In the matter of the Estate of James Bull, Sr., deceased.

To Manley M. Strawn, Greeting: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Douglas, in the court room thereof, at Roseburg, in the County of Douglas, on Thursday, the 18th day of October, 1917 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be removed as administrator of the above entitled estate.

Witness, The Hon. R. W. Marsters, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Douglas, with the seal of the said court affixed this 24th day of September, A. D., 1917.

RULING ON APPLICATION FOR ADDITIONAL HOMESTEAD ENTRY

The general land office, department of the interior, has made the following ruling:

United States Land Offices: Sirs: By decision rendered May 8, 1917, in the case of Timothy Sullivan, guardian of Juanita Eisenpeter, the secretary of interior overruled cases of Lillie E. Seifling, 39 L. D., the department's decisions in the 246; Susan A. Davis, 40 L. D., 573, and Bertha M. Birkland, 45 L. D., 104, in which it has been held that under certain circumstances the widow or heirs of a homestead entryman might make entry, under the enlarged homestead act, additional to that made by him. This overruled also the decision in Samuel T. B. Himes, 43 L. D., 388, wherein it had been held that the widow or heirs might make additional entry under section 2 of the act of April 28, 1904 (33 Stat., 527). Following the said construction of the law, you are instructed:

1. You will reject, subject to the usual right of appeal, all applications filed by the widow, heirs, or devisee of a homesteader to make entry additional to his claim. This order will govern your action not only on applications hereafter filed but on those which are now pending in your office, and it applies to applications under the stock-raising homestead law as well as to those under the acts above referred to. The circular of January 21, 1917, issued under said law, as amended by the circular of March 23, 1917, is modified accordingly.

2. Additional entries heretofore allowed in accordance with the prior rulings will be submitted to the board of equitable adjudication for consideration, if they shall first have been perfected by the submission of final proof. Therefore, you will not reject proofs upon such additional entries on the sole ground that they were improperly allowed.

Very respectfully, CLAY TALLMAN, Commissioner.

Approved, ALEXANDER T. VOGELSONG, First Assistant Secretary.

MISS LEONE COSHOW ENTERTAINED SATURDAY

In honor of the Laffolot club members and several invited guests, Miss Leone Coshow delightedly entertained on Saturday evening at her home on East Lane street. The guests assembled at an early hour and from the time of arrival until the good nights were said not an idle moment was allowed. A special attraction during the evening was over the ever fascinating "Squee Gee" board. The board, which is an example of the "mysterious" when asked a number of questions replied in such an amazingly authentic manner that many young folk are still wondering if the "Squee Gee" is not possessed of "spooks".

Ukelele and mandolin solos and quartettes, stunts, selections from grand opera on the ever popular Edison. In fact, to be exact, the music varied from the "sublime to the ridiculous"—from "grand opera to jazz" and each selection was equally enjoyed.

At an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served and jolly repartee enjoyed. Miss Leone Coshow, the hostess leaves Saturday for O. A. C., where she will attend college during the winter and the delightful affair was an inspiration for "farewells" and "auf weidersehen".

Those attending the affair were Misses Elma Payton, Lucile French, Clara Patrick, Mattie Lee Stephenson, Katherine Devoe, Velma Bates, Florence Wharton, Beulah Jarvis, Evelyn Walker, of Brownsville, a house guest of Miss Elma Payton, Clyde Black, Maxine Sykes, Leah Sykes, Rhea Sykes, May Franzen, of Portland; Maybelle Miller, Madge Miller, Dale Coshow, Mrs. K. H. Picketts and Mr. and Mrs. Coshow.

IDLE WIVES MAKES HIT AT THE ANTLERS

Handkerchiefs were at a premium at the Antlers theatre yesterday while the great drama of life "Idle Wives" was being shown. It's a remarkable picture inasmuch as it faithfully reproduces every phase of life and plainly illustrates the inmost secrets of our everyday conditions. But what is important it gives the solution of the very problem that is vexing mankind today. Probably no other drama has ever been produced which gives such a comprehensive glimpse of humanity, its joys, its sorrows, its light and dark sides as this masterpiece of Lois Weber's and James Oppenheim.

There is an exceptional cast in "Idle Wives" which includes Lois Weber, Philip Snalley, Mary MacLaren, Ben Wilson, Nova Gerber, Maud George, etc. This is a drama with "All Humanity in the Cast."

"Idle Wives" will be shown for the last time tonight at the Antlers theatre.

Lester Blakely, of Glide, was a Roseburg visitor today.
