THE GERMAN SPIRIT ALLEGED NOW BROKEN

Mrs. Herman Hillier last evening received the following interesting letter from her brother, J. E. Johnson, a former Marshfield boy, who is serving as a mechanic in company K, 162nd Infantry, says the Marshfield Times:
 "The (deleter by censor) regiment which was in the (deleter by censor) battle with us now. They say the German line is easy to break through and the German spirit is broken. The Hun has about given up hopes now and is anxious for peace.
 "The German prisoners are happy and contented, once they are captured. They would all come over and give themselves up if they were sure that they would be treated like they are. To keep them from deserting to the allies, the German officers have impressed on their minds visions of barbarous and cruel treatment of prisoners of war by the allies, with execution after capture or food allowance compared to a peanut and glass of water twice weekly.
 "They are learning fast now that the allies are treating their prisoners in a kind and humane manner.
 "Everyone here seems to expect peace in the spring and I hope it is so.
 "The censor instead of trying to erase the number of the regiment and the name of the battle they were engaged in cut a piece out of the paper."

A BADGE OF HONOR.

A liberty loan button is a badge of honor. Rightfully obtained, it marks the wearer as one who has performed a distinct, definite service to the country.
 Not all can fight, not all can work directly for the government; but in buying a liberty loan bond, or war savings stamps, every American renders some service to the nation. It has been put within the reach and power of every citizen to aid the United States financially; it is a poor American who withholds support from the government, from our soldiers and sailors fronting death on battlefields and oceans.
 Iron crosses to German soldiers, and diamond orders exchanged between Turkish and German sovereigns may be but the honors of atrocity. But a liberty loan button, simple as it is, signifies a patriotic duty done and is an insignia of honor.

In response to a letter from Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo the postmaster general rules that there is no provision of law under which a bank can send through the mails free of postage notice informing a client that an installment payment on account of liberty loan bonds purchased at the bank is due; that this is a private transaction between the bank and its customer, and it will be illegal to furnish banks with franked cards or envelopes for use in sending such notices.

It is very touching to see the Chinese president wearing the penitential sheet in public, but we really prefer the wearing of soiled linen at home.

The White Guard and the Red Guard are raising the mischief in Finland, but in Germany they have a few extreme specimens of the Blackguard.

As the Berlin papers announce the mysterious death of Grand Duke Nicholas, he must be causing them some trouble.

Whale meat is said to be as nourishing as bread, and another beauty about it is that you don't want nearly as much.

Love making is seldom done in pictures, says Mr. McBride, the art critic. He can't have been to the movies lately.

INTERESTING MEETING OF EVERGREEN GRANGE

Saturday evening, March 9, Evergreen Grange No. 460 held a very interesting and enjoyable meeting at their hall at Glisan, which proves the members use good judgment in the selection of their officers.
 Mrs. Vera DeRoss, the lecturer had an excellent program prepared which was enjoyed by all present and much credit is due Mrs. DeRoss, as each selection rendered was woven with true American patriotism. With such support Uncle Sam is sure to win.
 Besides the 47 members the following invited guests enjoyed the program: Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Wilson, the Misses Maple, Wiley, Alberta Wiley, Velma Wiley, Evelyn Jackson, Myrtle Weatherford, and Messrs. Harland Wiley, George Prowell, Teddy Wiley and Edward Pemberton.
 During the business session Worthy Master R. T. McCulloch selected Wednesday evening March 13 at 8 p. m. for the purpose of brushing up on the rules and regulations of the Grange. Each member is urged to attend this special meeting.

IMPROVEMENT FOR OAK CREEK ROADWAY

In order to establish a new road right of way through the Parrott ranch and the property of Joe Thornton, in the Oak creek section, County Commissioners Ben Nichols and W. E. St. John, accompanied by County Engineer Germond and Eugene Parrott, made a trip to Oak creek yesterday and looked over the proposed new grade. It was stated last evening that the new right of way will be established and work on the improvement undertaken at an early date. The change will cover a distance of two miles or so, and will give the residents of Oak creek and all ranchers living on the North Umpqua above the point of the new grade a much better road to Roseburg.

 M. F. Rice, of Roseburg, was a city visitor last week.
 The Oregon-Idaho mill is running on full time and adds another payroll to our city's assets.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Smith Vaughn have moved to Fernvale, where Mr. Vaughn has employment.
 The funeral of E. J. Thomas drew a large crowd of people to our city, and the sermon by Rev. O. T. Morgan was a gem of sacred oratory. The floral decoration by our Red Cross was very beautiful. The Thomas family has lived in this valley for many years, and they have added much to our prosperity, and have wielded a wide influence for good to all who have lived near them, and all sympathize with them in the loss of their young relative, who had gone into the army service four years ago. To Mrs. S. J. Thomas, the grandmother, who had cared for him since the death of his mother at 7 years, and to the child wife who was so soon to see her brief hour of wedded bliss turn to Dead sea fruit on her hearthstone, all hearts went out in boundless sympathy, and to the other relatives here, we offer sincere condolence. God in his wisdom does not willingly afflict the children of men, and of His purpose we may not know now, but we shall know hereafter, for "He doeth all things well."
