SNOW STORM BREAKS TELEPHONE LINES

With snow ranging fro\ two inches to three feet at all points between Ashland and Eugene, the telephone company is having a difficult time to keep its lines open. At about nine o'clock this morning the toll lines between Oakland and Cottage Grove went down under the weight of clinging snow and for several hours no communication was available between Roseburg and points north of Oakland.

It was only a few minutes after the lines had gone down that the perfect system established by Wire Chief H. M. Pierson had located the trouble and men were on the scene making repairs. Mr. Pearson rushed every available man to the scene and in spite of the tremendous odds communication was resumed again this afternoon about four o'clock.

In addition to this trouble on the main line, a number of the rural lines leading into Roseburg, were put out of commission and a crew of men arrived in the city about noon to make the needed repairs on these.

Douglas county has many miles of telephone wires and their care is a task the enormity of which is not realized by the laymen. In spite of this fact, however, Mr. Pierson has developed an organization which has in past storms given excellent service in keeping the lines in repair, giving the patrons one of the finest and best operated systems in the northwest.

OREGON ELKS ARE GOING TO EUGENE

Elks from all over Oregon are expected to be in Eugene Thursday evening to attend the elk-meat banquet of the Eugene lodge of the Order of Elks, says the Eugene Guard. Plans for the banquet are in charge of Elmer Roberts and the details have been nearly all worked out. Robert Baker is to be the chef for the occasion, and he is preparing an elaborate menu, on which the roast elk meat will be the principal part. The roast is to be prepared in Harry Korn's bakery ovens, and will be cooked for the greater part of a day.

Bill Hayward is preparing a program of sports, which will include a number of boxing matches between local Elks and at least two boxers from outside. Vaudeville entertainment is being prepared by other members of the order and an orchestra will be on duty all evening.

T. O. Russell, who was in Roseburg the first of the week, states a number of the Roseburg Elks probably 25 or 30 in number, will be here for the feed, and all of the traveling men, members of the order, who make this territory, are hoping to be in Eugene for Thursday evening.

The hide of the elk which was killed for this feast, is being prepared for mounting by Charles Ring, and it will furnish part of the decorations of the lodge hall.

RECALLS SNOW STORM OF MANY YEARS AGO

James A. Murphy, sales agent for the Cereo Manufacturing Company, of Portland, Ore., was in this city today introducing an advertising campaign for the new cereal product his concern is manufacturing. He is one of the oldest traveling salesmen in this state and has covered every section of Oregon several times. While in this city today he recalled his first trip here which was in 1889. He stated that at that time such a snow storm was in progress as is today and that trains between here and Dunsmuir were held up for two weeks. The company was required to carry food over the snow to the stalled passengers.

His last trip to this city was in 1907 and he today marveled at the wonderful changes that have taken placed here. He recalled the muddy streets of that date and the small buildings and says that this city has made greater improvement than any other city he has visited.

The cereal he represents is an Oregon product and is enjoying an extensive sale. The advertising campaign which he is now on will extend to California and all the Pacific coast states.

Mrs. T. O. Brower, of Myrtle Creek, returned home today after visiting with Mrs. O. O. Hunsaker in this city.

Ford!

The Unusual Car!

Never before has the demand for Ford cars been so heavy as it is now.

To become such a necessity the Ford must have proved to be a universal economy in service and saving to everyone, or the demand would not be so great.

Part Service

Our $2,000 stock of parts assures you any piece you may need, from a new motor down to tiny balls or screws.

We could build a complete Ford car out of our part room stock.

Repair Shop

Our repair shop is equipped with the latest machinery, which saves our customers both time and money.

Ford Mechanics

Our two mechanics, Mr. McCoy and Mr. Harrison are both Ford specialists and we believe the best mechanics money can procure.

Mr. McCoy, who just joined us from Portland, has been employed in the largest Ford agency in that city for about 4 years.

Mr. Harrison, who has been with us since last July, is a very capable mechanic and lathe man, and both are courteous gentlemen.

Vulcanizing

We recently added new vulcanizing machinery and Mr. Walters, who is an expert, is prepared to do any kind of tube and casing vulcanizing, as well as retreading.

All work guaranteed.
