Providing Banking Protection

The vast resources of the Federal Reserve System, now over a thousand million dollars are contributed by the depositors in banks which, like ourselves, are members of this great system.

The largest and the smallest of our depositors each contribute in the same proportion to this fund, which gives protection to all.

If you haven't this protection already you ought not to delay. You secure it the moment you become one of our depositors.

Live-wire Doings of City

D. B. Bunnell left for Portland yesterday where he has business matters requiring his attention.

Returned from Gardiner.

Hon. B. L. Eddy returned Saturday night from Gardiner, where he has been transacting legal business.

Return From Crater Lake.

Al. Kent and wife returned today from an auto trip to Crater Lake. A very enjoyable trip was had. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Drain, of Drain.

E. B. Barber in City.

E. B. Barber, at one time connected with a local publication in this city, but now claiming a close relationship to Tarnum interests, is in the city renewing old acquaintances and looking after business matters.

Thirteen "Tail Lights" Out.

Night Marshal Roadman discovered thirteen automobiles Saturday night which gave no evidence of having any "tail lights" and Marshal Wilcox was busy today making a roundup of those who infringed on the law.

Missionaries Pass Through.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Livesey passed through this city Saturday evening enroute to California, where the former will take up missionary work among the Indians in southern California. The Liveseys are old time friends of Mrs. Chas. Hadley, of this city, who greeted them upon their arrival in Roseburg.

May Locate in Ashland.

Mrs. Anna Kent passed through this city from Ashland where she has been on a business trip, to her home in Drain yesterday. Mrs. Kent conducts a hotel business in her home town, but may decide to dispose of it and go into the same business in Ashland.

Who Knows John Peterson?

Acting Coroner Earl Conklin has not been able to find any relatives of John Peterson, the Swedish fire fighter, who was killed last Saturday by a falling tree in the Prospect district. No one in Grants Pass where the man lived could throw light on his identity. The body is still at the undertaking establishment. — Medford Sun.

Take Charge of Laundry.

Chas. Heskett and wife, former residents of this city, left here Sunday morning for Eugene and after visiting there for a few days will continue to Salem where Mr. Heskett is to take the management of the Capital City Laundry of that place. Charley is no novice in the laundry business, having kept books at the Roseburg Steam Laundry for many years and that he will make more than good at his new location is the belief of his many friends here.

Forest Fire Near Edenhower.

A forest fire on the Jones range three and one-half miles north of Edenhower resulted in considerable damage on Sunday afternoon and at a late hour was still blazing to some extent. Fire fighters had succeeded in controlling the sweep of the flames and it is hoped to extinguish the conflagration shortly. A number of local people motored to the scene yesterday, a few of whom viewed their first real forest fire.
