

ANOTHER MACK PLAYER IN LUCK

Jimmy Walsh.

Though Connie Mack still wallows in the Slough of Despond the luck of the players he made famous continues. The latest instance is the case of Outfielder Jimmy Walsh, who has been transferred to the Boston Red Sox in payment for Catcher Pat Haley and thus gets in line for a chance at more world's series gold and glory.

CITY NEWS.

Mrs. N. Plyler left this afternoon for Portland where she will attend medical school during the winter.

Mr. Cole and Mr. Trent were former acquaintances in Nebraska and took great delight in recalling incidents connected with their early life.

Hon. A. C. Marsters will leave for Salem on Monday to be present all week at the state fair, of which he is a member of the board. Mr. Marsters states that there are to be some exceptional fine racing stables present this year, and lovers of good honest racing will see some of the best races ever put on the circuit. With a continuance of the present fine weather, it is expected that a record attendance will visit the fair, and he hopes that many Douglas county citizens will be there.

Mrs. L. G. Williams, of Portland, who has been visiting in California for a few weeks stopped in this city today for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. George Ritter.

Fire that broke out in the prune dryer on the Newber branch of H. S. Gile & Co. Tuesday was stopped by the quick application of water from a handy barrel. The fruit in two of the tunnels was scorched, but little damage done to the dryer.—Salem Statesman.

Increased activity in prunes is reported by the Drager Fruit Company and preparations for a big pack are being made at the Drager plant, to begin as soon as boxes can be secured. Packing of a thousand boxes of loganberries for a carload shipment to New York was in progress yesterday.—Salem Statesman.

COOS COUNTY CRABS SAFE.

SALEM, Sept. 21.—In an opinion for State Game Warden Shoemaker, Attorney General Brown held that crabs cannot be exported from Coos county during July, August and September except when canned, and that crabs cannot be taken or had in possession for canning in the county during the three months named.

ARREST WOMAN AS LAZY HUSBAND

Case is Dismissed After Husband Agrees to Take Her Back.

TACOMA, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Lydia Munce was arrested today as a "lazy husband". Mr. Munce and a constable brought the woman home from Seattle where she went three days ago after deserting three small children. The case against Mrs. Munce was dismissed after her husband agreed to receive her back.
