

CAUTION IN WAR CENSUS RULES URGED

The public is warned by the officials of the military board in charge of the war census to observe the rules laid down and the information given in the statements published by them over their signatures. This warning is given in view of the fact that a number of alleged bulletins and statements have been published which it has been purported have been received at the local office when in fact no such information was ever received or such bulletin issued.

These "items" although they may be somewhat interesting, tend to hinder, rather than assist the work of registration as the people are given supposed rules to be observed which are not necessary and which will probably never be put in force. All communication in regard to the war census is being given to the public by the officials by co-operation with reliable newspapers and the names of the officers of the board are being signed to the articles in order that the information may be known by all to be authentic. Articles not signed in this manner are not issued from the board and should be taken with the most extreme caution as the matter is one of vital importance and one in which every rule must be rigidly served under heavy penalty.

MR. LENOX CORRECTS FALSE STATEMENT

In contradiction to an article published in a local journal a few days ago, County Clerk E. H. Lenox stated today that the second election boards, appointed at the former election will serve in the coming vote for the road bonds. Those who served at the general election will be ex-

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Tone, action, design and matchless finish will win you immediately.

Seven separate and distinct coats of varnish make these pianos lastingly beautiful.

The sound-board is one of the big features of the Cable-Nelson. It is made of Olympic Spruce which is almost identical with the Spruce of the Tyrolean Alps used in Italian violin making.

Hence the rich, pure, singing tone for which Cable-Nelson is famous. The price is right, too. The only pianos that can be bought at a saving without a corresponding sacrifice of service. Come in and try a pected to preside at the coming vote the first board serving until eight o'clock in the evening after which the second board will take up the count finishing the work or remaining on duty until they are relieved as prescribed by law. It was stated by an over-zealous newspaperer that the second board would not serve and the clerk's office as well as the sheriff's office has been caused a great deal of trouble in answering questions and notifying those of the boards in regard to the mistake.

Another change which will affect the election is that the judges and clerks will not be called upon to deliver the ballot boxes at the court house as formerly, the recent legislature having passed a law that the boxes are to be delivered to a deputy appointed by the sheriff at a designated spot, in this manner saving a great deal of expense in mileage. For example all ballot boxes from Perdue, Days Creek, Canyonville, Tiller and other precincts in the vicinity will probably be delivered to a deputy at Riddle, who will bring them to Roseburg.

RESOLUTIONS ARE RECEIVED HERE

Salem Business Men Make Request That Like Move Be Made in This City.

ADDRESS TO CONGRESS

In Regard to Food Speculations and Hits a Popular Chord—Asks Congress to Use Influence in Stopping Menacing Situation.

A copy of resolutions recently drafted by a number of Salem's prominent business men was received in this city this morning with the request that similar ones be drawn up here and signed, then forwarded to our representatives in congress. The request is that churches, schools, fraternal societies, civic bodies and groups of citizens take up this matter and act upon it immediately. George M. Brown, attorney general, a former resident of this city was one of those in Salem who was instrumental in drafting the resolutions, a copy of which follows:

Whereas, the prices of the staple necessities of life have advanced to figures exceeding cost of production to an extent far beyond the limits of conscience and any possible conception of human right or reason and are still advancing.

Whereas, this condition is proof of the utter lack of humane consideration on the part of those responsible and indicates a frantic desire and effort to levy merciless war assessments in advance upon the public whereby the beneficiaries may later meet their own obligations without sacrifice if not at actual profit.

Whereas, such business is unpatriotic to the equivalent of treason or insurrection. It proves its perpetrators to be limited only by the heartless principle of taking "all the traffic will bear" or all an unprotected people can be forced to pay.

Whereas, congress has undisputed authority over every resource of the nation in the present crisis, which authority is being exercised in the taking of the bodies of our best young men for military service and the action is met with ready support in a spirit of glorious sacrifice by the people. But the flagrant abuses by the food speculators, pursued from palpable motives of greedy disregard of the great emergency that is upon us, goes unchecked and unchallenged except by ineffective and dilatory discussion.

Therefore be it resolved, that the undersigned do hereby most earnestly urge upon our national congress the great need of immediate and effective action to relieve this most menacing situation which is rapidly contributing to the aid of the enemies of the nation and already amounts to one of the gravest obstacles to the success of our country in the great crisis that now confronts it.

THE AMERICAN ROAD—1917 DEFINITION

A strip of unowned land over which anybody is free to walk, ride or drive—if he can.—Collier's Weekly. Oregon roads are no exception.

In their campaign of misrepresentation of facts, opponents of the $5,000,000 road bond bill are making the baseless charge that it will cost the various counties not less than $10,000 a mile to prepare roads for hard-surfacing by the state; that for this reason few counties under the 6 per cent limitation can afford this expense and consequently will not be in a position to obtain paving under the provisions of the road bond bill. This actual experience of different counties in the state disproves this contention of the road bond opponents.

Morrow County is completing the grading and draining of a stretch of 18 miles of road from Lone to Heppner. The cost for the work for the greater part of that mileage was $150 a mile. The very most expensive sections of the road did not cost to exceed $5000 a mile. Under the ruling of the Highway Commission it will only be necessary for counties to grade and drain the road. The state will lay the crushed rock base and the paving.

To be sure, the money from the (road) bond sale will for some time to come be spent mainly on trunk roads which will not seem directly to benefit the farmer. But they will benefit him directly. If the trunk lines do not pass his front door they are seldom many miles away and every rod of good, hard surface they give him to travel on means a saving of time, money and horseflesh. It means also better schools, accessible churches and a general uplift of conditions, to say nothing of growing land values. But the time will soon come when the trunk roads will be finished and then it will be farmers' day. Laterals will infallibly be built to connect rural communities with the central arteries so that the farmer can speed all the way from his gate to the city on a hard surface. This is worth working for. It is worth some waiting and sacrifice.—Portland Journal.

Without entering into the merits of the road bond law, there can be no question of the urgent necessity for the adoption of some plan or system that will give to the state of Oregon the roads necessary to the development of her agricultural prosperity. Oregon has regions that are as rich as the richest, yet they are lying idle for the reason that the cost of the transportation of the product of the farm is prohibitively great. People should give this much thought before refusing to vote on the first big change they have had to begin a comprehensive system of state-wide road construction.—Seaside Signal.

No property owner should complain about the road bond measure. It is simply a proposition by which the state proposes to build a system of permanent highways from revenue already provided and without any increase in the direct tax levy.
