CONDUCTING A PARTY WAR.

Is this war to be successfully concluded or is it to be carried on as a party affair? asks the Boston Herald.

The moral issues are the same now that they were in 1914. The contest is democracy against autocracy. So says Wilson, so it was in 1914, 1915 and 1916. Gen. Wood, Col. Roosevelt, Senator Lodge and Capt. Gardner recognized the issue and urged the president to get ready. The president either failed to see the point or for political reasons thought his re-election demanded as the issue "he kept us out of war." He won the election. Had he lost it he would be known to history as a second Buchanan. Now we are in war. The president has spoken some beautiful words, but he is running the war as a party affair. We owe our Plattburg camps to Wood. Wilson punishes Wood, a republican, by consigning him, the senior major-general in the army, to the poorest post in the country. Even Hawaii is considered more important than Charleston.

Why has he not accepted Col. Roosevelt's tender of 150,000 men outside the conscription limits and urged congress to pass the necessary legislation? Because if "Teddy" goes abroad and returns alive Wilson, as a student of history, knows that the name that will live in history will be "Roosevelt" and not "Wilson." Who knows the name of the president of France? Everybody in the world knows the name of "Joffre." This is the explanation of the opposition to Roosevelt's being permitted to go abroad. Roosevelt has urged for nearly a year "get ready." Wilson has until lately said "do nothing." Who was right?

The government is calling for hundreds of thousands of volunteers for the navy, regular army and national guard. The cry that "Roosevelt's enlistment will be contrary to the 'conscription act'" has no basis. The only real reason why the president does not use his great influence to get Roosevelt's help is fear of the verdict of history if Roosevelt returns a hero. Again, who wants to enlist in a regular army to be ruled by Wilson and Baker; or to enlist in a navy ruled by Wilson and Daniels. Such incompetency was never before known as that shown by Daniels. Business men of vast experience are called to Washington, hang around for weeks and return home with the same story of nothing done. Daniels' incompetency is proverbial.

Attempts to organize the industrial plants are held up because Mr. Gompers has not yet given his consent and the government will not move until Gompers gives his consent. It is well understood in Washington that the advisory council consisting of Daniel Willard, Julius Rosenwald, Bernard Baruch, Howard Coffin and others are held up by Daniels and Baker; they are obedient to Gompers. Everybody understands it in Washington. Why doesn't Wilson step in and do something? Is he always going to play politics? Who is president? Wilson or Gompers? Is the president keeping Daniels and Baker simply because he is not willing to admit that the wrong men have been put in places of authority? Secretary Garrison was a man. He resigned because he would not be responsible for the mistakes and political moves of Wilson. Here is a case of the greatest emergency this country has even known, and we are held back because Wilson won't put big men in places of power.

When the French mission and the English mission came here only democrats were invited to meet and consult with them. What a travesty! If it were not tragic it would be comic. When congressmen offer their services for the war Wilson writes a personal note to the democrats telling them they can serve their country best by staying in Washington. The republicans are referred to the war department for further orders. Government employes, now mostly democrats, are exempted from the conscription bill. Why? Because they are democrats? Now people are urged to "stand behind the president." This is not a monarchy. This is not an autocracy. This is a government of the people, by the people, for the people. We will stand behind the United States, right or wrong, but we will stand behind the president only when he is right and until he changes his ways, until he shows his own patriotism by displacing Daniels and Baker and putting in their places competent forces; until he stops permitting Gompers holding up the government we decline to wear a halter around our necks.

Because Senator Weeks refused to permit McAdoo to have the power to put the proceeds of the sale of bonds in favored banks word has gone forth from the White House that "Weeks must be defeated for re-election." How do the people of Massachusetts like this kind of dictation? More power is being conferred upon Wilson than was ever before given to any man, king, czar, kaiser or dictator. Until the president shows that he is worthy of this authority by removing Daniels and Baker and stops abdicating his power in favor of Gompers, stops playing partisan politics and becomes a president of all the people, we decline blindly to "stand behind the president."

The government has now taken up the good roads movement and wants to see the Pacific highway paved from Portland south to the California line and all money expended in this state through federal appropriations will be used in this direction fully realizing the importance of substantial roads as a means of defense. If Douglas county carries its local bond issue which is almost an assured fact, and initiated for the purpose of improving lateral roads throughout the county, and the government gets behind the Pacific highway, it will make a combination hard to beat for results in the way of permanent road construction.

Tillamook Headlight: It looks as though Mr. Spence, master of the State Grange, is being repudiated. About a month ago Milwaukee Grange passed a resolution opposing the state bond measure. At its last meeting it revoked that resolution and went on record as favoring the $5,000,000 state bond bill "as a step in the line of progress." We know that the farmers of Oregon are in favor of good roads, and they use good business judgment when they want hard surfaced roads for that kind of a road is a great benefit to every farmer.

Six men were dismissed from the officers training camp at the Presidio this week. Four of them were unable to march because of flat feet, and two because of booze. John Barleycorn has no standing with the army these days.

No matter who you are, or what you are—or where you came from—there are no exceptions. If you are between the age of 21 and 30 years you must register. Uncle Sam wants your name and pedigree.

Even though both of your legs are gone, and your arms sawed off, if your age is all right you have got to register. Which is not saying that you will have to go to war.

The army of slackers in this country isn't large enough to harvest our crop of radium. Berlin papers please copy.

NEW TODAY.

WAR, WAR, WAR—See Pat, not about the German war, but about prizes on mill work, door and window frames, all kinds of cement work. Houses built, moved or repaired. Also have some snap bargains in real estate. Better talk with us if you want to sell. F. F. Patterson, Box 302, Roseburg, Oregon. 206-17

Live-Wire Doings of the City

Will Speak in Coos County.

Hon. Binger Hermann, of this city, has been invited by Col. Jewell Post, of the G. A. R. of Coos county, to deliver the memorial address there on Memorial day. Invitations have been issued to many other points to participate in the ceremonies which will be very impressive.

Tourists Skid Off Road.

A party of California tourists occupying a large touring car skidded off the highway a few miles north of Wilbur Sunday afternoon demolishing a sign post and denting up their fender on the car. Though somewhat frightened by the narrow escape from more serious injury they continued on their way north.

Leave for Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wright left for their home in Eugene, Ore., on Monday morning. Mr. Wright will return in about four days, while Mrs. Wright will go on to Corvallis to visit with Miss Fannie Campbell, and to Portland and Astoria expecting to be away from Roseburg for about two weeks.

Will Take Vacation.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Coan left this morning on a three or four weeks' vacation. They go first to Eugene where they join an auto party which will tour through eastern Oregon. During the absence of the pastor the pulpit will be filled by Hon. B. L. Eddy, Rev. Cleaves and Rev. S. M. Cheek, district superintendent.

Dies at Berkeley.

Captain John T. Nash, aged 85 years, former well-known prominent citizen of Medford, pioneer sea captain, California and Oregon miner, builder of the Nash hotel, died at his home in Berkeley, Cal., Sunday evening. He was buried at Medford Wednesday.—Medford Sun.

Will Graduate.

According to Coos Bay papers received here today, Faye Millidge, a former resident of this city, but of late of North Bend, will graduate with the North Bend high school class this semester. Miss Millidge is well known here and attended high school in this city for a number of years.

Cards Honor Homes.

That everybody may know from which homes men have gone forth to serve their country in the navy, and as an inspiration to others to follow, there has just been issued from the press of the U. S. navy publicity bureau a card with the following inscription: "A man from this house is now serving his country at the front in the United States navy." In the upper corner of the card appears the impressive seal of the navy, while below a space for the signature of the commanding officer.

May Abandon Shasta.

There is a report current in Roseburg that the Southern Pacific will take off the Shasta Limited in the next few days, in response to an order from the railroad war board that luxurious trains should be abandoned to facilitate the transportation of troops. Southern Pacific Agent L. B. Moore has received no report of such action, however.

Aliens Must Register.

Aliens as well as citizens, between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, must register for the war draft on June 5, according to a bulletin just received from Adjutant-General George A. White. "It makes no difference whether the alien is a Japanese, a Chinese, an Italian, a German, or a man of any other nationality," says the bulletin. He must register, in common with all citizens of the designated ages.

Booze Order.

Postmaster L. F. Reizenstein has just received what he calls a "booze order." But on inspection it seems there is nothing wet about it. Not a thing to quench the thirst. The order is from the department at Washington, D. C., and is to the effect that Uncle Sam will no longer accept any kind of mail matter that in anyway advertises or solicits liquor orders, the destination of which mail matter is dry territory. The order carries a list of the dry states.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 3-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so easily. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Business at Drain.

Charles McElhany, of the Douglas Water & Light Company, left morning for Drain where he spent the day.

Goes to Eastern Oregon.

W. P. Warnock, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, A. J. Warnock, left this morning for his home at Enterprise.

Goes to Eugene.

Mrs. J. A. Buchanan, conductor of the Rebekah assembly, left this morning for the meeting of the grand lodge at Eugene.

Leaves After Visit.

George Littleler, an O. A. C. student, who has been visiting in this city for several days with Herbert Quine left this morning for his home at Mill City.

Leaving for Portland.

Mrs. C. D. Henry, who has been spending several days visiting with her brother, John Beckley, returned this morning to her home at Portland.

Returns to Rice Hill.

Minnie Rice, who spent several days last week visiting with friends and attending the carnival returned her home at Isadora this morning.

Returns to Portland.

B. H. Moore, who has been visiting at the home of James Tomplin and attending the strawberry carnival, left Saturday night for his home at Portland.

Returns to Portland.

Mrs. I. Love, returned this morning to her home at Portland after visiting with her husband who is temporarily employed in this city. Mrs. Love attended the carnival while in Roseburg.

Returns to Newport.

Mrs. J. C. Freeman, who has been attending the carnival and visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Patterson, returned this morning to her home at Newport.

Magazine Received.

The first library magazine was received this morning. It being the current number of the Saturday Evening Post. It is now on the table ready for perusal by the public.

Celebrates Birthday.

Henry Conn, a well known resident of Melrose, and a frequent visitor to this city, last Saturday celebrated his 75th birthday. Mr. Conn is very active in business affairs and holds his age very well.

Superintendent Arrives.

J. A. Kirk, superintendent of construction in the federal building, arrived in the city today after attending the funeral of his son, Joseph, held in Ukiah, Calif., recently.

Watch for Stolen Car.

The local police officers are closely watching the highways for a Buick Six which was stolen from Portland yesterday morning. It was thought that the car would go through the city last evening, but as yet there has been no trace discovered.

Poster Received.

The Umpqua Valley Bank this morning received a poster from the federal reserve bank in San Francisco in which a plea is made to all citizens to plant gardens. It is thought remarkable that this institution has taken up this work and there is no doubt but that a great deal of good will come of it.

Prominent Lady Leaves City.

Mrs. Fred Dezentoff and daughter, Miss May, left for San Francisco, Saturday afternoon, where she will remain for several weeks before returning to her home in Washington. D. C. Mrs. Dezentoff has been visiting in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stanton and her daughter was children's queen in the carnival.

Will Marry Tomorrow.

Horace Berg left last night for Walla Walla, Wash., where he will meet his wife-to-be, a Portland girl, the marriage to take place tomorrow. Mr. Berg is well known here and is one of the managers of the Douglas county creamery. The newlyweds will take a wedding trip lasting about two weeks and will later return to this city where they will make their future home.

Working for Prize Offered.

J. F. Hutchason, local agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Co., is making an effort to land the $100 prize offered by his company to the agent writing the largest amount of insurance before a date set early in July. Mr. Hutchason already has a big start, and judging from his efforts along this line in the past, he will make his associates in the race for the prize "go some."

Boys Furnish Real Show.

The Ashland song birds were given a complete surprise on last Saturday evening when they entered the house of Sweets and hit up a few popular airs and harmonizing in general. Their songs were followed by applause, and a few minutes later four local "birds," Doss Burgess, Dee Mathews, Elmer Staley and Cecil Black broke forth in song, their efforts far overshadowing the attempts of the Ashland boys. A general vaudeville which lasted for several minutes was the result and the Sweets was crowded with spectators, who pronounced the program the feature of the carnival. For talent, Roseburg beats the world and this city contains material that would put to shame the greatest artists.
