CARNIVAL WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

Eugene Visitors Arrive and Are Greeted at Depot by Large Crowd.

DRUM CORPS FEATURE

Roseburg Greatly Pleased With Appearance of Boys Musical Organization Which Adds Greatly to Success of Carnival.

"Sol" and "Jupe" evidently entered into a conspiracy against the city today and a copious downpour lasted practically throughout the entire time. The greatest feature of the day was the Eugene Boys Drum and Bugle corps which was by far the finest thing ever introduced for a strawberry carnival.

The boys, dressed in the nifty gray uniforms, paraded the streets regardless of the wet, attracting a great deal of attention and being praised by the people wherever they appeared.

It was long feared that it would be impossible to hold the baby parade, but by the time that it had been formed in the armory the weather had cleared sufficiently to allow the tiny tots to appear on the streets.

In the afternoon the industrial, fraternal and Grange parade held the stage and the streets were blocked for this pageant which was one of the finest ever witnessed.

As the closing hours drew nearer the streets became more blocked, the largest crowd being on the streets that has appeared for the three days. The rain somewhat dampened the ardor which was refined somewhat by the martial music rendered by the musical organizations which were continually playing at some portion of the city.

At five o'clock this evening the firemen were scheduled for exhibitions and fire drills and for several amusing stunts including water fighting and other amusing antics.

7:30 the O. A. C. Cadet band is given a concert at the armory until 8:30 when the final carnival ball will start.

On the streets bedlam will reign as the carnival is to close with a grand masked carnival and confetti battle. This promises to be a great feature and noise making articles and confetti will be in great prominence.

A large supply has been laid in by the carnival committee and will be sold by the senior class and hospital corps, which organizations are to share in the proceeds.

Altogether the carnival in spite of unfavorable weather conditions has been a success, promoting business and providing entertainment, and the committee is to be congratulated and thanked for its work.

PORTLAND DELEGATION IN ROSEBURG TODAY

A bevy of wide-awake Portland business men arrived in the city this morning to mingle with our business men and enjoy the festivities of the carnival.

They were H. E. Chapman, of the Union Meat Co.; W. H. Beharrell, of Haywood Bros. & Wakefield Co.; R. M. Davison, of the Oregon Chair Co.; J. P. Jaeger, of Jaeger Bros., jewelers; J. M. Scott, general passenger agent of the S. P. Co.; E. S. Robe, Hotel Portland; J. A. Herman, also of the Portland Hotel; A. H. Meyers, of the Oregon Hotel, and A. H. Knudson, A. G. Clark, mentioned above is the manager of the Industry League, of the Chamber of Commerce of Portland, and is a regular "go-get-er" boy when it comes to boosting for Oregon made products.

"If everyone will keep on asking for Oregon made products," remarked Mr. Clark, "and then keep on asking—after a while the payrolls will increase and smokestacks will rise. Everyone has in him the gunpowder of community interest—the job of the Home Industry League is to get the spark to it." Mr. Clark certainly has the proper spirit and is in the work with that vim and vigor that spells get there.
