MR. PEARCY SAYS CROP OUTLOOK GOOD

According to County Fruit Inspector Earl Percy, a quantity of nursery stock has been shipped into this section of late, the major portion of which consists of petite prune trees.

crop this season is very good," said Mr. Percy, who has been over the county of late. "Many growers are spraying for peach leaf curl and with favorable weather conditions the prospects for a bumper crop this season are quite promising."

Prof. Brown, an expert from the Oregon Agricultural College, is to visit this section during the spraying season and at several different orchards will demonstrate the control of brown rot and other diseases susceptible to fruit trees.

HILLYER JURY ARE UNABLE TO AGREE

After Two Hours of Deliberation the Jurors Stand Three to Three.

NEW TRIAL NOT SET

Mrs. Hillyer, Motion Picture Actress, to Act As Own Attorney Should Case Come Up For Rehearing.

The jury drawn to hear the case of the Douglas County Creditors Association vs. Mrs. Maude E. Hillyer, a money action wherein the plaintiffs acting for the real estate firm of Rice & Rice, sought to collect the sum of $125.00 alleged to be due as a commission for the sale of the Bluejay ranch, after two hours of deliberation disagreed, breaking even—three to three.

The action is wound around an uncompleted sale of property which the defendant entered into a contract to purchase from Omar Amel, through Rice & Rice and in consideration of the sum of $2,600.

Mrs. Hillyer, a motion picture actress, college graduate and somewhat of a clever linguist, testifying from the witness stand yesterday afternoon in well chosen English stated that she placed explicit faith in the judgment of Napoleon Rice, he being mayor of the city, and upon his recommendation paid over $600 as a first payment on the property in question and later gave her note in the sum of $125 to cover the real estate firm's commission. Not long after this, according to Mrs. Hillyer, she discovered that she would be unable to get a clear title to the place, owing to the fact that Mr. Amel was only the owner of an undivided half interest in the property, the other half belonging to a party in Norway, who refused to sign a conveyance and as a result of this disclosure she refused payment of the note when it matured.

Mrs. Hillyer told of there being no water on the place and that when water was needed it had to be carried from a neighboring stream. According to her story of the affair, she was informed that there was a spring on the ranch that supplied water on the year round. "When the rains ceased," remarked the witness, "so did the spring."

At the conclusion of this testimony, Mr. Rice took the stand and upon direct examination denied most of the accusations as set forth by the defendant. Mr. Rice, however, stated that he did remember of Mrs. Hillyer saying that she placed faith in his judgment regarding the ranch, but Mr. Rice contends that he informed her that if she intended to make a living on the place, thought the price a little high. During this conference, Mrs. Hillyer is alleged to have stated that she wanted a place where she could erect a log bungalow, surrounded by scenic beauty, etc. "I knew of no other property that would answer," said Mr. Rice, "and therefore took the defendant to view the ranch which seemed to meet the requirements."

Attorney O. P. Coshov, counsel for the plaintiff, in his opening argument to the jury, set the case before them quite briefly. Among other things Mr. Coshov stated that the case at issue had nothing whatever to do with the sale of the ranch, pointing out that it was merely with the note that a question was to be decided.

Attorney John T. Long, for the defense, expounded the law covering such cases and stated that he was exceedingly sorry that the action could not be tried in the circuit court where it would be possible for the magistrate to quote the law in instructing the jurors. "In that event," the attorney announced strenuously, "there would be no question about the outcome of the case."

The action finally reached the jury shortly before 5 p. m. and two hours later, after taking many ballots, it was found impossible to reach a verdict and the jurymen were excused.

While no motion has been made for a new trial, it is understood that a new jury will be drawn and the action re-tried in the near future. In event that the case does come up for rehearing, the rumor was rife today that Mrs. Hillyer would "Rampify" and act as her own attorney in presenting the case.

EFFORTS TO SAVE LAND TITLE FOR THE STATE

(By Associated Press.) SALEM, Feb. 15.—Governor Withycombe has requested Attorney General Brown, District Attorney Geo. Neuner, of Douglas county, and the district attorney of Coos county to assemble data showing that Oregon has not been remiss regarding the Coos Bay Wagon Road grant. All of the data so obtained will be forwarded to the public lands committee of congress. This action has been taken in order to further protect Oregon's interest in these lands, as there is a plan on foot to have them forfeited to the government, in which event the state will lose rights to valuable properties.

Oswald West Will Aid. In connection with the effort of the state to secure title to the Coos Bay Wagon Road lands, Oswald West, former governor of Oregon, now in Washington, wired County Judge Marsters today of his co-operation in this important matter, saying: "I will be pleased to look after the Coos Bay wagon road bill for you. The bill appears to have gotten a poor start, and is in danger of being killed or amended to our disadvantage. However, I will learn the true situation and keep you advised."

Live-wire Doings of City

Starmer Injured. Sam Starmer, a well known Southern Pacific brakeman, broke his knee cap in an accident at Medford Monday, says the Glendale News. He is on a local freight run between Ashland and Grants Pass, and in making a run to catch a car while switching, he fell to the ground, breaking the knee cap. He was immediately placed under the care of a physician at Medford.

Moves to Salem. New residents being welcomed to Salem are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell, who have been making their home near Roseburg for the past five years. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will be domiciled at 120 Meyers street for the winter. Spending a few months with them is their daughter-in-law, Mrs. T. O. Campbell, formerly of San Francisco.—Salem Statesman.

Redfield Still Missing. Joe Redfield, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Redfield, of this city, and who was on the torpedoed Tuscania, is still missing, says the Glendale News. He has not been reported among the dead and as there are several Oregon boys still unaccounted for, the many friends of the Redfield family are hopeful that he will yet be found among the survivors. Meanwhile, the suspense is almost unbearable, and has cast a gloom over the entire community.

Mining Man Here. J. O. Anderson, the expert miner who has had charge of the cinabar properties at Elkhead during the last year, was in town yesterday and today. Mr. Anderson says that he has uncovered another ledge of the ore and that it is by far richer than anything yet found in the workings. The company owning the mine is endeavoring to sell sufficient treasury stock, which is fully paid and non-assessable, to develop the properties. It is desired to increase the plant so that at least 100 tons of ore can be handled daily, as the present equipment is too limited.

THE PROOF AT HAND.

The firm or individual who is content to do just average work is finding their lot bare of roses. They never have scored a pronounced success and never will. Equally bitter is their lot when they promise quality and deliver the reverse. If we had not made our quality of work, and service equal to our promises, and of the highest standard, we would have passed into deserved oblivion years ago.

A trial will convince you. IMPERIAL CLEANERS Try our way. We call and deliver. Phone 277

Your Watch

Do not allow it to run over two years without having it cleaned and overhauled. The tiny balance is making 18000 beats every hour, 157,000,000 beats a year. Such steady and continuous running will surely wear some of the delicate little parts unless they are cleaned and well oiled, or there may be a cracked jewel that is cutting the pivots which will in a short time ruin your watch.

So you had better drop in to your jeweler and have it examined, but do not under any circumstances allow it to run more than two years without cleaning.

Be good to it and it will never wear out. We are well prepared to handle your watch repairs, and they will be given our best and most careful attention.

L. B. SANDBLAST RETURNS FROM PORTLAND

Attorney L. B. Sandblast, of this city, who recently passed the examination in Portland for service in the aviation corps of the U. S. army, returned from Portland last evening where he filed a petition a few days ago for the commission of second lieutenant in the flying division of the aviation corps. This act on the part of Attorney Sandblast automatically places him in the 5th class for the draft. Attorney Sandblast declared today that it will be several months before he will be called for duty. However, he is positive that he will be sent to the officer's training school at Berkeley, Calif. In the meantime he will continue his practice in this city until called.

ASHLAND BASKETBALL TEAM ARRIVES HERE

Members of the Ashland basketball team arrived this afternoon and will contest with the local boys tonight in one of the fastest games of the season. The Roseburg boys were victorious over their southern Oregon opponents a few weeks ago and it is thought that the game tonight will be worth attending. Ashland is after Coach Heidenreich's "goat" and the students of the R. H. S. are going to see that it is kept in the city of roses. A large attendance is anticipated tonight and it is the duty of every loyal Roseburger to patronize the game and boost for the home team.
