COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

THE TROTTERS MASQUERADE.

Dancing party for this week has been postponed until next Friday night on account of the school entertainment.

The ladies of St. Joseph's church will sell home cooking and aprons Saturday, March 30, at the old First National Bank building, Jackson street.

County Agriculturist C. J. Hurd, who has been at Drain distributing squirrel poison to farmers and orchardists, is back in the city again today, but will leave for Elkton tomorrow for the purpose of carrying on the extermination work. While at Drain he mixed 20 bushels of the poisoned wheat, which costs the farmers about 20 cents per quart, or approximately one third what the commercial is sold for.

SILVER TEA GIVEN BY RED CROSS UNIT

The ladies of the Riverside Red Cross unit gave a silver tea at the home of Mrs. M. W. Aldrich in Riverside last Saturday. A simple lunch was served and a program rendered. Mrs. Aldrich was chairman of the committee, and her helpers included Mrs. L. Roach, Mrs. Clara Croft and Mrs. A. A. Turnell. The proceeds amounted to $4.80, which will be used by the ladies to purchase bathing and linings for comforters. The program included the following numbers:

- Piano solo.....Convent Echoes Mrs. A. A. Turnell.
 - Piano duet.....Little Fairy Waltz Grace Hyatt and Mrs. Croft.
 - Song duet.....America I Love You Pat Andrus and Allen Hewett.
 - Vocal solo.....The Bluebird Edith Maine, accompanied on piano by Mrs. Croft.
 - Piano solo.....In Rank and File Madge Shields.
 - Reading.....Deacon Brown's Courtship Mrs. A. A. Turnell.
 - Vocal duet.....Harold Cirtus and Edith Maine, Mrs. Croft accompanist.
- Also several vocal selections by Mrs. Pory and Mrs. Hiney.

STEPPING PARTY PROVES DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

The United Artisans stepping party which was given last evening at the Maccabee hall proved to be one of the most delightful informal affairs of the season and every one in attendance declared today that the event was pleasurable beyond measure. The fourteen young aviators, who were guests of honor were delighted with the entertainment afforded them and their appreciation knew no bounds. During the evening the Artisan ladies served ice cream, and it is needless to say as to the patronage of this popular confection. The Honor Guard girls hired the music for the occasion and indeed everyone added their bit to make the evening just brimful of happiness.
