800 PUPILS ARE ENROLLED TODAY

The city schools, which opened today have a combined enrollment of approximately 800 pupils. The enrollment in the lower grades, especially beginners is very much greater than that of last year, while the upper grades and high school is slightly less.

More pupils are expected soon, and it is estimated that the enrollment will reach the thousand mark before many days. An unusually large number of out-of-town pupils have enrolled in the high school this year, the number reaching nearly forty.

The largest enrollment of any one school is the Rose school which recorded 326 pupils.

SMALL BLAZE IS SOON EXTINGUISHED

A fire which might have resulted seriously had it not been for a damp roof, broke out at the home of Mrs. H. E. Pickens on South Main street today.

Fire Chief James Fletcher, together with a large number of the firemen arrived with a chemical in a very short time and the small blaze was extinguished before the arrival of the fire truck which was somewhere in the city engaged in flushing hydrants. The fire was discovered by students at the Rose school.

TROOP TRAINS CARRY FAMOUS MUSICIAN

The San Francisco special which passed through Roseburg yesterday enroute to American lake carried several musicians of note. Ted Graham, a former banjo player on the Orpheum entertained with several lively selections which were heartily applauded; a former pianist at Neptune's Copper Palace gave quite a concert at the Umpqua hotel dining room during the noon hour, his selections varying from grand opera to ragtime. The sacramento special carried with them the "Sacramento Jaz Quartette," who responded again and again to pleas for music. As the train slowly pulled out the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner," were heard.

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO

Attorney and Mrs. O. P. Coshov returned here late Saturday night from San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Coshov departed for Portland about ten days ago and from there left for Flavel where they took the Great Northern, for San Francisco. On his arrival in the bay city, Mr. Coshov intended to argue the case of Pardoe vs. Flood in the federal court, but because of the illness of the judge before whom the hearing was to take place, the trial was set for a late date. Mr. Coshov will return to San Francisco in the near future to argue the case.

WATER BAD, CONTINUE TO BOIL ALL THAT USED

City Health Officer Dr. B. R. Shoemaker states this afternoon that he has received complete reports from Portland relative to the samples of water sent there for analysis. The chemists did not discover typhoid, but they did find that the water was in a bad state, and until the filtering machine is installed Dr. Shoemaker again urges that everybody throughout the city be sure and use only boiled water for drinking purposes. The health officer also states that so far the real source of typhoid infection here has not yet been discovered.

CITY AUTHORITIES TO REPAIR SEWER

An order signed by A. F. Sether, Isabel P. Whitney, Marion K. Smith and J. D. Stewart, in which the city of Roseburg is authorized to repair a leak in the private sewer on the property of the above named and charge the same to them, has been presented to the city recorder. This is the sewer trouble which was reported to the city council at the meeting last Monday night.

THIRD OREGON VISITS STATE FAIR ENROUTE

(By Associated Press.)
SALEM, Or., Sept. 24.—Governor Withycombe will welcome the members of the 3rd Oregon regiment who plan to stop here a half hour this afternoon enroute from Clackamas to the south. The troops will presumably drill at the state fair grounds before re-entraining. Mayor Baker, of Portland, visited the regiment this morning at Clackamas to bid the troops farewell before they started southward.

SALE OF INDIAN LANDS WAS MADE TODAY

The sealed bids for the sale of Indian lands were opened today at two o'clock in the local Indian agency in the Perkins building. Over $5000 worth of land was disposed of. The land is situated in Lane county, Ore., and Lassen and Shasta counties, Calif., and is considered valuable property. A number of bidders were present at the opening of the bids.

WOULD HAVE LUMBER UNDER 8-HOUR LAW

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Senator Jones, of Washington, today introduced a bill providing for the placing of lumber manufacture on the eight hour basis. The measure was referred to the commerce committee. The bill, if enacted, will prohibit interstate shipment of lumber products upon which had been labor of over eight hours a day.

UNIONS IN SEATTLE IN CONFERENCE TODAY

(By Associated Press.)
SEATTLE, Sept. 24.—Representatives of all the unions whose members are in any way identified with ship building, are holding a conference here today. It is expected that they will draft a personal appeal to President Wilson, asking him to settle the eight hour lumber strike in Washington at the same scale as metal workers now get.

THE RUSSIANS GET BUSY ONCE MORE

(By Associated Press.)
PETROGRAD, Sept. 24.—Russian forces at the Riga front took the offensive yesterday, and after a fierce struggle drove the German troops from their advance positions in the Silzens sector according to official reports received here.

DELIVERS IMPRESSIVE SERMON

Oregonian: Rev. E. Olin Eldridge, pastor of the Mount Tabor Methodist Episcopal church, last night delivered an impressive sermon, in which he dealt with the opportunities of the people of the United States today as compared to the people of Europe. He took as his subject "Our Day," and his text from the gospel of Luke, 9:44.

He told of the kindly feeling which the other grief-stricken nations of the world must have for this country, which he termed the dollar nation of the world because of our love for humanity and the millions of dollars which we can furnish without any assurance of reckoning.

Live-wire Doings of City

Lost His Real Estate Sign.

W. J. Tester lost his real estate sign yesterday during the visit of one of the troop trains. Some of the boys were bent on getting hold of anything that was loose and some things that were not loose, to tack to their car, and appropriated Mr. Tester's sign.

Search Warrant Issued.

Marshal Church, supplied with a search warrant, visited West Roseburg late Saturday, it having been alleged that an old soldier had lost a quilt and that he suspected the guilty party. A search of the premises was made where it was supposed the quilt was located but it was not found. Finally, on further looking into the matter the marshal found that the missing article had never been removed from the party's home who caused the warrant to be issued, and the matter ended abruptly.
