Easy to Fill

You can easily turn a forty-quart can of milk into the lace-high supply can of the New Sharples Suction-feed Separator.

This remarkable machine will skim as clean as 35 turns of the crank a minute at 55 turns. Any other separator would lose a great deal of cream with each varied speed.

THE NEW SHARPLES SUCTION-FEED

Separator will soon pay for itself in cream saved. You can increase the capacity and reduce the time by turning faster. But turned fast or slow, the cream is always of the exact thickness desired.

Come in and let us show you this new machine.

WINNING OF WAR THE FIRST PROBLEM

Hon. Chas. A. Brand, Candidate For Representative Makes Statement.

TELLS WHERE HE STANDS

Says He Thinks the People Have a Right to Know What Can Be Expected of Their Representatives.

Hon. Chas. A. Brand, candidate for re-election to the state legislature at the coming primary election, has the following to say in reference to the aims and principles for which he will stand, and, believing the taxpayers of the county should be apprised of these facts at this time he herewith offers his platform which he will strive to the best of his ability to carry out at the next session of the Oregon legislature:

In announcing his candidacy for re-election to the legislature from Douglas county, Mr. Brand says:

In asking re-election I think that the people have a right to know where I stand on some of the main things that will certainly come before the legislature for consideration. I want no one, not even my intimate friends, to support me unless they believe in the things for which I stand, for if they did my actions could only be a disappointment to them. The following are some of the points:

1. The winning of the war is first. The president of the United States is my president and support of the federal and state governments is my first duty. There are many war problems. One that is sure to come up is employment for returned soldiers, some of them crippled. Adequate provision for the families of soldiers may be another. Party politics has no place in handling these matters.
2. I am in favor of more co-operation between farmers for their benefit and protection. The state should encourage it. But I deprecate every attempt to arouse class prejudice and jealousy or to make a breach between farmer and merchant or between labor and capital. We are all just ordinary men, and mutual understanding rather than mutual suspicion will help us to treat each other like white men and brothers. That is what is needed. Each class of citizens has its own part to do in the work of the American people for democracy.
3. I shall work for a more adequate appropriation for the use of the state lime board in producing cheap lime for the use of the farmers. Douglas county has a great deal of acid soil that needs lime.
4. I favor continuing state road building, but very conservatively till the end of the war, confining the work largely to those projects which the federal government urges as important from a military and preparedness point of view.
5. Shall favor absolute national prohibition and national woman suffrage.
6. I pledge the fullest support to the educational work of the state. In this connection I shall not favor state publication of text books. The best are none too good for our children, and this has not proved to be the way to get the best. Nor is it, in the long run, the cheapest.
7. I shall work for economy without niggardiness. Second rate men are never an economy and adequate salaries are necessary if the state would keep the best men in its various institutions. The work of the state board of horticulture and the experiment station at Corvallis should be generously supported.
8. It is my conviction that the war will be won and peace declared during the term of the next legislature, and that the problems of readjustment following the war will be among the most important things claiming its attention. Oregon's pay rolls have vastly increased during the last year. Our industries are flourishing as never before. The building of wooden ships and cutting airplane timber are largely responsible. But wooden ships are an emergency measure and probably within a year from the signing of the peace treaty their construction will cease. Then how are we going to keep this labor in the state? New industries using Oregon's raw materials, chief of which is lumber, will have to be developed. The legislature cannot solve this problem alone, but neither can it afford for one moment to forget that it is a very serious problem, and in all its reconstruction plans it should avoid ill-considered, experimental legislation which would tend to discourage those who can and ought to develop these new industries. Douglas county itself, with its vast water power and timber resources is a most promising field for development.

If continued in the legislature, then, as Douglas county's representative I shall do my best to fairly represent it in what is likely to be the most important session in the history of the state.

CHARLES A. BRAND.

SOME CENSOR, THIS.

DALLAS, Or., March 13—The banner case of war censoring was revealed here a few days ago, when Mrs. William Kersay received a letter from her son, Frank E. Kersay, a former well known young business man of Dallas, now with the 162nd infantry in France. Every word in the body of the letter had been stricken out by the censor. Only "Dear Mother—Your loving son, Frank," remained of what had evidently been a very interesting letter.

The elder Brandt is a wealthy real estate broker of Chicago, and the boy was sent west with his uncle, C. F. Christenson, a veteran of Pershing's campaign in Mexico, who has been staying in this city for the past seven or eight weeks.

IN THE SPRING

will be the great test of a life and death struggle on the Western front. In the everyday walks of life, it is the spring time that brings ill health. One of the chief reasons why the run-down man finds himself in a bad state of health in March or April, is because he has spent nearly all his hours for the past four or five months panned up within the walls of house, factory or office. It is the reason for our diminished resistance—that is, lack of out-door life, coupled with perhaps over-eating, lack of exercise, insufficient sleep and constipation. In other words, we keep feeding the furnace with food but do not take out the "clinkers," and our fire does not burn brightly. Always keep the liver active.

There is nothing better for health than taking an occasional mild laxative, perhaps once a week; such a one as you can get at any drug store, made up of May-apple, juniper, senna, (sugar-coated), easily taken, which has stood the test of fifty years of approval—namely, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. But for the "Spring Fever," the general run-down condition, the lack of ambition, the "blues," one should take a course of treatment every spring; such a standard tonic as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, now to be had in tablet form in sixty-cent vials. Watch the people g plotting along the street. There's a spring, no vitality. A vitalizing tonic such as this vegetable extract of Dr. Pierce gives you the power to force yourself into action. The brain responds to the new blood in circulation, and thus you're ready to make a fight against stagnation which holds you in bondage. Try it now! Don't wait! To-day is the day to begin. Gain a little "pep," and laugh and live. Vim and vitality are the natural out-putting of a healthy body. It does not spring up in a night. Try this spring tonic, and you gain the courage that comes with good health.
