

In Club and Society Circles

BY MISS VEVA BUICK

This has been a week full of interest for social circles about the city. The teachers' institute occupied a large portion of the weeks' happenings and was the means of hearing several lectures of more than usual interest and the festivities of the institute along social lines aroused much enthusiasm.

Picnics are still being enjoyed this late in the fall and every one seems more pleasant than the one preceding.

Invitations are out for another dancing party at Dixonville. On Halloween a group will assemble in this appropriate place for a jollification.

Indian Legend of Klunkinik.

The hospitality and kindness of the people of Seaside will long be remembered by the delegates to the Women's Federation of Clubs held at that place. Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. Bell were both assigned to the home of Mrs. Godfrey and it was soon discovered that Mrs. Bell's home on Jackson street was the old home of Mrs. Godfrey, who lived in this city for many years and is well known to many people here.

One of the sweetest memories of the convention is the little Indian Legend written by one of the club members and will surely be enjoyed by those who were not there. Attached to the little card was a dainty cluster of the Klunkinik berries that abound in the vicinity of Seaside. Thus runs the legend:

By Necanium's green waters,
Once there lived an Indian maid,
In a tepee made of deer skin,
'Neath the pine trees' cooling shade.

She was named Necannekowie—
"Goddess of the Laughin' Eyes"—
And her voice was like the zephyr,
When among the trees it sighs.

'Round her door grew fragrant blossoms,
Daisies, ferns and violets sweet—
And a legend said, "The flowers
Sprang where'er she placed her feet."

All the birds were her companions;
In her moss grown garden there,
She could sing the songs of nature,
Coax the wild things from their lair.

She was lithe as any panther,
As she roamed the forest thru,
All the tribes paid her their homage
And they proved her strong and true.

One bright morn'g dawn was casting
Golden glories in the east,
"Laughin' Eyes" rose very early,
To attend the "Magic Feast".

To the water's edge she hastened,
Sprang into her bark canoe,
Paddled up the gentle river
'Till the meadows came to view.

Where the braves in all their war-paint
Were arranging for a game

That would prove their strength and prowess

Give them laurel wreaths of fame,
As the maid moved swiftly towards them,

One tall red-skin drew his bow—
He ne'er saw the winsome creature—

And before the crowd could know
He had drawn his tawny muscles

Let the arrow cut the air,
And it struck the Indian maiden

On her sun-kissed forehead fair,
As they help her through the forest

And the tribe wailed in despair—
It was found that where her blood

dropped
Grew a shining berry, there.

As the day sank in its splendor
"Laughin' Eyes" soul passed away,

But the berries fill the woodland

Even to this very day.

Mental Culture Club.

The unusual weekly meeting of the Mental Culture Club was particularly interesting this week because of the reports from the convention of the Women's Federation of Clubs held at Seaside. The reports of Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Woodruff were so delightfully given that one received a very thorough idea of this convention. The afternoon was especially devoted to these reports which took the place of the usual time set aside for Current Events. Mrs. Bailey read a paper pertaining to Home Economics, "The Domestic Side of the Civil Service". This enlightened the members upon the good of the Civil Service laws that are now extending to domestic side of our lives.

Next week all the members are urged to be present and hear Mr. Jope's address on "Preparedness".

Reception to Visiting Teachers.

Perhaps the largest attended affair of the week was the novel entertainment the local teachers gave in honor of the visiting teachers. Wimberly Park was the well chosen spot for a "weinie" roast. A large fire was built and the teachers gathered around it and roasted their "weinies" on a long stick. Stunts were featured and stories told and speeches made, making the evening a happy success. The dramatic ability of several of the "hopes" of our high school was made evident when they presented the thrilling poem "Lochnivar" in drama. Great applause greeted the efforts of the young people and no doubt Roseburg will have cause to be proud of these "stars" when they have secured international fame and glory.

The Rose school also added to the pleasure of the evening when they sang a clever song composed by Prof. Hall.

U. of O. Luncheon.

One of the most pleasant social gatherings of the institute week occurred on Wednesday noon when the University of Oregon Alumnae served a luncheon at the Hotel Umpqua. The twenty-seven assembled enjoyed a happy reunion and showed their college spirit with songs, toasts, speeches and also discussed several business matters. M. B. Germond was chosen president for the ensuing year and Miss Helen Jane Hamilton was elected secretary. The important donation of $100 for the Women's Memorial building cannot be overlooked.

President Powers, of Oakland, presided as toastmaster, and among those present were Mesdames Junia Young, Lela Cushman, Hazel Ralston, Josephine Moorehead, Mildred Waite, Ethel Tooze, Loretta Archambeau, Louise Pummell and Mary Critser, Messrs. F. B. Hamlin, O. P. Coahow, R. E. Morris, J. B. Reese, Douglas Waite, H. M. Cross, A. E. Street, Robert Earle, Fred Strang, A. Jauregay, Geo. Shantlin, Oscar Gorrell, Geo. Murphy, E. W. Taylor, Earl Strong, and Walter Fisher.

Luncheon for Teachers.

One of the largest and merriest gatherings of institute week, was the luncheon served at the Grand Grill for the pleasure of all those who had attended the state normal school at Monmouth. This occurred on Wednesday noon and together the old students heartily joined in the songs of their alma mater. Those present for the luncheon and the speeches were Miss Hazel Jewett, Miss Nola Kent, Miss Adabel McCord, Mr. R. G. Hall, a specially invited guest, Prof. E. S. Evendon, Mr. E. P. Carleton, especially invited, Miss Harriett Moramar, Miss Neta Waller, Miss Florence Allen, Miss Florence Buell, Mr. Arthur Harriman, Miss Phoebe Denny, Miss Madeline Bettis, Mrs. O. C. Brown, guest, Mr. H. C. Seymour, guest, Miss Waltha Watson, Miss Esther Mickelson, Mr. L. P. Harrington, guest, Supt. O. C. Brown, guest, Miss Erma Redfield, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watson, Miss Hannah Reden and Miss Ella Dillard.

Benefit for Playshed.

A basket social will be given in the store room of the Hotel Sutherland on Friday evening, October 27, at 8 p. m. The proceeds are to go into the Sutherland school playshed fund and the affair will be in charge of the Parent Teachers Association. The event will be in the nature of a Halloween frolic and everyone is urged to come prepared for a good time. Coffee will be served by the Association and the ladies who bring baskets are asked to furnish two caps and spoons. The services of an auctioneer have been obtained. A delightful program has been arranged which will consist of the following numbers: Piano duet, Margaret Olesman and Florence Duke; Story, "Ginger Bread Boy," Ambrose Kildoe; Pumpkin Song, First Grade Girls; Recitation, Dolly Horner; Song, "Chin's Quarrel" First Intermediate Grade; Recitation, "Goblins," Barbara Tudor; Violin Solo, Hector Smith; Song, "My Oregon," Sixth Grade; Minstrel, High School Boys. —Sutherland Sun.

Honoring Mrs. Josse.

In honor of Mrs. Louis Josse, who is leaving on Saturday for her home at Salem, Mrs. Sam Josephson chose Monday evening for a delightful little affair. The young ladies and matrons spent the evening happily together and at the close were seated about a beautifully appointed table which bore clever and unique decorations appropriate for the occasion. Covers were laid for Mrs. Louis Josse, Miss Velle Barker, Miss Margaret McChallen, Mrs. Chas. Wharton, Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mrs. K. L. Miller, Mrs. Selemman, Mrs. Geo. Bolter, Miss Pearl Stuart, Mrs. Clark Bargar, Mrs. J. F. Barker and the hostess.

A Day in the Fall Woods.

Heeding the irresistible call of the beautiful autumn woods a party of Roseburg people, Wednesday afternoon, motored to the marble quarry, on South Deer creek where the attractions of picnic life were enjoyed. Dinner was cooked over a huge bonfire and a feast prepared, fit for the gods, which was spread upon a long table under the immense maple trees on the banks of Deer creek. During the early evening a large bonfire was laid and for hours the love of Mother Nature and the great outdoors held the attention and admiration of the happy gathering. Composing the party of joy seekers were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Selemman, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hinkley, Dr. and Mrs. K. L. Miller, Mrs. N. Curry; Misses Elizabeth Curry, Isabel Curry, Lulu Curry, Elizabeth Parrott, Vera Horner, Mabel Van Buren, Ruth Caro, Madge Miller, Alice Beercroft, Mabelle Miller and Messrs. Eugene Parrott, Charles Curry and A. Salzman.

Slumber Party.

It was the happy thought of Miss Helen Jane Hamilton to invite a number of her friends who have been attending the institute to her home after the U. of O. dance, for a slumber party. Until the wee small hours the girls chatted together and exchanged reminiscences of the college days. In the morning breakfast was served after which the party attended the institute. The guests invited were Miss Hildegarde Shoemaker, Miss Josephine Moorehead, Miss Hazel Ralston, Miss Ethel Tooze, Miss Lela Cushman and Miss Mildred Waite.

Sewing Club Group Meet.

The Monday evening club met this week at the home of the Misses Helen and Helena Guest and the members enjoyed a happy evening to

New Pastor Honored.

Amid the most beautiful combination of autumnal foliage intermingled with greenery and bark baskets full of bright fall blossoms, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and his family were welcomed by over two hundred of the congregation and towns people. Mr. McCulloch presided and gave the speech of welcome to Rev. and Mrs. Spencer. One particularly pleasant feature was that all of the local churches were represented and each church extended their greetings to the new pastor. The strains of an orchestra added charm to the reception, while the delightful numbers arranged by Mrs. Heffline were greatly appreciated and consisted of a solo by Mrs. Orcutt, one by Miss Ethel Watson and a duet by Mrs. Orcutt and Walter Fisher. Rev. Spencer graciously responded to the addresses of welcome and as the evening's entertainment drew to a happy close refreshments were served.

Evening at Cards.

In farewell compliment to Mrs. Louis Josse, who left this morning for her home, Mrs. and Mrs. Selemman entertained with cards on Eastern Star Banquet.

On Thursday evening the members of the Eastern Star held a very enthusiastic and interesting meeting and featured a very elaborately decorated and delicious banquet. The goblins and witches and black cats abounded and were set off by a background of fall foliage and beautiful chrysanthemums that are so wonderfully large and beautiful in this city. The banquet table was centered with the chrysanthemum blossoms and with the prevailing orange and black motif made an effective showing under the many lights. During the evening Miss Lucy Bridges sang in her sweet and charming manner several selections and Mr. O. P. Coshow gave an interesting address.

Cup and Saucer Shower.

A happy surprise was occasioned last Monday afternoon when a group of Mrs. George Chandler's friends came to greet her upon her birthday. A most delightfully arranged gift shower was featured, each of the ladies brought a dainty cup and saucer and a portion of the refreshments, which were delicious. Musical numbers, and sewing filled the pleasant afternoon and Mrs. Ferguson, Sr., read a poem that she had prepared for the occasion and which was greatly appreciated, while Cora and Thomas Moore rendered a pleasing violin and piano selection. Among the ladies were Mesdames S. Ferguson, J. Ferguson, M. Moore, W. Bagley, J. Sloan, J. Kronis, M. Martens, Geo. Melver, R. Bailey, M. McGrovey and L. J. Barnes.

Busy Bees Elect New Officers.

A rather special meeting of the Busy Bees was held on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. L. L. Harding. The house was beautifully decorated in Halloween motifs, jack o'lanterns were placed here and there with a background of brilliant hued leaves. Mrs. H. P. Ogden, who has been president of this organization, resigned and Mrs. J. Patrick was elected as president and Mrs. Beckley as vice-president. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting and the members numbered Mesdames Libbie Rose, Roy Bailey, Perry, J. Patrick, George Thompson, Jessie Rapp, H. F. Ogden and the Misses Pearl Patrick and Gladys Rapp.

Entre Nous Give Picnic.

It was the happy thought of the ladies of the Entre Nous club to take advantage of the delightful days of sunshine on Sunday last. The club members motored to the forks of the Umpqua. Bountifully filled hampers were stored with the most delicious pumpkin pies and other appetizing viands and the repast was greatly enjoyed. As special guests for the day Miss Anna Bryan, Miss Mabel Bryan and Miss Grace Lloyd were asked to enjoy the wonderful day in the out-of-doors.

Daughters of St. George.

The Daughters of St. George met at the home of Miss Phyllis Tisdale on Friday evening. The evening was spent with needlework and with music Miss Ruth Willis and Miss Florence Devaney both delighted the members with several songs. Besides the hostess those present were Miss Katherine and Miss Margreta Merrill, Mrs. Howard Waddle, Mrs. Heagher, Miss Rita Cobb, Mrs. Douglas, Miss Ruth Willis, Miss Florence Devaney, Mrs. Barr G. Lee and Miss Mary Tisdale. During the course of the evening refreshments were served.

Progressive Sewing Club.

The Progressive Sewing club spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. J. Barnes at her home in River-view. A very busy and pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies in the making of many pretty and dainty articles for the bazaar to be given on November 25. Potted plants and roses formed the decorations for both living and dining room. Covers were laid for 20 and the hostess served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

High School Assembly.

On Friday afternoon of this week Mr. Jope, of the Christian church, addressed the assembly. In his interesting talk he emphasized on earnestness and the avoiding of imitation. The speech was to the point and was well received as Mr. Jope is very popular among the young folk of the high school.

Mrs. and Mrs. T. B. Vridon, formerly Miss Flossie Shambrook, are expected to arrive in this city Sunday morning to spend a few days visiting at the home of Mrs. Vridon's parents. After a short visit here they will leave for Chicago and

WIFE OF KAISER'S FIFTH SON IS RED CROSS NURSE ON FIRING LINE

Princess Oscar.

While other members of royalty have been content to confine their activities to the alleviation of the sufferings of those war victims who either have not been to the firing line, or have been there and have been incapacitated and returned, Princess Oscar, wife of the fifth son of the kaiser, has chosen for her endeavors the field that requires the greatest courage and most arduous service—the firing line. As a Red Cross nurse the princess has on more than one occasion been under fire. She is at present in Berlin recuperating after six months of work at the front and it is expected that after a brief rest she will return again to the field.

together with sewing and other diversions. A straw vote was taken at this meeting and the results proved that seven were for Hughes and three were for Wilson. The guests to enjoy the happy occasion and the dainty refreshments were Mrs. Delbert Carr, Mrs. H. Snyder, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Roy Durbin, Miss Leta Rhoades and Mrs. Dean Bubar.

The men gathered for their weekly evening together at the home of Mr. Day Durbin.

Entertains at 500.

On Thursday night of last week Mrs. George C. Knott entertained a few friends at her home. The evening was spent in playing "500" after which the guests were treated to a dainty lunch. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames A. A. Snyder, Wm. Spiker, B. L. Darby, H. L. Wilson, S. H. Rothermel, G. L. Drummond and T. E. Lawson; J. C. Bayless and J. H. Moore.—Glendale News.

R. A. E. C. Hold Regular Session.

The ladies of the R. A. E. C. assembled on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Daniels, at 111 McClallen street. During the hours of the afternoon the ladies energetically plied their needles and chatted together happily. Mrs. Daniels at the close of the meeting served her guests with delightful refreshments.

Mrs. Geo. Ritter will leave the first of the week for Glendale and from there will go as far south as Grants Pass instructing the ladies in the art of basketry in each of the towns.

Thursday evening. An effectively arranged motif of autumn foliage and beautiful pink roses added to the charm of the home. With such a delightful host and hostess the evening passed all too quickly. Covers were laid for Miss Margaret McChallen, Miss Velle Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Josse, Miss Elizabeth Parrott, Dr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. Sam Josephson, Mrs. Chas. Wharton, Mr. Parrott, Mrs. Geo. Bolter, Mr. Earlcourt Stewart and Mrs. Clark Bargar.

Presbyterian Aid Society.

On Thursday afternoon the ladies of the Presbyterian Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wright and after the usual business of the meeting the afternoon passed with sewing and happy conversation on topics of particular interest to the ladies. Several new members were welcomed into the society. They were: Mrs. Chas. E. Roberts, Mrs. J. F. Hutchason, Mrs. Bert Sprague, Mrs. Belle Aiken, Mrs. Chas. Inley, Mrs. Robt. Wallace, Mrs. B. Hollwell, Mrs. Belle Shindler. The hostesses for the day were Mrs. W. T. Wright, Mrs. John Enger, Mrs. Hagan, Mrs. S. C. Bartram, Mrs. Harten and Miss Josephine Parrott. The society will hold their annual bazaar on the 2nd of December. The next social afternoon will be on the 2nd of November at the home of Mrs. V. R. Buckingham, on the corner of Chadwick and Oak streets.

Miss Frances Howell has gone to Corvallis to spend the week-end with Miss Florence Kohlhaugen, and will then go to Portland for a short visit.

THIS WINTER'S SKATING GIRL WILL WEAR PRETTY NEW OUTDOOR THINGS

A new winter outfit for the girl who skates.

All sorts of attractive things have been designed for the girl who loves the outdoors in winter. In the picture is shown a new skating set of sun color velour, edged with black velvet and a black tassel. The cap is finished with a band of black velvet and a little black velvet ball perches on the top.
