Dr. K. L. Loop, accompanied by his wife, arrived in this city late yesterday afternoon on the Coos county stage, on their way to Minneapolis. In response to a telegram announcing the serious injury to their son, Homer, who is an aviator and connected with the army. It seems that the plane in which two men were flying dropped to the earth killing one and badly injuring the other.

Bernie Hyland, local representative of the Standard Oil Company, and Mr. Erwin, of the same company, from Portland, left this morning on a business trip to Canyonville.

COOS IS NOTED FOR ITS PATRIOTIC MEN

Two families in this part of the state can be credited with being as patriotic as any in the state, as they are offering all the men of their families for military service, says a Marshfield exchange.

The three sons of L. C. Bargelt, proprietor of a job printing office, have all joined the 11th company, coast artillery, of Marshfield. They are Halley, Harold and Paul Bargelt, ranging in age from 20 to 22 years. The elder, Halley, has been in Montana for the past year and returned home in order to join the company along with his two brothers, Harold Bargelt leaves a young wife at home. All three boys are printers and have been connected with the local newspapers and printing offices.

The Russell family, of the little town of Langlois, in Curry county, is another patriotic family. Samuel had asked that a place be held open for him in the coast artillery company and has enlisted. His brother has already enlisted and is at Vancouver barracks and a third brother tried to join but was rejected because he lacked one finger. The record for the Russell family for the little town of Langlois is annual. Port Orford, a town 14 miles away, gave 11 of her young men for the navy.

CANNOT USE EMBLEM IN ANY ADVERTISING

Anyone using the American flag with any advertising printed, painted or otherwise attached thereto is liable to a fine of not less than $20.00 and not more than $100.00, as you will note from the following extract of Oregon's law regarding the matter:

"Section 2091. United States flag. Desecration of, prohibited.—Any person who in any manner, for exhibition of display, shall place or cause to be placed any words, or figures, or number, or marks, or inscriptions, or pictures, or design, or device, or symbol, or token, or notice, or drawing, or any advertisement, of any nature whatever, upon any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, or shall expose or cause to be exposed to public view any such flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, upon which shall be printed, painted, or otherwise placed or to which shall be attached, appended, affixed, or annexed, any words, or figures, or numbers, or marks, or inscriptions, or pictures or designs, or device, or symbol, or token, or notice, or drawing or any advertisement, of any nature or kind whatever, or who shall expose to public view, or shall manufacture, or sell, or expose for sale, or have in possession for sale, or for use, any article, or thing, or substance, being an article for merchandise, or a receptacle of merchandise, upon which shall have been printed, painted, or attached, or otherwise placed, a representation of any such flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, to advertise, or call attention to, or to decorate, or to ornament, or to mark, or to distinguish the article or thing, on which so placed, or shall publicly mutilate, trample upon, or publicly deface, or defile, or file, or cast contempt, either by words or act, upon any such flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars."

GREEN GLEANINGS.

Lyle Marsters returned from Portland Friday, where he disposed of a car load of fat cattle.

Joe Claypool is a lone widower these days. His wife left for Bandon last week where she will enjoy a two-weeks vacation.

Miss Jeanette Croft was elected secretary of the Sunday school to succeed Miss McCracken, who resigned recently.

The hay crop in this locality is almost cared for and the prospects are that it will be the heaviest in years. This is due to the fact that many ranchers are cutting their grain for hay.

In spite of the fact that a large number of people are taking their vacation and the thermometer hovering around 90 degrees for two weeks in July, the Sunday school and church services have been well patronized during the entire month. On the 15th of the month it was so extremely warm that when Rev. Spencer, of the Roseburg Methodist church, stepped into the pulpit he pulled off his coat, and for a moment the congregation was in doubt as to whether he had come to preach or pitch hay. Since then shirt waists have grown popular at religious services in Green.

The Green auxiliary of the Red Cross is to meet at the school house Thursday afternoon, August 2. The president, Mrs. Wolford requests that everyone interested be present, as important business is to be transacted.

The shower given Miss Bertha McCracken last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Earl Agee by her Sunday school associates was a genuine surprise to the lady. Miss McCracken was highly esteemed and will be sadly missed from our midst.

Mrs. M. M. Van Horn entertained Friday afternoon at cards for Mrs. Rowe Weber's sister, Mrs. Severance of Cleveland, Ohio, who is spending the summer here. A most enjoyable time was passed by those present.

The bean crop deserves special mention. All through the last month the majority of the bean patches have made a reasonably good growth. It certainly is a drouth resisting plant.

The second crop of alfalfa in this vicinity has been cut, and the third crop is well on its way. The second crop is the best in years, being entirely free of weeds.

Mrs. Thomas China entertained the Merry-Go-Round club at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Emmons is building a large barn on his ranch to take the place of the one that was built 40 years ago.

Henry Landers has one of the best equipped ranches in western Oregon. Recently he has built a strictly sanitary milk house, with all the modern improvements. The floor and side walls are of concrete, and plastered overhead. He has installed a large pressure tank and a two-horse power gas engine furnishes sufficient force to supply them with all the pure water required in the milk house. The water is also piped into the residence and barn. A convenient hydrant in the yard has been put in for fire purposes. With fifty pounds of pressure a good stream of water can be thrown over their large two-story residence insuring safety against fire. Mr. Landers is quite an extensive farmer, and has just finished harvesting an immense hay crop. Besides his corn, wheat and oats are looking fine. He was the first in this vicinity to operate a bean thresher, and this year he has about 15 acres planted to beans. Before the Southern Pacific railroad blazed a trail through this rich Umpqua valley, Henry Landers, Sr., used to sell eggs at five or six cents per dozen in Roseburg and butter could hardly be disposed of at any price. All their supplies were drawn by wagon from Portland. Some change, indeed, since the good old pioneer days.

Mrs. W. D. Wolford entertained at dinner Sunday evening for Mrs. Severance, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rowe Weber.

Mrs. Clay Smith will entertain the members of the Merry-Go-Round club on the afternoon of August 1.

The good citizens of Happy Valley are somewhat aroused over the appearance of several suspicious characters in the vicinity of Bull creek bridge recently. Earl Agee thinks they may be I. W. W.s and have some designs on the famous bridge.

Rev. Eaton preached a very able sermon Sunday afternoon at the school house to a very appreciative audience.

Fred Goff, of Melrose, was a visitor in our midst last week. He is much interested in the community interest exhibited in this vicinity.

The fourth of July committee reports a neat balance of about $30.00 after all bills have been paid. The committee has tendered the balance to the school piano fund.
