ALL AMATEUR WIRELESS OUTFITS BE CLOSED

All amateur wireless outfits in this vicinity must be closed immediately, the apparatus disconnected and sealed and the antennae lowered, on orders of the government. The order, which is addressed to Governor Withycombe and signed by Captain A. E. Coontz, of the Puget Sound navy yard, is the first step toward preventing any information of value to the enemy from leaking out. Action is wholly of a precautionary nature. The order reads:

"The president of the United States has, in accordance with the authority vested in him by the second section of the act of August 13, 1912, an act to regulate radio communication, directed the closing or taking over of certain radio-communication stations, including those in the states of Washington and Oregon.

"The details of this procedure will be carried out by a party of inspection, whose duty it will be to see that the antennae of stations are lowered, the receiving and sending apparatus disconnected and sealed and that duplicate inventories of all parts, including those spare and unused, are prepared for signature after checking. This party of inspection will be under the direction of at least one commissioned officer of the navy. The stations will be warned by mail previous to the inspection of this party.

"In order that this work may show the cognizance and approval of the state and municipal authorities, their co-operation is respectfully invited, especially as regards the extension of recognition and support to the inspectors should the warning by mail of the district radio inspectors have failed in its effect.

"Also co-operation is invited in assistance in maintaining these stations in a closed condition after they have once been closed. They shall not later be opened, except by order of the commandant of the 13th naval district."

NEW GIRL'S HONOR GUARD ORGANIZED

Very enthusiastic meetings were held at Wilbur and Oakland Saturday when Girls' Honor Guards were organized at those places. Miss Vera Butch, leader of the Roseburg guard, assisted in the work of perfecting the organizations.

The Wilbur meeting was held in the morning at Wilbur academy, a large number being present and taking part in the discussions. As no leader had been appointed by the state manager, a vote was taken with the following results: Miss Aislie Walker, leader; Miss Emma Russell, assistant; Miss May Kaegi, secretary, and Miss Edith Jones, treasurer. Special emphasis was placed upon the agricultural work of the honor guard and the young ladies at Wilbur decided to make a specialty of this phase of the work. Since the raising of beans in that vicinity has always proven successful, the girls decided that they will experiment with that crop instead of with potatoes. Classes will also probably be arranged in telegraphy and first aid, the captains to be appointed later.

In the afternoon Miss Butch went to Oakland where a big rally was held. Miss Katherine Vernon some time ago received her appointment as leader and had been successful in securing a large number of pledges. The meeting was called to order by Mayor J. T. Bridges, who presided throughout and who introduced the speakers. The officers chosen were Biedie Easley, assistant leader; Kathryn Darling, secretary; and Jessie Powers, treasurer. The gardening project was discussed and the girls of Oakland will immediately attend to the procuring of land and seed for their work. At some time during the week Dr. Walcott will give the first lecture at Sutherland on the subject of first aid.

COUNCIL WILL TAKE HAND IN GARDENING

The city today procured a large number of printed signs bearing the words "garden lot free." These cards will be placed on stakes and put in the vacant lots which the owners are willing to have cultivated. Councilmen Walter Hamilton and Al Cresson, both of whom own a great deal of property, have expressed their intention of allowing responsible persons to use their vacant lots for gardening purposes and have taken several of the signs for their own use. It is the aim of the council to have all the vacant lots of the city put under cultivation in order to improve the appearance of the city as well as complying with the desire of the government that as much land as possible be used for gardening purposes. There are many lots in the city which in the summer time are put to no use except for the growing of weeds and there are many persons who are willing to cultivate them for the crops which can be raised. This is of benefit to the land and increases its value as well as making it much more attractive in appearance. The cards are now in the hands of Mayor Rice.
