QUEENS CONTEST CREATES INTEREST

The candidates for the carnival queen's contest are playing politics, for it is said today that they are holding back votes in large quantities. This must be a fact as one third of the hats and all the buttons are in circulation and but few votes are deposited in the ballot boxes.

Little May Doesendorf's friends made a very strong showing for the first week of real voting with a total of 2266 votes as against 950 for Ruth McKain, of the Benson school, but the votes withheld will wipe out seeming majority.

The candidates for the older queens have been more scrupulous, but it is positively known that hundreds of votes have been purchased but none yet voted. The carnival com-

UMBRELLA FRAMES GONE

It was found today that a transient who represented himself to be a repairer of umbrellas visited this city about two weeks ago and made a tour of the residence district where he collected a number of good umbrella frames which he said he would cover and repair at a small cost. Since that time no word has been heard from him and it is thought that he has left this section with a goodly supply of the frames. The matter has not been reported to the officers.

A committee today announced that the situation has become further complicated by the nomination of Miss Eliza Payton, daughter of a popular railroad engineer, so that the result will not be known until the close of the contest on Tuesday evening, May 8. The next count will be taken on Friday afternoon, May 4.

GRANGE MEETING HELD AT DRAIN

The Douglas County Pomona Grange held its regular monthly session at Drain last Saturday, meeting in joint session with the Drain Grange. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Busenbark and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goff, of the Melrose Grange; Mrs. Bailey, of the South Deer Creek Grange; Mr. and Mrs. Thiel, Prof. Emory Doane and Mrs. Carr and daughter, and Miss Robinson, of the Yoncalla Grange. The Pomona degree was conferred upon three candidates.

The members of the Drain Grange are shipping eggs collectively and have decided to grow beans of the Lady Washington variety, with the expectation of shipping their product together, after cleaning and grading them, thereby adding materially to the price that will be received for them.

The combined Granges went on record favoring the employment by the county of a county agricultural agent along the lines suggested by President Kerr, of the agricultural college, to aid the farmers not only in raising more uniform crops, but to help the farmers to find the best markets for their crops.

A resolution was also unanimously adopted endorsing the stand of State Grange Master Spence has taken on the $6,000,000 bond issue, as it has the endorsement of the State Grange in opposing the bond issue.

The Granges of Yoncalla and Drain intend this coming season to go into the business of marketing capons together realizing that the two Granges will have a larger amount to market and also realizing the necessity of having a large output so as to standardize the product.

A resolution approving the appointment of an Oregon Agricultural college instructor versed in agriculture to teach in the Drain schools was also adopted. The following program was rendered in the afternoon: Song by the Grange, "America"; vocal duet, E. Goff and R. Busenbark, of Melrose; recitation, R. Busenbark, of Melrose; solo, Prof. Doane, of Yoncalla.

PLANS READY FOR HOSPITAL BUILDING

Under a picture of the proposed Soldiers' Home hospital the Portland Journal has the following to say in regard to the plans for the building: Plans for the hospital at the state Soldiers' Home, Roseburg, have just been completed by Lewis Irvine Thompson, Portland architect, and work on the improvement will be started immediately.

This building is the first unit of the new group proposed for the soldiers' home plant. A plan for the entire construction has been completed by the architect, and from time to time, as new buildings are required, this will be followed.

The hospital will be a one story building of pleasing colonial style with central portico. This will be of two stories. The building will be 60 by 120 feet in dimensions and will cost $22,500. It is to be ready for occupancy in three months.

The central portion will be of two stories. This will house the nurses dormitories and dining rooms. The hospital proper will consist of six large wards, 10 private rooms, reception, physicians', drug, linen and store rooms, a diet kitchen and other accessories. There will be no operating rooms. The building will be finished in marble floors. The walls will be brick with cast stone ornamentation. Large porches will be constructed on the rear for convalescents, and those who will be approached by inclines so patients may go back and forth in wheeled chairs.

DEMONSTRATION AUTO PASSES THROUGH CITY

After a journey of 6500 miles traveled in mid-winter, E. M. O'Brien and H. K. Klein, Jr., arrived in this city in an Overland delivery truck, demonstrating the Champion special. The trip was started from Toledo, January 15, and San Francisco was reached February 12. The car was loaded on its start with 1500 pounds of window display material and at Sacramento took on enough more to bring the total weight of outfit carried to 2200 pounds.

The present run is from San Francisco to Portland by way of the Pacific highway and the drivers state that the roads are the worst they have experienced in their entire journey. They have made the entire distance with one or two exceptions under their own power, although they were blocked near Myrtle Creek and at one or two other points on the coast road. They left this morning for the north after receiving many warnings of the Pass Creek canyon.

JAMES MILLIKIN DIES THIS MORNING

James Millikin, who was one of the best known men of Roseburg, passed away this morning at his home after a very short illness. Mr. Millikin has been falling in health for several months and only recently sold out his shoe store on Jackson street in order to regain his strength. The relaxation, however, was the immediate cause of his death, as he was unable to survive the change in habits to which he had become so accustomed in the past 27 years, during which time he has been in business at the same place, and following practically the same routine.

Mr. Millikin was born at Belfast, Ireland, January 17, 1839 and spent the early part of his life in Ireland and Scotland, being married in the latter country and three of his children being born there. In 1873, he came to the United States, landing in New York and remaining there for a short time before journeying to the middle west, settling in Illinois. He remained there until 1890 when he came to Roseburg and opened a shoe shop. His first wife having died in 1885, he was united in marriage in 1892 to Hulda Scott, who survives him. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, but was affiliated with no other organization, although he had been a member of the Masonic lodge in the old country.

He is survived by his wife and eleven children, six of whom resulted from his first marriage. Those living are Mrs. John Craig, Mrs. L. M. Bland, of Garden City, Kans.; John Millikin, St. Louis; James Millikin, Chicago; Robert Millikin, Pickneville; Thomas Millikin, Roseburg; Lucy, Ellen, Jessie, George, and Margaret Millikin, also of this city.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, Rev. E. W. Warrington, officiating. Interment will take place at the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

CURRY COUNTY DON'T LIKE ROAD BONDING

SALEM, April 30.—Governor Withycombe has telegraphed the sheriff and clerk of Curry county asking if they intend to comply with the state law and call an election on June 4, or obey the county court's instructions and fall to call the special election. The attorney general will institute mandamus proceedings if the election is not to be called.
