ROAD READY FOR STEEL

Every Member of Monmouth Normal Class of 1917 Already Employed as Teachers—University Students Enlist.

(By Associated Press.) SALEM, Or., Sept. 18.—Workmen employed on portions of the Oregon highway system in the Shoshone mountains and at Sheridan and on a bridge in Columbia county are working ten hours a day, instead of eight, as heretofore, in order to get their work done before the rain comes.

Governor Will Talk. ST. HELENS, Or., Sept. 18.—Governor James Withycombe of Oregon will deliver an address here Thursday, September 20, (Governor's Day at the Columbia county fair.

Road Bill Ready. KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Sept. 18.—Headquarters of the Oregon, California and Eastern Railroad Company—the Straborn system—have been moved here from Portland, steel for sixteen miles of the first unit of the road from Klamath Falls to Dalry, Ore., is on the ground ready for laying.

Demand for Teachers. MONMOUTH, Or., Sept. 18.—Practically every member of the 1917 classes of the Oregon State Normal School here has obtained a teaching position, according to President C. L. Ackerman. Ordinarily many graduates are forced to wait a year after graduation before obtaining places.

Enlistment of many male teachers is believed one reason for the fact that the demand for teachers for some grades is greater than the supply. The normal opens September 21 for the 1917-18 year.

300 Students Enlist. BAKER, Ore., Sept. 18.—Over 300 students of the University of Oregon have enlisted, according to Dr. John Straub, dean of the college of Liberal Arts, who was here recently. Dr. Straub estimates the freshman class for the coming year will number from 300 to 500 students.

Every Girl a Queen. PENDLETON, Ore., Sept. 18.—Pendleton's twelfth year is to have no queen, as in former years. Instead, the directors announced, every girl attending will be queen. On Thursday of roundup week, every person entering the gates at the park will be presented with an American flag and will be urged to wave them throughout the day.

Long Potato Patch. PENDLETON, Ore., Sept. 18.—A potato patch fifteen miles long, said to be the longest patch in the world, lies along the Joseph Branch of the Oregon Washington Railroad & Navigation Company in eastern Oregon, according to reports received here.

"I'll Show You How Corns Peel Off!"

Ever Peel a Banana Skin? That's It! "I should worry about those corns—I just got some 'Netol' on 'em. Corns used to pester the world with a frenzy, and here you are, with the itching toes, tinkering with plaster."

"Get-it" Peels Your Feet in Clover—It Ends Corns Quickly and keeps them from coming back. It won't hurt. Put one on to the corn and you'll see it. It means the end of a corn. There is nothing in the world like "Netol"—nothing so easy and so safe—nothing that you can count on to take off a corn or callus every time, and without danger. The corn never grows back. It will not get. It never irritates the flesh. Never makes your feet sore. Just two drops of "Netol" and you can peel the corn painlessly, quickly, you can peel the corn right off with your finger, and then you can go on your feet and have the feet as smooth and comfortable as your palm. Never happened before. Get it! It's the only "Netol" that you can get from any drug store. You need pay no more than 25¢. It's sent in the receipt of price by Dr. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Roseburg and recommended as the world's greatest corn remedy by Nathan Pullerison

LOOKING GLASS NEWS.

J. T. Spangh and family will move to Roseburg Wednesday. Mr. Spangh has built a beautiful modern residence there recently, which the family will occupy permanently.

Bridges and Lamb have sold their sheep this week to a party from Oakland, Ore. We did not learn the price paid.

Mrs. W. O. Boyd, who teaches the intermediate class in Sunday school, gave her class a picnic today down on the creek, where the little folks enjoyed themselves immensely in getting home to nature. Those present were Mrs. W. O. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Beard, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, Vera Kloro, Garnet Goodman, Arlene Howard, Dorothy Rogers, Fay Ruth, Mollie and Ann Morgan, Kathryn Montgomery, Martha Montgomery, Don Dunning, Cecil Green, Ivelyn Green, Irvin Jenny, Harold Boyd, Johnnie, Bob and Edward Montgomery.

The following prune driers started drying prunes Monday morning: Marsh & Son, J. T. Spangh, W. Voorhies, Geo. Best, W. E. Clingenpoel, Smith & Russell. The process of drying will continue night and day for about 25 to 30 days.

The Brightenish family, of Ten Mile, are picking prunes for Voorhies, Buell and Heard, of this place.

A coil of sadness was cast over the entire community Sunday about noon when the news was flashed over the wires that Will Arnold had been accidentally shot and killed by his brother, Clayton. They had come to near the saw mill with Clayton Arnold and family together with Mrs. Clara to enjoy the day fishing and hunting. Will and Clayton went out for a little hunt going about three quarters of a mile from the mill when they separated. Clayton arrived at the place of meeting first and was waiting for his brother, holding his gun cocked under the right arm to get ready to fire. Clayton went on to get a little more game and had picked up. The gun started to coil out from under the arm and grasping the end discharged his gun, killing his brother instantly. This happened about 11 o'clock on Sunday, September 16, and about 20 men searched the woods for five hours before the body was found. Assembled there when the county coroner arrived were Wm. Johnson and four sons, Leo Williams, E. M. Matthews, Alva Spangh, Ralph Hrislin, T. W. and D. C. Morgan, Allen O. Morrow, H. G. Kloro, Dewart Brock, Frank Myers and Coroner Ritter, of Roseburg, who soon decided that an inquest was not necessary. The body was carried to the mill on an improvised litter and placed in the litter. It was embalmed and prepared for burial, which will occur probably on Tuesday at Looking Glass.

GOV'T. NOT TO SIEZE SUPPLIES HELD HOMES

The department of agriculture announced today that the government will not seize supplies held in homes.

There is no need to be a widely circulated statement that the government expects to take food supplies from any family. Both the food administration and the department of agriculture have in a statement to congressmen what seems to be a deliberate propaganda to the effect that the government intends to take from every family all canned goods put on in excess of 100 quarts.

This is only one of the variations of the rumor which has been widely circulated. Another statement is that the government has been using the common sense and preserving of fruits and vegetables so that they will be in a convenient form for the government to handle and transport when it takes them away from the people. Further elaboration is that these goods are to be taken away from American homes and shipped to England.

Miss D. B. Russell left for Portland this morning where she will visit with friends.

SOLDIERS' HOME QUARREL SETTLED

As a result of the airing of the squabble between Commandant Markee of the Oregon soldiers' home at Roseburg and Architect Thompson at the board of control meeting this morning, Governor Withycombe told the commandant that in the future he should treat all men doing work for the state with the courtesy due gentlemen, and that if there was anything he thought was wrong he should take the matter up with the board instead of throwing it out himself, says the Salem Capital Journal.

Governor Withycombe likened the affair to a tempest in a teapot and declared both men were too sensitive. He said that the things the commandant had done were wrong but that in general conditions at the home were carried on better than in the past. He also said that Architect Thompson, who has charge of the building of the new hospital at the institution, was also somewhat wrong a little hot headed, perhaps.

Treasurer Kay stated that he had heard from excellent authority that Commandant Markee had made indelicate remarks concerning the board, and he felt that he had exceeded his authority and enlarged his power beyond what it really was. He further stated that if the commandant made any further remarks of like nature he would immediately take steps to have a change made in the administration.

In regard to the direction of the new hospital, the board told the commandant that Dr. Stewart was to have full charge in regard to the hiring or discharge of nurses and assistants and over the work of the hospital, although the commandant had general authority over all the institution. This was to make the situation clear before any other squabble arose.

Commandant Markee and Architect Thompson clashed frequently during the construction of the new hospital over the matter of what the commandant thought was unnecessary expenses incurred by the architect in his tours of inspection from Portland, and over the location of a sewer. The commandant could not see why the architect should be paid train and hotel expenses when he traveled in his automobile. He was told that the architect had taken up the matter of these expenses with the secretary of the board of control and that they had been authorized. It was the constant antagonizing of the commandant that worried the architect until it got on his nerves. He says he was constantly criticized and found fault with by the commandant until it culminated in his recent trip to Roseburg when he said the commandant threatened to use bullets to get him off the grounds.

The commandant said he told the architect that if he laid hands on him he would not be able to get off the grounds, and that as for bullets there was nothing loaded there.

The whole matter was threshed out back and forth with the architect declaring that the commandant called him a liar and used other insulting language to him while the commandant stoutly denied everything. The inception of the friction was brought out in the desire of the commandant to have a nurses home and a dining room in the new hospital and the architect tried to get them in and keep within the appropriation which had been set for them. Various other charges were handed back and forth and it simmered down to be merely a tempest in a teapot.
