FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1918.

FOR THE GENERAL WELFARE.

Last year the people of Oregon, after a spirited campaign, decided to issue $6,000,000 in bonds for state roads, built in conjunction with the counties. It appears to some of our esteemed citizens to be quite a large sum. To others it seemed little enough, says the Portland Oregonian.

Truth is that the people of Oregon as a whole have had difficulty in grasping the fact that roads are not a mere local investment or community improvement, but an essential factor in the life and development of the state.

Of course, there are roads everywhere, and any scheme of building or rebuilding them in all directions is out of the question. Most of them will serve present needs and even the growing war needs.

The state highway commission, with patriotic vision, recently announced that for the period of the war it would confine its service to completion of contracts under way and to the Pacific highway and the Columbia river highway.

With a few weeks of the present prevailing fine weather, spring planting will be the daily program of the thrifty farmer in this community.

WHAT WOMEN WILL ACQUIRE.

Edna Ferber says in an article called "The Joy of the Job," which is printed in the March American Magazine:

And right here I want to sound a note of warning to the erstwhile idler. Of all the habits in the world, the habit of work is the most insidious and tenacious. Once acquired, it is almost impossible to shake off.

When the war is over, and the world is sane again, and order begins to come out of chaos, the whole feminine world will be found to have acquired a job. It will have been gained at a terrific price.

When Sheriff George K. Quinn, acting in the capacity of expert witness at the recent bootlegging trial, was called upon to attest to the genuineness of the contents of numerous and sundry bottles, so it is alleged by various individuals who witnessed the harrowing scene, there was a vague, far-away looking backward glint in the eyes of each juror.

Quite a large proportion of young men set out deliberately to do barely enough to satisfy their employer—in fact, many of them would feel happy to do as little as they can and still satisfy their employer, remarks a magazine writer.

Quite a large proportion of young men set out deliberately to do barely enough to satisfy their employer—in fact, many of them would feel happy to do as little as they can and still satisfy their employer, remarks a magazine writer.

A sample of German atrocities practiced across the water was brought to light in the circuit court today.

March having come in like a gentle lamb, we may expect a thunderous roar as she makes her exit.

February being a short month naturally has made some of its fellows feel a little short on March 1.

It's a hard job to land a bootlegger—even after you get him "well hooked."

Some spring day for the spring drive.

UNCLE SAM STRONG ON 1918 BEAN CROP

Too many white beans cannot be raised in the United States, so great is the present demand, according to official word from the federal food administration. Oregon can do its bit in the production of beans, says Assistant Food Administrator W. K. Newell.

The army and navy alone can use a great amount of the beans, and the product can bring better than 9 to 9 1/2 cents a pound, says the communication from the food authorities.

Oregon contributes but one per cent of the total bean production of the country, it is said, but the administration wants that one per cent to help out the general situation.

Up to the present some 300 tons of beans raised in Oregon last year have been shipped out of the state. A survey of the state made recently by one of the large wholesale grocery firms of Portland shows that there are available about four carloads at Eugene, three car loads at McMinnville and one at Medford.

Beans valued at $2,000,000, which are either on their way from Japan to this country or are stored in warehouses at San Francisco, have been commandeered by the government.

The shipments were seized before they were sold.

PRUNE TREES WELL CARED FOR SAYS PEARCY

The average prune orchard of Douglas county is well cared for, stated Earl Percy, fruit inspector, on his return from the southern part of the county yesterday. The growers realize that the trees respond to good pruning, thorough spraying and careful cultivation.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS.

Any person owning or harboring a dog or dogs within the city of Roseburg is hereby formally notified to obtain a license from the city treasurer therefor at once; that from and after March 1st, 1918, any person so owning or harboring any such dog or dogs will be summarily arrested and brought before the city recorder.

FARM LABOR SCARCE IN FOREIGN CLIMES

A scarcity of farm labor is not confined to Douglas county alone, if a letter from Nicaragua, Central America, to Earl Percy, of this city, is to be believed. The writer states that the natives will work but three or four days a week and if nature gives them a good crop they are contented to spend all their time matching their game cocks.

MONDAY IS BARGAIN DAY.

FARMERS URGED TO DOUBLE YIELD

SALEM, Or., Feb. 28.—Oregon should double its crop production this year, said Governor Withycombe today in urging the people to plant every acre of tillable land.

NEIGHBORHOOD PARTY AT THE HAGAR HOME

A neighborhood party was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chas. Hagar, on Deer creek, the event being in honor of Miss Mabel Gladwell, of that vicinity, who is soon to become the bride of Harry Garland, of Tillamook, Ore. Knitting, sewing and social converse occupied the afternoon in a pleasant manner, including several musical numbers by Miss Mabel Boyer and Mrs. Chas. Hagar, a dainty lunch being served before the guests departed.

CAID OF THANKS.

To the many friends and neighbors at Wilbur and Roseburg who hastened to comfort and console us in our recent bereavement, we wish to hereby extend our most sincere gratitude. We especially desire to thank the donors who supplied such quantities of flowers and tokens of esteem for the funeral services, and whose loving ministrations attested their life long esteem of the deceased.

MUST TAKE OUT LICENSE.

According to a bulletin received from Oregon Food Commissioner Ayres, all dealers in flour in the state will be forced to take out licenses before they will be permitted to purchase supplies from the wholesalers. This goes into effect at once, it was stated.

Grocers, bakers, hotels and restaurants using more than three barrels of flour monthly will be required to take out the licenses, as well as other industries, such as macaroni makers who use more than a certain amount monthly.

In addition, arrangements are being made whereby each purchaser of flour from the wholesalers will be required to purchase the required amount of flour substitutes before the flour sale can be made. Bakers will be required to use a certain per cent of substitutes in their bread as in the past.

PUBLIC IS WARNED.

The dirty sponge cloth and filthy press rag have had their day. The worst disease and germ method ever used. They served their purpose until you and the general public became aware of the sanitary methods employed by us, with our Sanitary Clothes Pressing Machine.

Our method is advised by the Highest Medical Authority in the United States. The only one in Douglas County.
