SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1918.

Over the top in one week—a fine record for old Oregon.

It's just about time to eliminate these frosty mornings—in order to conserve our fruit crop.

What Russia needs is a governmental leadership that will not buy gold bricks made in Germany.

People who require an act of congress to get them out of bed can give the daylight saving law full credit.

Any set of workmen who decide to quit their employment at a time like the present are likely to feel exceedingly lonely.

There can be no peace with honor or safety to ourselves or to posterity, except a just peace, and there can and will be no other peace. Work for peace accomplishes nothing but the hampering of our effort, the delay of the real peace, and a greater toll of death of America's fighting men. Our duty is to war for a just and righteous peace; to work or speak for any other peace is aid and comfort to Germany—injury and disloyalty to our boys in France.

Every development since our entry into the war has justified and proved the wisdom, the imperative necessity of America's participation. Every German success and every German failure have shown how necessary to our own welfare and peace, how necessary to the safety and peace of the world the defeat of Germany is.
Every foot of ground Germany has been forced to give up, every foot of land she has seized, have demonstrated the absolute necessity of defeating that sinister, intolerable thing called Germanism.

It is not too early to save your small change for the next liberty loan. Yes, it's coming—and several more at regular intervals. This big war against the damnable Hun must be a complete victory and we must go the limit—and then some—in order to free the world of Prussian military aggrandizement. Our wealth, our men and boys, our every energy must be concentrated on but one object—that of winning the war, all other issues "being merely choreas." We might just as well prepare for twenty years of war for it is a certainty we've got no twenty-four hour job on our hands to end the great struggle.

MACCABEE OFFICERS
ELECTED AT CONVENTION

The convention of Maccabees which closed last night, selected Roseburg as the next meeting place for the convention, says the Salem Journal.
Corvallis was a close contender for the honors, but the Roseburg boosters present succeeded in swinging the convention to their way of thinking.

An event of big moment to the delegates was the announcement at the session last night that the supreme commander of the world, Maccabees, D. P. Markey, of Detroit, Mich., would be in Oregon next month and would be present in Salem on May 7 for a visit with the local lodge.

The evening's exercises were started off with a sumptuous banquet at the hall for the visiting delegates, which was presided over by August Hucklestein as toastmaster.

Election of officers for the coming year resulted in the following selection:

Past Commander George Rapp, Roseburg; Commander W. L. Jones, Jefferson; Lieutenant-Commander J.
F. Scott, Corvallis; Record Keeper
W. B. Gibson, Salem; Chaplain C.
Kropp, Albany; Sergeant Ira Mer-ling, Falls City; Master at Arms Stanton Rowell, Grants Pass; First Warden of the Gate A. Hucklestein, Salem; Second Warden of the Gate
A. Patterson, Mills City; Sentinel T.
Lauderbach, Salem; Picket E. C.
Smith, Seio.

to dedicate a service flag in honor of the members of Rising Star lodge now serving in the U. S. army, which ceremony will be held in conjunction with the observance of the 99th anniversary of the founding of the order on April 26. An invita-

POSTOFFICE DISCONTINUED.

The postoffice at Round Prairie is to be discontinued on the 20th of this month by the postoffice department at Washington, owing to the fact that the postmistress, Mrs.
Jennie Burnett has moved to this city to reside, and of the few remaining settlers there, none care to succeed her. Mail addressed to be sent to Round Prairie citizens after that date should be mailed to Ruckles. The postoffice at Round Prairie has been in existence for the past ten years, T. B. Burnett being the first postmaster, holding his position for five years, and his wife succeeding him and being in charge for the past five years.

WILL GO TO OAKLAND.

It is understood that members of the local liberty loan committee will go to Oakland early in the coming

Nearly all the communities in the it is the object of those in charge of the drive in this community that each city reach its full quota before the date of the campaign closes.
