California Visitor Leaves.

Miss Mae Franzen, of Los Angeles, California, who has been visiting with her uncle, O. P. Coshow, a prominent attorney of this city, left this morning for Cottage Grove after a delightful week spent here.

Lane Farmer Here.

J. G. Hollis, formerly of this city, but who is farming the Rice ranch near Goshen, Lane county, arrived in the city last evening. Mr. Hollis has interests here which require his personal attention, and expects to return north tomorrow.

Railroad Necessary.

O. H. Ohlsen, of Olalla, came to town during the mid-week with a load of wheat, returning to his home yesterday. It requires two days to make the trip with a load from Olalla, but with lack of railroad facilities in that fertile section, it is the only way for ranchers to get their products to market. That Roseburg-Coos Bay railroad, which has been dreamed of these years past, would revolutionize the farming industry of Douglas county and start something really worth while in a commercial way.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAM RENDERED AT SCHOOL

The new baby grand piano, which was recently purchased through C. S. Ed. Wine, the local agent and present school high school by the Roseburg school board, was given its initiation program, a delightfully pleasing program had been thought of. Prof. B. Superintendent of the high school gave an interesting talk on education and the importance of well organized student body. He stated that before the nineteenth century, religion was the upper thought in education, then came the intellectual age and now is the age of social efficiency. Mr. Bennett declared that book education is an excellent thing if one knows how to use it and that it is necessary to have it in the social world. He then stated that to have a good school one must have a student body that is in unity.

A few of the more important activities which might come under the organization are the literary society, debating club, dramatic club, athletic organization and school paper. Mr. Bennett concluded his address by saying that he hoped that the Roseburg high school would develop a strong student body. Following the speech, the first verse of the Star Spangled Banner was sung by the entire school. Miss Bernice Kinser, the musical instructor, then rendered two delightful songs in her charming manner, entitled, "Spirit Flower," and "On the Shore." Miss Kinser was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Chas. S. Heitline.

MAKES CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT WITH

THE OREGON FARMER

Offers Unusual Opportunity To Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruit-grower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber of THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.

THE BARRIER HIGHLY PRAISED BY CENSORS

"The Barrier," Rex Beach's famous photoplay from his novel, begins its engagement at the Antlers theatre next Monday. It is evident that the statement made by the national board of censors, that they could not suggest a single change in picture or titles and that they recommend "The Barrier" highly as a play for young persons and children, has had its effect in other cities where every performance, particularly the matinees, have been well patronized by young folks.

"The Barrier" has developed at least four stars, Miss Mabel Julienne Scott, who so admirably portrays the dual roles of Merridyl and Neela; Mitchell Lewis, whose "Poison is Mansfieldian in its charm, Edward Roseman, whose villain is all that could be desired by the most enthusiastic gallery occupant, where villains are made or wrecked, and Russell Simpson, whose portrayal of John Gaylord, the care-free young prospector, who gave his love to the little school teacher, and later as the grizzled store keeper, who gave Neela a father's protection, is a wonderful achievement.

The photoplay version of Rex Beach's thrilling story, strong as are the situations in the book itself, has been accorded the added value of having the author give his personal attention and supervision. Mr. Beach gave his personal supervision to "The Barrier," co-operating fully with Director Edgar Lewis throughout the entire production.
