A Billion to Help Business and Farming

The funds gathered into the Federal Reserve Banks now aggregate over $1,000,000,000. This vast sum was not accumulated to earn profits for private interests, nor can it be controlled by private interests. Its purpose is to assist its member banks, of which we are one, in helping the farmers and business men and to make general banking conditions as sound as possible.

If you are not yet one of our depositors and getting its benefits and protection, drop in and talk it over with us.

CITY NEWS

Commissioner W. E. St. John of Sutherlin arrived this morning to spend a few hours in this city attending to county business matters.

Mr. Archie Archambau and family of Sutherlin are business visitors in the city today. They made the trip by motor and expect to return this evening.

Having rented my house for the summer I will be found at the home of my father, M. J. Shoemaker. Phone 147-J. Dr. B. R. Shoe maker. 271-4f

Alva Bellows is serving the many customers at the Wilder and Agee store taking Mr. Agee's place who has been sojourning "somewhere" in Oregon.

Lester Crow, of Riddle, is now located at the Barnes Barber Shop taking the place made vacant by Ray Buell who joined the Fourth Company.

Constable Howard Church returned this morning with the two boys who it is believed by local officers robbed the Chapman drug store in this city a few evening ago. The boys were arrested at Albany.

THE FAMILY LIFE.

Its Normal Restraints Make Man the Master of Himself.

Modern assailants of the family suppose that by destroying it they can emancipate the individuals who compose it. In their delirium they conceive that the goal of life is the throwing off of all restraints, says William Roscoe Thayer in Harper's Magazine. Nothing could be more mistaken.

Normal restraints, those which build up a man and make him master of himself, are really the means by which he gets his true freedom. A little water in a boiler will generate enough steam to run a locomotive; the same volume on the ground is a puddle and no more.

Discipline is the barrel of the gun, the rudder of the ship. The same law applies to human beings, and such an institution as the family has proved itself indispensable to the highest development of its members.

The man who thinks that by casting off its ties he gets a larger freedom deceives himself. At most he exchanges a higher plane for a lower and secures whatever privileges that descent implies. He retreats toward the plane of the beast, out of which it has been man's mission to rise and climb. He accepts the bondage of a more in-sistent selfishness.

AUSTRALIAN STORE TALK.

Their Term "Soft Goods" Means What We Call Dry Goods.

The United States is not the only country that takes liberties with the mother tongue. Australia speaks a language of trade that would not be understood elsewhere. For instance, "dry goods" is seldom heard, the Australian term being "soft goods." This generally applies only to piece goods, with some inclusion of ready to wear articles. The house or shop that carries articles for men's wear is known as a "mercery" and never as a haberdashery. "Haberdashery" means what in America is covered by "notions."

The shop that handles women's wear is known as a "draper's" and the organization composed of members of the trade is called the Master Drapers' association. The "mantle" department is the one that handles women's coats and suits. The manager of the store or shop is known as director, and an "assistant" is a salesman.

Warehouseman does not mean a man who stores goods for others, but a wholesale dealer in "soft goods" and the like. The business of what is known in America as that of warehousemen is conducted in Australia by "bulk stores."—New York World.

Corsica and England.

It is an almost forgotten fact that for a period of a little more than two years during the Napoleonic wars Corsica was a British possession. After the evacuation of Toulon the British government felt it necessary to take the island, and Lord Howe, with Nelson as brigadier, was sent to drive out the French. With the capture of Calvi July 12, 1794, where Nelson had his eye, the island fell into British hands and George III. formally accepted the crown of Corsica, appointing Sir George Elliott as British viceroy and allowing the Corsicans to retain their legislative assembly. In 1796 the activity of the French navy in other parts of the Mediterranean resulted in a sudden decision of the British government to withdraw from the island. The evacuation was completed on Oct. 20 of that year, and Corsica reverted to France.

He Was Game.

They had been married three months and were having their first quarrel which shows that they were a remarkable couple.

"Evidently," she said icily, "you regret that you have married me. The step is not irrevocable, however. If you care to be released from your bonds—"

"Naw," he interrupted impatiently "I'm no ninety-day recruit. I enlist for the term of the war."

She couldn't think of any retort, so she maintained a scornful silence. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

History and Legend.

Not far from the town of Charlott Amalle, in what was once the Danish West Indies, are two old towers commonly known as Blackbeard's castle and Blackbeard's castle. Legend has it that here these daring old buccaners had their headquarters and played their romantic roles as "the terror of the Spanish main," but history disputes legend, for it says that they were really built by the Danish government as a measure of defense in 1680.

Screw Propellers.

Experiments made with two screw propellers for ships, one behind the other, show that but little increased speed is obtained by the arrangement, and rotating the two screws in opposite directions, either at the same or different speeds, has little effect on the results. It is, however, claimed that the double screw gives better control of the vessel.

Not a Gift.

"Did her father give the bride away?"

"No. He said that would be a silly custom when he knew very well that in a few weeks they'd both be back living at his expense."—Detroit Free Press.

APPLY FOR YOUR FARM LOAN NOW

TO PROSPECTIVE FARM BORROWERS:

We have received the following letter from the Agricultural Cooperative Company, whom we represent in Douglas county. The letter should be of interest to every farmer who expects to make a farm loan.

"Recent developments with reference to the war and the offering for sale by our government of unprecedented amounts of bonds, has no doubt caused you to think quite seriously about the possibility of an advance in farm loan rates in the near future. There is and can be no question as to the success of the present and future government bond issues. It is our privilege and patriotic duty to absorb these issues as fast as offered. Patriotic impulses should not, however, entirely blind us to our own conditions and the effect of that issuance and sale of such enormous quantities of bonds will have on interest rates. It will undoubtedly create a shortage, and a very large one, in funds which would otherwise seek investment in farm loans.

"Money is the only commodity today that is cheap. A substantial raise in interest rates sooner or later is as inevitable as that the sun will rise and set tomorrow."

So it behooves you then to have your arrangements made to take care of your loan on your farm if it is about to mature. We have made arrangements whereby we can take your application now and give you the advantage of the present low rate on our twenty year plan of lending money.

NOW IS THE TIME

for you to finance your farm loan and get it on a long time basis. Our twenty year plan will tide you over any period of high interest rates likely to occur.

WRITE US TODAY.

for information concerning our twenty year plan of lending money. We will take your application now and agree to furnish you the money any time within the next six months at present rates of interest. Write today. Don't postpone it.
