BIBLE AND THE WORLD WAR

The present drive of the American Bible Society for funds for military soldiers, brings to us very much the question as to the significance and value of the Bible in the great war. The society and the churches are doing their best to hold an advanced position, but it is difficult to see exactly what they are doing.

Some things have been said which are not appropriate, such as the idea of salvation through the army, or that the soldiers are the chosen people.

It is known the problem of America and the world is not between two warring nations, but between principles, on one side, authority, oppression, cruelty, greed for power, violation of justice, desecration of all that is dear to manhood and womanhood, on the other, liberty, democracy, freedom, exertion of home, and of individual life worthwhile. It is not difficult, in spite of all the misinterpretations of the Bible, to see on which side the Bible stands. It is not a question as to whether a man can be a Christian in the army. He can and there are thousands of them. Neither is it a question as to whether a man in this free Christian country, entering countless benefits of which the Bible has been the inspiration, can be a Christian and a soldier. He cannot do both emphatically.

So the boys need the Bible no more than they do any other, for they are not in the army, but because they are worse than they are when they were at home, but because they are meeting greater tests than they could have met at home, and their need of external support is therefore a thousandfold.

The government provides for their Red Cross for their comfort, and the Bible Society is caring for their high life; that nothing be lacking.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. will be greatly strengthened if there is Testament in the hands of each soldier, and that organization has heartily endorsed the movement. The local campaign is proving very successful, and every effort is being made to help, at least in the event of proved the one end.

Our own happenings in the service upon which falls the burden of fighting the war, but to us will be long the high honor of helping all along in this cause. This is something.

It is remarkable how something to keep him from the spirit of giving done true in a sense, but may see him relate to the purpose of a trifling myth.

The average reader certainly knows just about where he stands in this time in reference to whether or not Douglas county should have postally a new court house and jail. If the improvement goes ahead, it is an other step toward progress and will keep in keeping with the line of advancement encouraged by every person in our community in the state. It is a fact that another town is in the west. It will possibly be a long time before the county will care to entirely abandon us, but we have attempted these improvements. However, if the neighbors would take power, such as the several other states, in holding an advanced position, something that is to be said at this time, sufficient, and it is believed that the neighbors would not care to do this. We believe them to be right, and we are anxious to let them do what they think is best.

Motions were made and carried that we not appropriate any amount of satisfaction for the present, waiting for a suitable committee that can gather together from time to time when weather allows to go forward and possibly expand our campaign. This is an important movement and we expect great cooperation and the neighbors will be quite able to help in this. The neighbors are right, and we believe
is best.
