Co-Respondent

Why does everybody like the story of The Co-Respondent? Because it's a truly great and sweet love story. Because it's a noble romance of today—packed full of today's tremendous temptations, dangers, crisis, thrills, excitements. Because from the first to last superbly intense, a live wire play whose electric tension keeps building up and up and UP till you want to scream. It's your own fault if you miss this treat.

STATE ENGINEERS APPROVE PROJECT

(By Associated Press.)
SALEM, Jan. 23.—Plans for drainage and irrigation of the Big Bend irrigation district, covering over 5000 acres in Malheur county, were approved by the state engineers. This project also includes the reclamation of 9,000 acres adjoining in Idaho.

TRUSTY COOK FLIES THE PEN BY NIGHT

(By Associated Press.)
SALEM, Jan. 23.—Ferrill Pope, trusty and cook in Warden Murphy's home, took his leave of the penitentiary last night. He was sent up from Malheur county for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Live-wire Doings of City

Team to Go South.
The Roseburg high school basketball teams leave soon for southern Oregon where they will participate in several games with Medford, Ashland and Grants High, and if successful, will come back with their share of the laurels.

Birthday Party Held.
Saturday evening the R. A. E. club very pleasantly surprised Mrs. Henry Worthington at her home on East Lane street, the occasion being in honor of Mrs. Worthington's birthday. An old-fashioned taffy social, social converse and other entertaining features made the occasion a very pleasant one for all present.

Lodge Presents Gift.
A beautiful wedding gift was presented to Mrs. Gerard Pearce (nee Nannie Rose) by Oregon Rose lodge B. of L. F. E., of which she is a member. Her smiles of appreciation proved she was both surprised and pleased. The best wishes of the entire lodge are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Pearce for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Highway Engineers Here.
District Highway Engineer McLeod and Resident Engineer Pratt, the latter supervising engineer of the construction work now under way in units Nos. 2 and 3, in the northern part of the county were in the city today conferring with members of the county court. Both men left late this afternoon for points north on official business.

Expect Sons Home.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gage are expecting their sons, Gordon and Waldon, home from Mare Island on a furlough. Waldon Gage will be granted a furlough to have dental work done and application for his brother has been placed and will probably be arranged. They enlisted in the navy from the Marshfield office a few months ago.—Coos Bay Times.

Visits Schools.
County School Superintendent O. C. Brown, who accompanied Miss Alice Joyce in her recent visits to the schools at Oakland, Sutherlin, Wilbur and other points in the northern part of the county, returned to this city last night. According to Mr. Brown, live industrial club organizations were perfected in the schools visited and the pupils seem very enthusiastic along these lines. Miss Joyce will speak at Yoncalla tonight and tomorrow night at Drain.

BIG DRIVE IS ON.
SEATTLE, Jan. 22.—This is a week of women's service for women throughout the Pacific northwest. In every city and town of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana they are conducting a big drive to raise this section's share of the $4,000,000 fund required by the national war work council of the Young Women's Christian Association to strengthen and hold strong America's and Europe's second line of defense—the girls and women who are either engaged in war activities or are affected by the struggle.
The $4,000,000 will be spent for hostess houses, in and near army camps, fifty of which are either already built or contracted for, where wives, mothers, sisters and friends may meet their soldier and where the latter may find a bit of home within the cantonment; for emergency housing of girls employed in war and unaccustomed industries; for work among the helpless and war worn munitions workers of Europe and the heroic nurses in the base hospitals; for directing the patriotic impulses of girls through club work, recreation and other activities; for building up patriotism and an understanding of war issues among non-English speaking women and in general to keep the moral standards of our nation and allied nations steady, as well as to build up the morale of the American army.
