News Representative Visits Reedsport and Gardiner on Business Trip.

MAKES FINE APPEARANCE

Results of Trip Was Gratifying and Many Residents of That Section Are Added to List of Subscribers.

Business conditions are exceptionally good in northern parts of the county, according to the statements of a News representative who has just returned from a business trip through that section. Many new names were added to the long list of News subscribers and the representative was accorded a fine reception at every point where he visited.

The towns of Oakland, Yoncalla, Drain, Elkton, Scottsburg, Reeds-port and Gardiner were visited, and the prosperity of these places was fully shown in the recent Red Cross campaign, when the people of those towns subscribed so magnificently to the fund.

Oakland, Yoncalla and Drain are thriving towns lying along the main line of the Southern Pacific and are the centers of a splendid fruit and farming district. The general reports from these sections show them to be in exceedingly prosperous condition.

Elkton is situated between Drain and Scottsburg, and although a small town, much business is transacted there, as it is surrounded by some of the finest farming country in the state. The residents of this section take a pride in their community and the farms present a very beautiful appearance.

Scottsburg is the head of navigation on the Umpqua river and is backed up by a rich farming region.
This community like others mentioned, is conducted in a very thriving manner.

Reedsport is situated along the line of the new branch of the Southern Pacific railroad and is quite a busy place, the creameries and the canneries being two of the chief industries.

Gardiner is a beautiful town, situated about ten miles from the sea.
The business district is connected East Gardiner, through which the railroad passes, by a very fine highway. The highway is perfectly level all the way. It is also on a level with the county dock, but has never been overflowed, although when it was built there seemed to be some fear that an overflow would occur.

The new high school, erected to the memory of the late W. P. Jewett, is a very fine structure and would be a credit to a town much larger than Gardiner. While the loss of the big mill at Gardiner was very distasteful to business conditions, the people look forward to the rebuilding of the plant in the near future.

The nearness of Gardiner and Reedsport to the coast, make both towns the possessors of a delightfully cool summer climate.

All of the towns visited contain a host of News friends and this paper is delighted to be so well represented in those communities.

100 DEGREES HOT.

Roseburg yesterday experienced the hottest day this year when the thermometer at 4 p. m. rose to 100 degrees. The heat was very noticeable and unless some relief, in the form of rain soon shows up, the weather will be very detrimental to the crops.

TRIAL MONDAY.

The trial of the robbers caught in the act of entering the postoffice at Riddle, will be held in Portland Monday, according to a subpoena received this morning by Sheriff Quinn, who will be one of the witnesses. The sheriff and other witnesses will leave Sunday night.

DEPOSITIONS TAKEN.

Depositions were taken today before Attorney C. F. Hopkins, in the case of Clara Faydes and C. R. Pardee vs. James L.
Flood, a San Francisco millionaire. The case will be heard in the federal court at San Francisco. The action for damages was brought by Mrs.
Pardee and her husband following an accident in which the lady was injured by the Cali-fornian's auto. Attorney O. P.
Coshaw represents the plaintiffs and Andrew F. Burke, of San Francisco the defendants.

by ancestry, and in pride of things immaterial pulled a gold piece from his pocket and to an American boasted: "The king whose likeness appears hereon made my father a lord." The American pulled a penny out of his pocket and said: "That's not so much; the Indian whose likeness appears on this coin made my father an angel."

And laugh friends, laugh. Remember nothing that will keep you from laughing. Live so that you can laugh; live righteously, joyously, live life in all its fullness, passing by the meanesses and letting them take no hold upon your life. I believe in a gospel of sunshine, of the smile, and if I have brought a smile to your face and a little warmth to your soul, I shall believe that I have accomplished greatly for you. Go and do thou likewise.

ACCIDENT RUMORED.

A rumor was rife late this afternoon that County Fruit inspector F. L. Strang was injured in an automobile accident near Marshfield late yesterday. The rumor could not be traced down and its authenticity could not be learned.
Mr. Strang and Mr. Hurd left Roseburg several days ago expecting to return to Roseburg this evening.

editor of a paper in that city, was elected president of the State Editorial Association in session at Pendleton last week.

The Portland Oregonian of Sunday carried a long list of names of the Oregon pioneers that have passed away during the past few years, many Douglas county pioneers were included in this list.

The city council will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at the city hall this evening. No matters of importance are to be discussed so far as is known, with the exception of the petition for a pulmotor.

James Goodman arrived in this city Saturday evening from an extended trip through Washington.
While absent from this city he visited his parents in Salem. Mr. Goodman states that his father now owns a general merchandise store near the state fair grounds and is well satisfied with conditions there. He formerly owned a large ranch at Looking Glass.

PLANS FOR REEDSPORT PLANT ARE DISCUSSED

SALEM, July 14.—Joseph Roberts, president, and C. V. Cooper, manager, of the Reedsport-Oregon Shipbuilding Company, were here today seeking the approval of Corporation Commissioner Schneiderman and Attorney General Brown of their plan for financing their proposed shipbuilding project at Reedsport.
The question at issue was whether the company should be authorized to meet units, instead of stock certificates, and provide that the investors should have no voice in the control or management of the company.

Singer

Myrtle Stedman

Appearing Herself in Person in a repertoire of popular and standard songs, and a special 7-reel moving picture program. You have all seen Myrtle Stedman in pictures, now meet her face to face.
ADMISSION, ADULTS, 25c; CHILDREN 10c.

Coming Thursday evening only, Vivian Martin in "THE WAX MODEL," and the fourteenth chapter of the patriotic serial "Liberty" Coming Monday and Tuesday July 23 and 24, Theda Bara in "Romeo and Juliet."

MYRTLE STEDMAN AT ANTLERS

Miss Myrtle Stedman, charming, beautiful and an accomplished singer and actress as well, will appear here at the Antlers theatre tonor-row afternoon and evening. The engagement is one that is causing widespread comment as Miss Stedman will appear herself in person. This is the first opportunity that this city has had to see Miss Stedman playing out of the screen. The gowns Miss Stedman wear are grand and beyond comparison. Miss Stedman who is at present playing at Los Angeles, has the satisfaction of knowing that the theatre in that city has enjoyed more business than any other star that has played in that city. There is no reason why she cannot do the same here.
