Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.

PREMIUM LIST FOR THE DOUGLAS COUNTY FAIR

The premium list for the fifth annual exhibition of the Douglas county fair, to be held commencing September 18 and ending September 20, has been received. In looking through the book it is seen that horse racing has been eliminated. Indeed, the beautiful standard bred, the horse which has furnished so much pleasure to fair-goers all the years past, is not mentioned in the premium list, so it may be inferred that if any of this breed are still left in Douglas county they will not be in evidence at the fair this year. Draft horses and coaches are listed. Percherons, Belgians, Clydes and Shires are offered good premiums. Teams, including carriage horses, are listed for premiums, and this probably includes standard breeds. All the popular breeds of cattle are listed for awards. The premium list also covers a wide range of agricultural products.

Industries of all kinds are invited to participate in the exhibition, and fine arts and needle work, home economics and all work of the home is encouraged to offer exhibits. The fair promises to be an interesting event, and deserves the support of the entire county. Copies of the premium list are ready for distribution, and can be had at this office. Expectant exhibitors will do well to secure a copy and prepare their showings according to the regulations of the association, and by being promptly on hand help to make the event a success.

RINGLING'S CIRCUS SIDE TRACKED HERE

Ringling Brothers circus, one of the largest shows under canvas this season, which gave two performances recently in Portland, arrived here this morning and spent some time in the local yards feeding and watering stock. They have 735 horses, and 1008 wild animals, and also 1370 men and women are employed, requiring 90 cooks and waiters to satisfy the multitude of appetites. They maintain a secret service department, Red Cross department, two physicians, three nurses, three veterinary surgeons and 23 advance agents. The circus has its own attorney, a postmaster, postoffice and mail delivery and also a weather forecaster. This is their first visit to the coast in several years. The big show left for points south after a short visit here.

CARD OF THANKS

Through the medium of the press we desire to express our deepest appreciation to the many friends in Roseburg for their loving remembrances—beautiful floral offerings and sympathetic words—expressive of their love and esteem for the departed. Especially do we wish to thank the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows, as well as many others.

Rev. J. H. Howard and Family, L. E. Millledge and Family.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
