The following appreciative letter from Captain J. A. Buchanan, of the 16th company, was received very recently by a Roseburg lady, and all who have been instrumental in supplying articles for the men will be interested in this grateful acknowledgment of the gifts:

"I want to thank you for the box of tea towels and gun rags sent to me for the 16th company recently. Such things are needed and always very welcome.

"A day or two ago I received from the state Red Cross a supply of sweaters sufficient to supply all men of the 16th company who did not have them, so now all are well supplied in that line. I also received from the Red Cross heavy wool socks, two pairs for each man in the company. Those were also very thankfully received, as they are very necessary articles, both the sweaters and socks, in this damp stormy climate."
