ them. The state of Oregon is put to a terrible expense during the year, prosecuting the cases which have their origin in Harrahbrook. If there is a law on the statute books of the state of California which prohibits the sale of liquor on Sunday, the authorities of the most northerly county in that state are "guilty as hell" and should be called to account by the state officials.

PLANS READY FOR COUNCIL

Engineer L. G. Hicks has prepared the plans for the improvements to the city hall. The improvements will consist of building rooms for the use of the firemen so that they can remain in the building at night and will also have suitable club rooms. Three small sleeping rooms are provided for with partitions beginning at a point eight inches from the floor and continuing to a height of eight feet with curtain doorways. Each room is also provided with a locker. A bathroom, hot water connections and other accessories are also provided.

Nathan Fullerton yesterday received a postcard picture of Dr. Geo. E. Hoeck, now located as captain with the hospital detachment at Camp Balboa on the Mexican border. The kodak picture shows the captain seated on his black horse, near the camp. It is an excellent likeness and it is plainly to be seen that the doctor is appearing in much better health than when he left the city.

THE FLAVOR OF "SPEAR HEAD" IS UNIQUE

A Chew That Has Been Famous for a Third of a Century

HAS THE RICH RED BURLEY TASTE

Chewing is the only way to get the rich taste of the tobacco leaf. And the only form of tobacco in which you get the leaf as Nature made it is the plug form.

A chew of Spear Head plug tobacco has a wonderful flavor such as you never did and never will taste in any other tobacco.

That Spear Head flavor is unique, mellow, fruity, everlastingly delicious and satisfying.

Spear Head has been famous for a third of a century as the richest, tastiest of chews.

It's made of sun-ripened, red burley. And it's produced by the best modern methods, which develop the luscious flavor of the leaf to the supreme degree.

It is safeguarded at every step in its making. The factory is clean and sanitary—the processes are pure-food processes.

When the choice red burley has been pressed into mellow, moist Spear Head plugs you have a chew that simply can't be equalled.

Spear Head is the high quality chew of the world.

Try Spear Head—you'll never again be satisfied with any other chew. In 10¢ cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Strange, of 420 Mill street on Saturday, August 19, 1916, a son.

RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

J. A. Worley and wife returned today from a 4-months trip to the boyhood home of Mr. Worley in Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Worley made the entire trip in their Hudson 6 and report a delightful time, no accidents of any kind occurring to mar the pleasure. The return trip began five weeks ago today and was made by way of the northern route. A short stop was made in Yellowstone park. A camping outfit was carried and with but few exceptions the nights were spent in the open. Mr. Worley reports crops in good condition in the states through which he passed and business conditions in Ohio, especially in the manufacturing center as booming.
