FIRST CLASS FROM WILBUR SCHOOL

Graduating Exercises Will be Held at School Building on May 29th.

A PLAY WILL BE GIVEN

Members of Graduating Class Will Give Play "Polly in Politics" at the Assembly Room Tuesday Evening.

Preparations are drawing to a successful close for the first graduation exercises of the Wilbur high school. The members of the class will receive their diplomas on the evening of May 29, State Superintendent J. A. Churchill delivering the address. At that time a class of six young men and women will leave the ranks of the high school, two to enter college, one to take up the business life and two to train and work as teachers.

The high school has not been established and maintained without a struggle on the part of the patrons, but the things that work for the upbuilding of mankind have always required a struggle, so with pride the patrons and teachers of the Wilbur school look forward to this commencement.

On Sunday morning, May 27, the inaugural sermon will be delivered by the Rev. A. J. Ware, of Oregon City. A special musical program is being arranged and the services will doubtless be very impressive.

The class play will be presented in the school assembly room, May 22. The production selected is "Polly in Politics." It is intensely interesting from the rising of the curtain, the cast being as follows:

Col. Jasper Danvers, leader of the Old Guard... Floyd Chapman Joseph Pendeter, an insurgent.

Harold McKay James Vilas, a regular... Alfred Hill Sammy, a bell boy... Ralph Miller Mrs. Danvers, the colonel's wife.

Mae Kaegi Polly Danvers, the colonel's daughter Clara Maley Clara Jones, telephone girl.

Emma Russell Marie, a parlor maid... Eley Walker The class colors are purple and gold, the class flower, the La France rose. The pupils have chosen as their motto "Climb, the Rocks be Rugged," a motto which has been followed during their school days and one which they will take with them into life. The class roll follows: Floyd Chapman, Emma Russell, Harold McKay, Clara Maley, Alfred Hill, Mae Kaegi.

The State Highway Commission has adopted the following policy with regard to road surveys: Whenever any County shall make application to the Commission setting forth a desire to do construction work on post roads, forest roads or any other state highway within its limits, the Commission will authorize a definite location survey establishing grades and alignments. The expense of such surveys will be paid for from the state funds of the Commission.

We cannot conceive how a farmer can oppose the present good roads movement when it means so much to him to have good roads to take his products to the market. The State of Oregon is endeavoring to bring about a comprehensive system of road building, which it should have done years ago, but, strange to relate, objection is raised by farmers, who will be the most benefited by a system of hard surfaced trunk roads. Take Tillamook County for an illustration with a hard-surfaced highway through the county. The farmers would use it 12 months of the year and the summer auto travel three months of the year.—Tillamook Headlight.

I don't believe in going in debt for something that we don't need, and I don't think bonding is the best way. But, there you are, under the system that this government is run it is the only way to get what we need, and we all agree that we need good roads and we know that motorists will not stand the traffic. Will we wait until we have the money, or go in debt, for what we all say we need? I have come to the parting of the ways, and say, I believe those men who figured on the license paying for the bonds know what they are talking about.—C. A. Schuebel, Clackamas County farmer, in a communication to the Oregon City Enterprise.

In arriving at a sensible conclusion as regards the road bond issue it is not unwise nor untimely to reckon along the line of a twentieth century resident. Do not harken back to the days when our grandfathers crossed the plains in a prairie schooner drawn by a yoke of oxen, but just remember that this is an age of rubber tires. Permit a few present day arguments to confront you, then look them squarely in the face. That is the only way to settle the matter honestly. That being the case we are certain that every voter who has not already become convinced that Oregon should be pulled out of the mud will resolve to do his bit by casting his vote for the first real sensible measure ever placed before the people which was intended to do a real good for the state and not make a few grafters rich.—Coos Bay Harber

PLANS MADE TO ENLARGE FUNDS

The Hospital Corps Will Give Vaudeville Show Within The Few Weeks.

TO BE ALL HOME TALENT

Funds to be Raised to Buy More Beans—Boys Are Enthusiastic and Promise to Give Fine Entertainment.

With the idea of having a little cream in their coffee now and then and at times to secure an extra fish of brunes for dessert, the hospital corps located in this city today formulated plans to give a vaudeville at a local theatre some time during the next few weeks in order that their mess fund, which has been sadly neglected may be enlarged. A large percentage of the best vaudeville talent in the city is contained in this organization and their program, when arranged will undoubtedly be the finest ever presented here. Music, comedy and all of the good things that go to make up a complete vaudeville show will have a prominent place and the regular rehearsals will be started within the next few days. A full announcement of the program will be made at a later date and the names of those who will participate given.

The hospital corps members have been anxious for some time to enlarge their mess fund and when the announcement came several days ago that a call will be issued for mobilization on July 25, the boys immediately set about to devise ways and means whereby this could be done. It is thought that the people of this city, who have a great interest in the welfare of the boys will patronize this effort and a large crowd is anticipated at the performance.

All of the acts presented by the corps will be given by the members, as sufficient talent can be obtained there.

The boys are not asking for donations and intend to give the people of this city their money's worth in the line of entertainment.
