To Visit Corvallis.
Ethel Patrick, formerly employed as stenographer at the offices of Attorney B. L. Eddy, left this morning for Corvallis where she will visit with Helen Layton, of Grants Pass, at the Delta Elfa fraternity house. Miss Patrick will remain at Corvallis for a week and will then continue to Portland for a short stay, returning here in about two weeks to accept a position in the tax collector's office.

Fullerton School Meeting.
There will be a meeting of the Fullerton Parent-Teacher Association at the west side school this evening at 7:30. In addition to business matters coming before the association, an interesting program will be given by the children of the different rooms. County Superintendent O. C. Brown is also scheduled to speak to the youngsters on conservation, vacant lot and back yard gardening, with a view of adding to the food product of the county, state and nation. It is a foregone conclusion that all of these various means of increasing food supplies must be utilized if the public is to be kept away from government rationing, and so all will be urged to plow, plant and reap for the general good. At the conclusion of the ex-

Mothers of Oregon Prepare for Trouble!
When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman becomes a mother, and when a woman passes through the changes of middle life, are the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and distress often caused by severe organic disturbances. Many thousands along the Pacific Coast would testify just as do the following:

MONROE, OREGON.—"I am certainly glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I think it is a God-send to womankind. During expectancy I was, oh, so sick with that terrible morning sickness. I was so bad that I just could not eat one thing. I commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and I was relieved at once--no more nausea, no headaches, no backache, and I got through so well."—Mrs. W. T. Pockhaus, Care McCready Camp.

SORELLA, OREGON.—"I have suffered everything during expectancy but the last time I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I never missed a meal and had comparatively no suffering. I would surely recommend the 'Prescription' to all prospective mothers and, also, for young girls coming into womanhood. A friend is taking this medicine now as I advised her to and she is improving fast. One would not know she was the same woman."—Mrs. H. E. Gibson.

LOSS OF THRIFT STAMPS.
Q. If I lose some detached thrift stamps, can I get my money back?
A. No. These stamps are of value to the bearer, just as postage stamps are.
Q. If I lose my thrift card what can I do?
A. Be sure to put your name and address on the thrift card, so that if the finder drops it in any postoffice box without postage it may be returned to you.
Q. Is an unattached war savings stamp of value to anyone who finds it?
A. Yes. For this reason you should attach it to your war savings certificate at the time of purchase. You should write across the face of the stamp your name and the number of your certificate.
Q. If a registered war savings certificate is lost or destroyed, what should I do?
A. If it is not returned to you within a reasonable time, report it to your postmaster where you had the certificate registered.
Q. How do I get my money back if my registered war savings certificate is lost?
A. By applying to the postoffice where you registered it.

ercises light refreshments will be served. All children and their parents are urged to be present.

Will Go to Camp Lewis.
Leon R. Boggs, who was arrested at Reedsport some time ago, charged with being a slacker and who was brought to this city by Deputy Sheriff Otto Weaver, still languishes in the county jail waiting mobilization papers from Madera, Calif. The young man, it now appears is a victim of circumstances for which he is not held to blame by the officers here, and all charges against the man has proven that he desires to enter the service of Uncle Sam, will shortly be dismissed. As soon as the necessary credentials have been received he will be sent to Camp Lewis to take up his military duties.

Examinations to Be Held.
The United States civil service commission announces that examinations for stenographer and typewriter, field service, will be held throughout the 11th district on January 19, February 1 and February 16. Thousands of appointments are being made from the stenographer and typewriter registers for the government service at entrance salaries of from $1000 to $1200 per annum. All persons who are qualified in stenography and type writing should at once apply to Hubert F. Ward, secretary, eleventh civil service district, 303 Postoffice bldg., Seattle, Wash., for application blanks and full information.

"GREAT THINGS BEING DONE."

Editor News:
So often we read "Great things are being done in Washington now," but are they? Many things are being done there, but any that are great remain undiscovered. In fact it is becoming apparent to the thoughtful American that the weak point in the allies' line is not in France or Belgium or in Italy, but "somewhere in Washington, D. C., U. S. A."

The government is active and tremendously so but mere activity isn't enough. In Ben Hur the horses of the chariots run like mad but they are on a sort of a tread-mill track and never leave the sight of the audience. We fear there are too many tread-mills in Washington.

When department and bureau heads calmly admit the lack of real progress, when they confess that the old round-about red tape methods are followed, that days are consumed in the mere transmission of communications between officials of various hair-splitting degrees, that friends of the family are interested in contracts, that millions have been advanced to ship builders existing only on paper, the simple minded American citizen wonders what our allies must think of us and becomes somewhat agitated about ever winning the war.

For several years this country faced an almost certain war. Every man not hopelessly tied to the democratic party or afraid or "too proud" to fight, knew it was a hundred to one bet we would sooner or later be dragged into the fight. Ambassador Gerard knew it would come later on even if not in the present war and cabinet officers have revealed the possession of like knowledge prior to the last national election, yet nothing was done. No rifles were made, nor was even a design of a rifle decided on. No war ships nor any air ships were built, no troops were added to the army nor was the navy recruited up to any extent. Even when war knocked at our doors with the destruction of the Lusitania the government slumbered peacefully on, "too proud to fight." Today, after being openly, admittedly and declaredly at war for eight months, we haven't enough shoes or overcoats for the men drafted. In truth, if we must resort to the common vernacular, there aren't enough common, ordinary American "pants" to keep the recruits decently clothed. Various appointees have selected various types of ships to be made and have then been fired, meanwhile few or no ships being turned out. The navy's airship department has been so slow that its head admitted to the congressional investigating committee that he was ashamed to mention the small number made.

Colonel House, the adviser in chief of the president, the people and the allies, now unkindly informs all concerned that the war must be won this year, and won by America, if at all. Will this declaration awaken our one-man government to the necessities of the hour? Will red tape be cut, unaccuracy destroyed, incompetent department heads removed, strong men appointed to a coalition cabinet, labor made to work, and the entire organization speeded up to something near its real capacity?

It can be done for the American people are capable of it and anxious to do it if properly encouraged and directed, but they are inefficient at present because inefficiently led. X

STEBINGER BROS. TO LEAVE.

In concluding our work in this city in connection with the erection of the federal building and the hospital at the soldiers' home, we desire to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of the treatment received in our dealings with the various members of your business community. In the construction of the federal building we have done our utmost to comply fully with the true intent and requirements of the plans and specifications, and during the course of the work we have labored to the end that the completed building might be a credit to your city and to ourselves. If we have succeeded, and in all modesty we feel we have, credit is due those who have assisted us in our work.

During the course of our experience in general contracting, we have never received more courteous treatment from a bank than that experienced in connection with our transactions with the Umpqua Valley Bank. Sterling character and fair dealing are the standards of their board of directors and their business transactions.

Full credit is due the J. G. Flook Co., W. L. Dysinger, owner, for the care exercised in turning out the mill work for the federal building. His work is fully within the requirements of the specifications. Roseburg should take pride in the knowledge that she has a firm capable of fabricating such work as is done by Mr. Dysinger.

We regret to leave your city. STEBINGER BROS.
