A NEW Carpet Sweeper

For $2.50 only. Almost as cheap as a good broom. It appears to us to be good value for the money.

And now comes the Orange Juice extractor. A nice heavy piece of glassware for the cook's help. 25c only.

How about a Bean Pot, a good "boiler," good enough to broom oven to table. In several sizes. Which shall we send you?

Do you keep a roll of waxed paper on hand. Just the thing for lunches or anything you wish to wrap to keep from drying or roll.

Remember We Are Headquarters for the "Mystic Mitt" the great dish washer helper. The biggest bottle the market ever saw.

Fill your sockets with new Precision Mazda lamps. Remember an old lamp gives less light for current consumed. When the light begins to darken replace with a new one. It will pay you. Have you tried the "Nitrogen" Mazda? The best yet.

TWO LIVES SNAPPED OUT IN AUTO WRECK

(By Associated Press.) LANS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—The bodies of Dr. Francis Patten, a Pasadena dentist, and Mrs. Chas. Jordan were found in a wrecked automobile at the outskirts of this city this morning. It is believed the car had been struck by a street car. Close by the machine lay Charles Jordan and Miss Margaret King, the latter a nurse attending to the state of Washington, both of whom are seriously injured.

GRANTS PASS FIRST TO FILL ITS QUOTA

(By Associated Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Grants Pass Ore.—came to the front with its quota for the new war company presentation fund yesterday being the first in the state to pay in the share of money toward this fund. It is also announced that Grants Pass recently put the county in the collection of the army library fund. James Wash, filled its quota of 100 shares, making a total of 100 shares for the county.

JACKSON STREET.

Gay Black arrived in this city this morning from Montana where he has been spending the past several months. Mr. Black will remain in this city for two weeks visiting with his wife.

In an article published in The News yesterday concerning the marriage of Miss Grace Taylor, a former Roseburg girl, a mistake was made in the woman's name. A. J. Calvin is correct instead of A. J. Collins.

Mrs. Chas. Greenman, widow of the late Charles Greenman, today received a check for $2,000 from the Oregon Life Insurance Company, through their local agent, T. A. Rarick, which amount was carried on his life in the above company. Proof of death of Mr. Greenman was sent to Portland yesterday by the local agent and today the full amount of the insurance was received.

Elbert Jones, son of County Clerk Ed. Jones, who has been employed in the postoffice in this city for several months resigned and left here this morning for Coquille, Ore., where he has accepted a position in the county clerk's office of that place. Mrs. Jones will follow her husband about the first of November and the young couple will make their future home there. Their best friends in this city join in wishing them the best of luck in their new location.
